NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Republican Primaries Held in Every Precinct in the City.

HARLAN MEN CAPTURE THE MAJORITY

Though the contest Was Spirited the Best of Feeling Prevailed—List of the Delegates Selected.

The republicans held their city caucuses last evening in every precinct, and as the result an overwhelming Harlan delegation will be sent to the county convention, which meets at the court house in this city next Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Every meeting was largely attended and the enthusiasm and interest shown were only such as are seen when a nomination is equivalent to an election. In spite of the determined contest by both the Drake and Harlan men, however, everything was harmonious and there will be no reason to head up this morning. The Drake men were clearly outgeneraled, in spite of the hard work they have done during the past few weeks, and the McFarland men out still less of a figure. The following table shows an estimate of the comparative strength of the three candidates in the various precinct delegations as made by several Drake men last evening after the returns were all in.

water in the river, and to remedy this a dam was built. By its aid the water was caused to rise quite rapidly, and in a few days the depth had increased many feet. About this time some of the farmers began to raise a kick on the ground that the overflow damaged their farms. They called upon the township trustees, and the latter, after the ground over, decided that the dam must be destroyed. They acted accordingly, and the Manawa people had to be satisfied with what was left of the dam, which was about eight inches less than what they would have liked, although the deficiency is not great enough to hurt the boating and bathing.

Trips for the Knights Templar. George Palmer, a prominent Red Oak merchant, was in the city last week making arrangements for the trip the Knights Templar of Red Oak expect to make to the triennial convocation at Boston next August. The local commandery doesn't expect to go in a body and a number of Council Bluffs people have been laying their plans to accompany the Red Oak men on their special train, which will consist of four vestibule sleepers, with baggage cars. The special train will consist of nearly 200 people, all Knights Templar, with their families.

The train will leave Red Oak Monday, June 22, and go to Boston via Chicago. From Chicago the route lies over the Grand Trunk to Niagara Falls, which will be reached at sunrise.

On the fall they will go to Toronto and spend a few hours there, after which they will proceed to Kingston, where they will take a steamer for a ride down the St. Lawrence, where they will stop two days. Saturday night they will go to the White Mountain and spend Sunday there, holding an afternoon service at Mount Washington. In the evening they will go to Boston and spend four days, leaving by the Fall River line of boats Thursday for New York. The return will take the Washington route, and will take a Washington boat.

Stole Brass from Spago. Roy Orrell was arrested yesterday morning on the charge of stealing about $20 worth of brass from the Spago iron works, in the western part of the city. The brass was committed about two weeks ago, but the police were at a loss for a clew until Orrell sold the stolen stuff at a second-hand store. He was taken to the city jail, where he is awaiting a hearing, which will be given him Monday in Justice Walker's court. If he succeeds in giving a bond it is said he will be immediately re-arrested on another similar charge.

Called Henry George and William Quaker. OBERLIN, O., June 22.—At today's session of the Psychological convention, being held here, Mr. Z. Swift Holbrook of Chicago delivered an address on "Poverty: Its Causes and Remedies." Holbrook called Henry George and William Quaker, as well as several other speakers, and the subject of the address was the language used. One speaker said that he was struck by the fact that men differed with us, they should not be called names, and that the only way to gain influence with those men and their sympathizers was to treat them with respect.

Cashier Three Thousand Short. ST. PAUL, June 22.—A special from Grand Forks, N. D., to the Pioneer-Press says: Auditor Sykes of the Great Northern has recently completed his investigation of the accounts of the missing cash of D. B. IOWA POLITICS BOOMING

Republican County Conventions Open the Fall Campaign.

COIN'S VAGARIES SCORED ROUNDLY

Drake, Harlan and Harsh Receive Support for Governor in Montgomery—Coin's Vagaries Has a Following in Lyons.

RED OAK, Ia., June 22.—(Special Telegram.)—The republican county convention today nominated the following ticket: Representative, H. E. Cook; treasurer, D. H. Gilmore; sheriff, O. A. Rose; superintendent of schools, J. W. Clark; surveyor, E. Cleaver; coroner, S. R. Kridler; supervisor, Junius Benson.

A resolution was passed introducing the state senatorial candidate from this district and an attempt to instruct for governor. All honorable means to procure the passage by the next assembly of the reorganization resolution introduced in the last session by Hon. F. Cooper. This was done for fear the failure to return the latter would be considered an indication that Montgomery county was growing cold on prohibition. An endeavor to instruct delegates to the senatorial convention failed, and this probably caused an attempt to instruct for governor.

J. M. Junkin of Red Oak is the only candidate so far announced for state senator, and it is not at all probable he will meet with any opposition. The nominee for treasurer is from Villisca, and he was chosen on the twenty-second ballot, after a hard fight. This will be the first time for seven years that the second city in size of the county has been given a nomination for a county office by the republican conventions.

The inauguration to the state convention nominally stands nine for Drake, three for Harlan and one for Harsh. In case of a strong contest it can be depended on as solid for Drake, but leaning toward Harlan. A. J. Anderson of Stanton was nominated for auditor to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Auditor Peterson.

The members and invited guests left for Boston for a short outing in the White mountains.

Admitted the New England Association. MINNEAPOLIS, June 22.—At its final meeting today, the executive committee of the American Whist league, admitted the New England association of some thirty or forty clubs to membership on the basis of the Utes. Recorder Has Not Succeeded. PACIFIC JUNCTION, Ia., June 22.—(Special.)—The report sent from Plattsmouth to The Bee Tuesday to the effect that the Junction Recorder, published at this place, had ceased to exist, under foreclosure of a chattel mortgage, is inaccurate, and the citizens are indignant at each report. It has been circulated. The Recorder came out in its usual form yesterday and the publisher has been notified to report about it. It is now being published in a new straight republican paper to be started in Plattsmouth next week and the jealousy of the correspondents probably prompted the article.
