REAL NICE GAME AT LINCOLN. LINCOLN, June 4.-(Special Telegram)-Buck celebrated his arrival home by lam-basting the Saints to a finish. Each side made enough errors to last an amateur league a whole season. Parvin pitched an erratic game, and was succeeded in the eighth by Zeigler. In the sixth the Saints hit Gragg for five singles and Buck re-placed him with Barnes. Hollingsworth's batting, three singles, a double and two triples, was the feature of the game. Score
