

CONCLUDED THE TESTIMONY

Scott Case Almost Ready to Be Submitted to the Jury.

EARLY FEATURES OF THE AFFAIR

Speculation as to the Authors of the Holt County Defendant's Murder—Several Theories that Some May Consider Plausible.

BUTTE, Neb., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—In the Scott murder trial today was completed until half an hour before adjournment in giving rebuttal evidence by the state. There were several delays waiting for the state's witnesses, and no evidence of any importance was given. It is safe to say that the state has not in the least strengthened its case nor weakened the case put up by the defendants.

John Weeks was called and testified to Polk's reputation for veracity being good. FUN FOR THE DEFENSE. The defense had lots of fun with R. E. Bowden, a weather bureau observer located in Holt county, who was called to testify as to the state of the weather and the location of the moon on the night of December 21.

MILITIA MEMBERS QUARRELING. There appears to be no immediate prospect of adjusting the trouble in the ranks of the Lincoln militia. The quarrel between the two warring factions, acting under the advice of Judge Hill, have held a council, and are as wide apart as ever.

At the Lincoln—Vance Lane, C. E. Yost, Windsor, Sam Somberg, Lincoln—T. M. McCague, G. Andrews, H. T. Clarke. POUNDING CROPS INTO THE GROUND. Storm at Big Springs More Damaging Than at First Supposed.

EXETER, Neb., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—The storm of last night was worse than at first supposed. The territory between the South Platte and the north fork hills was submerged and all vegetation was pounded into the earth by hail. At the big sand draw a half mile east of here, 100 feet of track was washed away, and at McGath, a siding six miles from here, eighty feet more are gone.

BRAND TURNED BY THE HEAVY. Hastings Farmer Deliberately Sets Fire to Himself and is Fatally Wounded. HASTINGS, Neb., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—As a late Frank von Skille, a young farmer living about three miles west of the city, tried to murder his wife and child, but they escaped.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—John B. Holmes was taken suddenly ill with cramps while on the street yesterday morning and expired in less than two hours' time.

PLATTSMOUTH TAXES DECREASED. The city council passed the estimate of expenses for running the city government for next year at last night's session. The levy will be 44 mills, a decrease of 9 1/2 mills from last year.

YOUNG FORGER CAPTURED. HASTINGS, June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Sheriff Harris returned this evening from Aurora and brought back with him young Arthur Snyder, the lad who forged a note on Robert Spence and stole a gold and silver watch from him.

Plattsmouth taxpayers will find their burden considerably lightened. The water company's bill was rejected. The water company will carry the matter into the courts.

TRIBUTE BREWING AT THE ASYLUM

Superintendent and Steward Fall to Agree on a Question of Routine. LINCOLN, June 25.—(Special.)—There is said to be a speck of war brewing out at the Hospital for the Insane. The Board of Public Lands and Buildings went out there today and dined with Superintendent Abbott, but it is not understood that the visit has any reference to the suspension in question.

MAY DRAW THEIR SALARIES. O. Horn, treasurer of the board of trustees of the Nebraska Institution for the Blind, who has been called on by the auditor and state auditor, Horn is plaintiff in the suit to compel Governor Holsbohm by mandamus to approve his official bond.

THEY CELEBRATED THEIR VICTORY. Result of the School Election at Bennington. BENNINGTON, Neb., June 25.—(Special.)—Excitement runs high here today over the result of yesterday's school election.

Result of the Hearing at Salt Lake Yesterday—Believes the Trust Company Will Now Refuse to Take the Property and Let It Go to Sale.

SALT LAKE, Utah, June 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Chief Justice Merritt today upheld the American Loan and Trust company with such violence that it is not likely to appear in the Utah courts for some time to come. The Quiden Short Line receivership case came up on a motion of the trust company to modify Judge Merritt's recent order by eliminating that portion which appointed W. H. Bancroft joint receiver, which would have been in sole possession.
