LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 26 .- The democratic state convention of Kentucky has certainly endorsed the administration, with special tributes to President Cleveland and his distinguished adviser, Carllele. No outing was ever of more productive results than that of Secretary Carlisle and the Memphis convention. The silverites, including Senator Blackburn, attribute their defeat to the recent speeches of Carlisle and the circulation that was given them. The free coinage men do not deny that they expected to control the convention and all its committees, the platform and nominations. 'They fought gamely to a finish, and take their defeat, although they make charges about the way it was done, especially on the part of Auditor of State Norman and others, against Norman. The free silver men were beaten first in the district meetings that selected members of the committees; then in the selection of Judge Beckner for temporary chairman and Congressman Berry for permanent chairman;

They were very bitter to-ward Auditor of State Norman, who was General Hardin's manager, and himself in his philippic on Cleveland and Carlisic as the associates of Rothschild and Morgan, and burn's speech against the majority report on resolutions he showed his feeling toward. Senator Blackburn had been called for all senator been called for all after which they did not take much interest some on whom he had depended, while he referred very respectfully to Schater Lindas temporary chairman, and the latter divided the appointments of the members-at-large, in the interest of Hardin rather than to cater to either the gold or the silver men. While Hardin held the silver vote almost solid, the Clay men could not get all the sound money men away from him because of his consideration in the organization of the convention, and of his unusually strong the nomination of Hardin is considered a great personal victory, as the men who framed the platform and shaped the policy of the party had been working hard today for Clay or a dark horse. The silver men, as a rule, are feeling good tonight over Har-din's nomination, although Blackburn and some other silver leaders feel that Hardin did not stand by them, and refer to the in-consistent position in which he now findhimself on an admisistration platform. In the present fight the entire city dally press has been against Senator Blackburn, and the Cincinnati Enquirer has been his exponent.

Tonight the Senator made the following statement to the Enquirer correspondent do not feel sore, nor have I any heartpossible to win a fight against a combina-tion of money and federal patronage, and motion to substitute the minority report on credentials for the majority report the call of the 119 counties began. CLAY MEN VICTORIOUS.

The Clay men favored the substitute and the Hardin men opposed it. As the vote was considered a test of strength it was watched with great interest and resulted 448 ayes, 425 nays. The result was greeted with loud cheering by the Clay men. The Hardin men rushed to the platform charged false counting and fraud, and created tumultuous scene, which was finally checked by crowding Senator Lindsay through the fighters to the front of the platform when he opened another hot contest by presenting the majority report of the committee on resolutions.

Lindsay, chairman of the committee on resoas the majority report signed by nine of the thirteen members:

First—The democracy of Kentucky in convention assembled congratulates the country upon the repeal of the McKinley tariff law and upon the evidences we have on every hand of returning prosperity under the operations of reduced and equalized tariff legislation and we denounce as fraught with danger and disaster the threat of our republican adversaries to re-establish a protective tariff and to reinaugurate a policy of unequal taxation, which in connection with general misgovernment by the republican party culminated in the business panic of 1883.

Third—We reaffirm without qualification the principles and policies declared by the national democratic platform of 1892 and declare that our present democratic administration is entitled to the thanks of the party for its honest, courageous and statesmanlike management of public affairs; and we express our undiminished confidence in the democracy and pariotism of President Grover Cleveland and his distinguished coadvisers and Secretary John G. Carlisle of Kentucky.

The names of President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle were received with pro-longed applause. Ex-Congressman W. T. Ellis presented the minority report, when John S. Rhea took the floor to read it him self, as he would not trust to the secretary.

MINORITY REPORT ON RESOLUTIONS. The following is the minerity report in which the silver men sought to load down the majority rather than advocate their own The minority members of the committee on resolutions dissent from views expressed by the majority committee on resolutions, which is proposed as an endorsement of the present national democratic administration because the said resolution is ambiguous, obscure and uncertain in its meaning and is, in our opicion, an attempt to straddle the most vital question now attracting the attention of the American people. And while the minority do not concur in the views expressed in said resolution, for in the views expressed in the amendment which is here submitted, they nevertheless believe that it is the duty of the democratic party to express itself in clear and unambiguous terms on this subject. The financial policy of the present temocratic administration deserves an ununlifted endorsement at the hands of the democratic party of Kentucky, or it does not deserve such endorsement; and, with a view of taking the opinion of the representatives of the democracy of Kentucky in convention assembled, we submit the following as an amendment to said resolution:

The following as a separate resolution was offered and its adoption asked:

Congressman Ellis opened the debate for minority report. Ex-Governor James G. McCreary, who is a candidate for the senate, made a vigorous appeal for the Kentucky democracy, co-operiting with Cleveland, Carlisle, and the de-nocracy, as its principles had been declared n 1893. Senator Blackburn sat immediately back of the speaker. When McCreary argued that there was no room for two democratic parties in Kentucky, the "sound money" men cheered loudly. Mr. McCreary opposed the minority report and its supplement most vigorously, and held the floor, notwithstanding the calls for Blackburn and other disng the carls for Blackburn, and other dis-

They state that if they could have forced nominations yesterday their man would have had over 600 votes, instead of less than 500, and admit they were nervous all day. It was thought yesterday that Hardin would be nominated without the presentation of any other name, even that of Clay. The Hardin men elected Buckner as temporary chairman, and the latter

The convention reached climaxes of the highest pitch when the senator denounced the insinuation that the majority report was a republican platform. His voice sounded like the roaring of a lion as he warmed up in replying to the incimuations that the ma-jority of those on the committee or in this onvention were nivocates of republican octrines of any kind.

Senator Lindeay was interrupted by numerous questions from the silver men, among them being one "Why the resultrating of the platform of 1892 would not be enough?" He replied that they wanted more of a good thing. Senator Lindsay moved the adoption of the majority report and there was a response of nays in loud chorus.

TROUBLE STARTED AGAIN. Chairman Berry announced that a revision f the count by the secretary sustained the previous announcement of the substitution of the minority report on credentials for the ma-jority report. The Clay men cheered this ancoment and the Hardin men precipitated nother riot. The previous question was ordered on a iva voce vote after I o'clock on the adoptiof the reports on resolutions. In this proceed-ing Chairman Berry was equal to the emergency in his ruling on the vote and the result would never have been reached.

Ex-Congressman El'is moved to amend section 3 of the majority report after the words "platform of 1892." This amendment struck ut that part of the resolution endorsing the dministration, Cleveland and Carlisle. Mr. Rhea offered a substitute for his esolution of thanks to Cleveland and Carlisle for their negotiations with the Roths-childs and Morgan. This was ruled out and he next vote taken was on the amendment of Mr. Ellis, which reaffirmed the Chicago platform of 1892 and cut out the endorse-ment of Cleveland and Carlisie. The Ellis amendment was defeated by a large majority. It was considered a victory Clay, as well as for Cleveland and Carlisle. The vote on the Ellis amendment was announced with loud cheering for Cleveland and Carlisle. It was moved that the Messrs. Rhea, Ellis and others claimed that they were entitled to another separate vote on their original minority report, which was a sarcastic endorsement of Cleveland and Carlisle for maintaining a single gold standard. The Ellis amendment was known as the supplemental report. The roll had been called on it and the silver men in-sisted on the roll being called again on substituting the original minority report for the majority report. There was an over-whelming viva voce vote against the minority report, but a call of the 119 countles was demanded and ordered at 2:30. The final vote on substituting the minority eport for the majority report on resolutions had only 22 ayes. When the minority report well as the supplement was lost the ques on recurred on the adoption of the majority sport. RECEIPTS FX RED EXPENDITURES Treasury Shows a Balance on the Right Side of the Ledger for July.

WASHINGTON, June 26 .- For the first time in many months the treasury receipts for the current month will exceed the expenditures. Today the treasury balance sheets for the mouth show a surplus instead of a deficit, and as the expenditures are usually light toward the end of the month, it is regarded as certain that the surplus will con-tinue to grow from now until July 1. INSURGENTS CAPTURE TWO TOWNS Spanish Garrisons in Both Cases Surrendered Without Fring a shot.

HAVANA, June 26,-The most serious news of Spanish disasters received here since the cutbreak of the rebellion reached here this evening. The garrisons of two towns have surrendered and the places themselves have been burned by Maximo Gomez. Firing RCUND OF BAI QUETS IN PROSPECT was heard constantly around Puerto Prin cipe last night and extraordinary precautions are being taken to protect that city. Owing to the restrictions placed by the government upon the transmission of telegraphic news concerning the insurrection, only the most meager details of the disaster to the Spanish arms are obtainable. It appears certain, however, that the garrison at El Mulatto, in the province of Puerto Principe, near the washington, June 26.—Teday's treasury statement will show the gold reserve to be $107,447,855.

While no information has been received from the treasury other than that yesterday's gold deposits would bring the reserve up to the amount given, it is assumed that this deposit covers the entire amount due under the contract. Whether yesterday's deposits of nearly $7,000,000 was in foreign gold is regarded as extremely doubtful, as no information has nearest ton has preached between the company of the workly of the strival of such twenty-five Spanish soldiers under the place was also provisioned and contained a considerable stock of ammunition. Mr. Edwards' Ambition May Prevent Cone firmation of the Appointment.

ASKED TO BIND HIMSELF HAND AND FOOT

Democrats Believe They Bave an Opport tunity to Determine Bolin's Successor-Experts Named for a Thorough Overhauling of the Books,

A special meeting of the city-council will be called within a day or two to receive the report of the committee on judiciary on the mayor's appointment of Thomas Swobe, as a decisive vote.

The selection of a city treasurer has become purely a matter of politics, so far as the council is concerned. It is the misfortune of Mr. Swobe that he is in a position where politics and the future ambitions of one member of the council dictate that he shall be turned down. The same thing might be said of any other republican appointee, unless he was willing to bind himself not to be a candidate for renomination at the hands of the convention this

It is rather a peculiar situation that the republican members of the council are either openly or in secret in favor of a democratic appointment. It is no secret that President Edwards is incubating a boom by ally in the present emergency. The Edwards combine fought vigorously to retain Mr. Bolin in office, as they assumed that he could not possibly be a factor in the coming campaign. Being defeated in this particular, their energies are bent toward making it certain that his successor shall be who will not stand in the way of President Edwards' ambition.

While this assurance was which he neglected to turn into the United States treasury. Money was received by him, or properly speaking, by his cierks, for stamps and other postal moneys. When the ex-postmaster got out of office this shortage was discovered and soon afterward the suit was commenced.

The allegations against Quinn are even stronger than those in the case of Bryan. There are two separate actions against Quinn. One for the misappropriation of $1.635.60 and the other for $2.695.63, between the 27th of March, 1891, and November 13, 1893. The facts leaked out today when the United States.

Ing to go in for six months in order to assist the city out of its dilemma, but would not accept a nomination for further service under any circumstances. While this assurance was as broad as could possibly be required, Mr. Edwards and his friends were still suspicious. As one of them put it, "If he likes the place he may conclude to stay in for another term." When the appointment was presented to the mayor, they were still in doubt whether, they could safely confirm Mr. Reed, and a caucus was called for 7 o'clock Tuesday evening.

In case of the failure of the council to confirm Mr. Swobe there is some difference of opinion as to whom the next appointment will fall upon. The friends of George Heim-rod are working hard, but as he is also an avowed candidate for the republican nomination the same snag is encountered as in Mr. Swobe's case. The democratic state bears the name of Harry P. Deuel and his friends hope to force his appointment by uniting with the Edwards republicans to defeat any other EXPERTS TO CHECK UP BOOKS. Yesterday the finance committee of the council acted promptly in setting on foot the more thorough examination of the city treasurer's books ordered by the council Tuesday night. The committee met yesterday and selected four experts for the work. They are Charles F. Drexel, who was deputy treasurer under John Rush, and later secre-tary of the Commercial club; William Ross, formerly with the First National bank; G. A. Rathbun, who has recently finished checking up the city accounts of South Omaha, and J. N. Wise, who has been employed by the city on the tax list.

These men will meet with the committee this morning and receive specific advices as to what will be expected of them. They will, says Mr. Taylor, chairman of the committee, work in pairs, and will begin their task today. All the accounts of Mr. Bolin from first day of his first term will be gone over. Comptroller Olsen does not expect that the committee investigation will majorially change the situation. He believes that the books will balance as reported by him and that the shortage will be confined to the cash account. But there are so many rumors in regard to the complicated condition of the office that t is thought best to have an investigation that would disclose the exact state of affairs and allow the new treasurer to take a new start and with a thorough understanding all around of the status of the office when it
