

SALISBURY IS AT WINDSOR

Last Tory Premier Summoned to Visit Victoria at Her Home.

OUTCOME OF THE CABINET'S DEFEAT

Irish Members Are Exceedingly Uneasy and Unable to Determine Where Their Best Interests Will Be Conserved.

LONDON, June 23.—It is just announced that the outcome of the deliberations of the cabinet in consequence of the adverse vote in the House of Commons on Friday is that Lord Rosebery, the prime minister, has tendered his resignation to the queen.

The leading conservatives declare the marquis of Salisbury will not formally take office until Parliament is dissolved. He will insist that the government, before yielding the seals, shall pass a vote of an amount necessary for the expenditures for two months to enable a general election to be held.

IRISH MEMBERS UNEASY

The Irish members are extremely uneasy and dissatisfied. They state that after acting for three years as a government, they are now government, they are deeply concerned at the sudden end of the government without passing any of the principal Irish measures.

Lord Rosebery rose early today and attended St. George's chapel before breakfast. He then strolled through the grounds near his residence at Windsor.

Lord Rosebery was offered the office of premier minister by the queen, but he had already offered his resignation on account of his falling eyesight.

Lord Rosebery had occupied the position of foreign secretary since the retirement of Lord Salisbury, and he had been in the cabinet for ten years past.

Lord Rosebery said, the government would continue to push forward. The course of the new government in many respects was by no means satisfactory to the Irish members of Parliament and their support of the government was gradually given.

The Times says of the resignation of the marquis of Salisbury that it is a great event in the history of the British cabinet.

MINISTRY: THE MINISTERS MUST BE CONGRATULATED UPON HAVING REJECTED THE TRICKERY AND COWARDLY ADVISE OF SOME OF THEIR SUPPORTERS

Representatives of the House of Commons in Salisbury, the duke of Devonshire must be recognized as having a claim to a cabinet office of the highest rank.

MEN AND MEASURES

Recent speeches of the unionists have shown a perfect agreement respecting ends and means. Lord Salisbury may be expected to be a strong supporter of the unionists.

The Daily News (liberal) says: The queen accepted Earl Rosebery's resignation as she accepted Mr. Gladstone's without any expression of reluctance.

GREAT INTERESTS MANIFESTED

Washington Officials Disturbed Over Rumors of the English Complications. WASHINGTON, June 23.—Great interest was manifested among public men in Washington, who received through the Associated Press bulletin the information that Lord Rosebery's retirement had been consummated.

Senator Morgan of Alabama, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, was asked as to the effect of the change in the British cabinet.

Lord Rosebery's resignation was a great event in the history of the British cabinet. It was a surprise to many people.

POLITICAL REFORMS ABANDONED

Conference Between Prominent Officials of the Island Empire Now in Progress with Reference to Relinquishing Fruits of Victory.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 23.—The steamer Captain arrived tonight from Yokohama, bringing the following advices: YOKOHAMA, June 17.—Although no international complications are apprehended on Formosa's account, the latest Korean developments are justly regarded with grave anxiety.

Public affairs are now controlled by the queen through her adherents in the administration. Unless Count Inouye is permitted to employ forcible means, his chances of regaining ascendancy are small.

All Japan is eagerly awaiting to see in what manner they will be able to solve the problems forced upon them by the resolve of the Korean rulers to renounce the Japanese alliance.

As the Japanese soldiers are gradually withdrawing from Manchuria, they are followed by lawless bands of armed Chinese, who are committing the most atrocious crimes.

FAVORS FOR REVOLUTIONS

New York Divine Talks on the Wrongs of the Cubans.

NEW YORK, June 23.—Rev. J. A. B. Wilson, in the Eighteenth Street Methodist church, talked in a prelude at both the morning and evening services today on the Cuban revolution. He said: "Fathed in sunshine, yet bedewed with tears and blood, 150 miles from the coast lies a land of flowers and beauty, a land of fair women and brave men, whose soil is red with the gore of children slain and filled with mothers, sisters and wives bereft of those who died trying to free them from the heels of a despot."

The government of Spain in Cuba has been guilty of the most outrageous nature from the beginning to now. The deprivation of all Creoles or native Cuban population of political and religious liberty, exclusion from all public offices, combined with the heavy taxation necessary to maintain the large standing army and navy, Spain's corrupt officials, in a part of Cuba's wrong.

Dr. Williams then recited the history of the Cuban revolution and said that in 1895 the sympathy of the people of the United States for Cuba was such that President Polk proposed to transfer Cuba to the United States for a price of $100,000,000.

Steam Valve of the Whitebeck Christopher Columbus Blows Out with Frightful Results to Many Passengers and Members of the Crew.

CHICAGO, June 23.—By the explosion of a steam valve in the whaleback steamer Christopher Columbus off Waquoigan Saturday night two men were killed and thirteen dangerously or painfully injured. The dead are: FRANK WILSON, coal passer.

John Hoop, fireman, inhaled steam, and face, neck and breast seriously scalded. George W. Kell, waiter, Buffalo, face and hands scalded. John W. Keough, meat carver, Buffalo, face scalded.

It was the homeward run boat in its opening summer excursion to Milwaukee. About 350 souls were aboard. Flying flags, with music and dancing, was the order of the evening. Half a mile in the boat's wake followed the rival excursion steamer, the Virginia.

Under a Gigantic Strain. Several men below to watch the machinery. The clouds of black smoke, forming a dense, low hanging air in the wake of the whaleback, the vibrations of the craft from stem to stern, and the unusual plowing of water, all told that the Columbus was under a gigantic strain, and would win if it was in her.

Panic Among Passengers. Then the steam reached the passengers. A scream of more or less alarm, and the steam swelled, and in the excitement their friends feared they had been overcome by breathing the deadly vapor.

OKLAHOMA'S GOLD FIELDS

Not of Sufficient Magnitude to Cause Much Excitement.

KANSAS CITY, June 23.—The Star prints the result of a careful examination made by a staff correspondent sent to investigate the reported gold discoveries in Oklahoma. The many sensational stories of wild gold excitement in the territory are positively denied.

The stories of thousands of people being in the diggings are not true. There are comparatively few men there, at the several so-called camps, and many of these are poor they are merely passing through the country in search of work.

The correspondent charges that the stories of Oklahoma towns being swarmed by thousands of diggers have been originated by men interested in drawing outsiders with money into the territory.

PORTER HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Slayer of Charles Woodfork in Keya Paha County Charged with Murder.

HIS CRIME WAS WILLFULLY COMMITTED

Testimony Shows that He Killed the Boy in Execution of Threats Made that He Would Exterminate the Entire Family.

SPRINGVIEW, Neb., June 23.—(Special Telegram.) The case of G. A. Porter, charged with the killing of Charles Woodfork, came up for hearing in county court yesterday. County Judge Holslow on the bench, County Attorney C. E. Lear appearing for the state and Hon. L. C. Brown defending. Porter pleaded "Not guilty."

Dr. A. Webster, county coroner, testified: "I found the boy, Charles Woodfork, near the Woodfork house in Buston precinct, Keya Paha county, Nebraska, June 12, 1895, late in the afternoon, dead with a wound made by a gun in his chest, the breast bone, part of the heart and part of the lungs shot away, with three buckshot wounds coming out through his back on the left side of the backbone. A coroner's inquest was held there and then and the jury held G. A. Porter for the crime."

Mrs. Woodfork, mother of the boy, testified: "Our trouble commenced over a horse. Porter took the horse from me and I took the horse from Porter. Porter gave me money and charged me with theft. He said he would have the horse or kill us all. I objected and Porter pulled his gun and said: 'By G—, I am going to have that horse, and knocked me on the head with his gun, saying at the same time: 'You father, you'll kill you!' I was knocked senseless, and when I came to on my son lay a few feet from me, dead, with 'Porter' holding a revolver in his hands. He then went to the stable, threatening to kill my other boy, who ran. Porter then turned on me, unbalanced his gun and fired at me and said: 'I am a vigilante, and by G—, I can kill you all and you can't help yourselves.' We were all unarmed and he said: 'I will kill you and your wives. My husband left me some time ago. Porter's boy came up and asked me who did this, and I said: 'Your father. Porter then broke the lock to my stable and took the horse.'

Joe Madra testified to having known Porter for some time. He was a neighbor of Porter's. "We all live in the same neighborhood. Porter said to me this spring, 'If they don't quit working for me I will kill them,' meaning the Woodforks."

John Kuhn was called. He testified: "I know all the parties. My grandson was called more than once by Porter. Porter told me that if the Woodforks don't quit working for me, I will kill the whole 4—d outfit."

Joe Hakey, Porter's herder, a boy, was called. He testified: "I was riding on the clay bank pony in controversy. Mrs. Woodfork came and took the horse from me. I went and told Porter. Porter said: 'You father, you'll kill you and your wives. My husband left me some time ago. Porter's boy came up and asked me who did this, and I said: 'Your father. Porter then broke the lock to my stable and took the horse.'
