Ohio Republicans Take Six Ballots to Settle It.

IS CONSIDERED A FORAKER VICTORY

Ex-Governor Named for Senator and Governor McKinley Formally Placed in the Field for the Presidential Nomination.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 28.—The nomination for governor by the Ohio state republican convention of Asa S. Bushnell is generally regarded as a victory for the Foraker men over the McKinley men. The Foraker men were able to concentrate on Bushnell and their opponents remained divided.

GAVE FORAKER AN OVATION.

The republican state convention was called to order here today promptly at 4 p. m. by Colonel Joseph C. Bonner, chairman of the state committee. A half hour previous the hall was packed to its full capacity of 5,000, and many were unable to gain admittance.

While Chairman Bonner, who is a member of McKinley's staff, was eloquently congratulating the republicans on the result of the Ohio election, the speaker was making other triumph for next November in his introductory speech, ex-Governor Foraker entered the hall, and a very boisterous ovation was given him.

After Chairman Bonner had made repeated efforts to secure order and proceed with his introductory remarks, ex-Governor Foraker came to the front of the hall and said: "Gentlemen of the Convention: I hope you will not any longer disturb the deliberations of the convention. There will be time for us all to meet before the next session."

merce and the larger transactions of domestic exchanges. Silver, from its bulk and weight, is not available for large payments in minor wants of mankind.

The enormous increase of the production of silver in the United States, Mexico and Australia has disturbed the value of silver precisely as a like increase of the production has lowered the value of gold.

Other nations adopt the silver standard, but from poverty. I believe that the policy of the United States, adopted in 1873, is the only one that will maintain the value of our money.

The republican party in its national platform of 1892, demanded gold money of equal value, whether of gold or silver.

WASHINGTON IN MOURNING

Death of Secretary Gresham Was Hardly Expected So Soon.

ALL PUBLIC BUSINESS SUSPENDED

Arrangements Going Forward for the Funeral—Troops in the City Will Escort the Remains to the Train—Burial to Take Place in Chicago.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Washington was hardly prepared for the announcement of the death of Secretary of State Walter Q. Gresham, which occurred at such a late hour Monday night that it was not known to the public until read in the papers this morning.

There was also a meeting of the diplomatic corps at the British embassy this morning, for the funeral arrangements were being made.

Major General Ruger will command all of the military forces stationed about the capital, which will be in readiness for the funeral party from the white house to the depot, where a special train will be in readiness to convey the body to Chicago.

While the details of the ceremonies in Chicago are yet incomplete, it is settled that the body will be held at the Arlington Hotel, where a military escort will be borne, accompanied by a military escort.

Postmaster General Wilson, in speaking of Gresham today, said: "To know Judge Gresham was to love him as a man and to admire and respect him as a public servant."

Secretary Herbert has this to say in tribute to the memory of the late secretary: "Everybody knows of his ability and his patriotism. He was one of the most lovable men I ever knew."

The information referred to in the last paragraph was furnished verbally by Mr. Hawrod, Mr. Holt's private secretary, and the diplomats to attend the funeral ceremonies.

The bureau chiefs of the Navy department were instructed as follows: "The secretary of the navy desires that all bureau chiefs be notified to report to the secretary of state at 10 a. m., May 29, in the east room of the executive mansion."

Orders were sent by Secretary Lamont's secretary to the directors of the various banks to have their flags at half mast, and saffets will be fired during the funeral services.

At 3:30 o'clock Mr. Gresham's son-in-law, Mr. J. W. Gresham, was in the city to attend the funeral in Chicago Thursday afternoon, but that this arrangement might be changed.

President Cleveland has issued a proclamation to the effect that he will be in the city at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

Ensign Will Adhere to the Gold Standard. NEW YORK, May 28.—A London cablegram to the Post says: "Sir William Vernon Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, has formally declared his adherence to the gold standard in terms emphasizing his previous strong remarks in favor of the gold standard."

Progress in the Vengeance Murder Trial. DETROIT, May 28.—The insurance agents representing various life concerns took the witness stand in Mrs. Pope's murder trial today. They testified to a number of police taken out by Mrs. Pope upon her husband's body, and to the fact that she had shown that the policies were canceled because the insurance agents believed Mrs. Pope had committed suicide.
