

and fire a shot. Evidence is accumulating, however, which tends to show that this statement is not true. This evidence seems to indicate that Chapple did not have a revolver at the time and that both weapons used belonged to Ish.

WOUND THAT KILLED HIM. One was in the left side of the head, the bullet entering at the temple, and passing through the upper part of the lobe of the ear. It ranged very slightly downward and lodged in a large ball below the right ear.

SHOT WHILE SEATED. The theory advanced by the physicians who made and attended the examination is that Chapple was seated in the chair when he was shot.

MRS. ISH AND CHAPPLE. Mrs. Ish's statement that she never had any relation with Chapple and never wrote him any letters is being investigated.

EMPLOYERS KNEW OF IT. Finally in corroboration of the statement of the girl are the statements of both the manager of the Singer Manufacturing company and the manager of the Singer Manufacturing company.

MABEL BOUGHT HIM A RING. Chapple told Meyer that this woman had tried to get him to elope with her and go to South Dakota.

ISH WAS HUNTING CHAPPLE. There is also evidence to show that after obtaining knowledge of the intimate relations between his wife and Chapple he started to look for him on Sunday.

had been perfectly smooth, showing that it had not been touched and there was nothing in the apartment. This evidence seems to indicate that Chapple did not have a revolver at the time and that both weapons used belonged to Ish.

MRS. ISH DID NOT SCREAM. Mrs. Adams was positive that Mrs. Ish did not scream after the shot was fired. He was immediately in front of the house and would have heard any demonstration.

NEITHER WOULD TALK. Ish was seen by a reporter for The Bee last night and was asked to repeat the statement made by him in his statement.
