Janitors in the Public Schools Must Be Members of the Order.

SOME INSTANCES OF RANK INJUSTICE

Board of Education Wing of the Organization Puts Its Trust in Positions Where They May Act as Spies.

While the posturing advisers of the Board of Education were compelled to surrender to the demands of the better element of citizens in regard to the selection of teachers for the coming year, it is beginning to appear that they are not so much satisfied in their defeat by garnering a few scalp among the janitors.

During the past two years the curbstone element has succeeded in organizing a considerable force of political workers of their own stripe among the janitors in the public schools and at every available opportunity they have created vacancies which were filled with men who could be used for political ends.

While the members of the board were involved in a lively controversy over the attempted dismissal of certain teachers, who were only taken the opposition of the janitors, the janitors succeeded in paying a few political debts and in getting rid of one or two janitors whom they had not been able to coerce.

When Mr. Lawton was seen by a reporter he was pumping a wheel down Twenty-fifth street with a zest and evident enjoyment that defied the observation of the reporter.

Chairman Bandhauer of the committee on heating and ventilation, said yesterday that the members of the committee had recommended the dismissal of Mr. Lawton simply because they thought a change would be advisable.

Although it is impossible to ascertain the cause of Mr. Lawton's removal, the identity of his successor throws some light on the mystery.

Another case is that of Mrs. Mary McCausland, who has been dismissed from her position as janitor of the Fort Omaha school.

Delicious biscuit made with Dr. Price's Baking Powder are never out of favor.

WORKING AMONG THE LOWLY

Young Women from Labor College Take Up the Abolition of the Bottoms.

Hattie Fleming, Anna Brooks and Anne Bernard of Tabor college, Iowa, arrived in the city Thursday and took up their abode in the Chapel of the Carpenter on South Third street.

These young women and one or two others of the same college will remain about three weeks, when they will be relieved by other young women from the college.

The object of the visit is to institute a "college settlement" down in the bottoms. The work of the young women will be chiefly of bringing together the inhabitants of that part of the city in a social, moral and friendly manner.

Another feature of the organization is the "olly Glee" club, the object of which has not been fully decided upon as yet, but pertains chiefly to amusements, outings, etc., to be held during the vacation.
