FIRST EVENT THE ONE MILE NOV CE

Two Mile Handleap Wound Up the Afternoon's Entertainment -- Twenty Elders Scattered Along the Track Within Three Bundred Yards Two state records broken is the record made at the wheel meeting given yesterday at the driving park for the benefit of John Worlman, with Ed Duquette as promoter The track was in superfine condition, havng been freshly rolled for the occasion. The weather was all that any one could wish, and the crowd, while it did not meet the buoyant Dr. Roller will locture to the nurses of the expectations of some, was very fair. Every crowd that left the grand stand when the last event was over.

The first event was the one-mile novice with eleven starters. The first prize, medal, was awarded to Fred E. Edword of Bluff City lodge No. 71, Ancient, Free and | Fort Omaha, who made the mile in 2:3714.

marked by more soldiering than anything else, each rider seeming to be afraid of but one thing, and that was that he would reach the wire first. In spite of all efforts to the contrary, H. E. Fredrickson of Omaha contrary, H. E. Fredrickson of Omaha passed the judge's stand in 2:56½. Fred D Edwood of Fort Omaha came in second and H. C. Gadke of Omaha third. When the result was announced it was received jeers, and the inhabitants of the grand stand called out lustily to "make "em do it over," but Judge Randlett refused to listen to the lemands for an encore, and the result stood. In the one-mile handleap C. Johnson of fort Omaha, one of the 150-yard men, took the lead from the very first, and all efforts to dislodge him were unavailing. He passed under the wire in 2:24, with Charles M. Parker of Fort Omaha right behind him. H. E. Fredrickson of Omaha, one of the scratch men, had stayed in the rear until the home stretch was reached, when he bounded forward and came in third. Raiph Brown of Omaha and Harvey Holloway of Omaha came in fourth and fifth respectively.

The two mile handicap, which wound up the afternoon's entertainment, was an interesting the track for a distance of 300 yards, the 300 yard men being nothing more than boye although before the race was over they showed themselves to be worth thinking about. They held their own until the grand stand had been passed after the first mile end then the scratch riders began to gain or hem. The gaining continued until the sec nd mile was ended, but two of the 200 yard nen, C. Johnson of Fort Omaha and George suggette of Council Bluffs, came in thir nd fifth respectively, while John T. McNider f the 200 yard bunch captured the race in 06. Harvey Holloway of Plattsmouth took ourth. There was some talk that McNider who appeared on the program as a 200 yard man, stole an extra 100 yards and started with the 390 yard men, but the judges did no think enough of the charge to make an official investigation and he was given the prize.

> Chaplain J. D. Parker will retire on the th of September next. This is the last re tirement before that of General Schoffeld haplain Parker is the post chaplain at Sa: Diego, Cal. The vacancy which will result from the retirement of Chaplain Parker will filled by presidential appointment. There will be no retirements during the emainder of the month of June and nonduring next month, but although the retire ment of Colonel Winthrop is quite a long time off, it is not so far distant as to be our of reach of army goesips. There is a great deal of interest being manifested by th Marshalltown and the second at Cedar army officers in these coming retirements considering the fact that such a few vacancie will result where presidential appointment will be necessary. In most cases the promolons are by seniority of rank. The vacancy in the grade of major in the judge advocate general's department will be filled by an appointment by the president.

(Continued from First Page.) Cottle, a prominent Buffalo lawyer, was found bound and gagged in the cellar of a vacant house at Black Rock this morning. He had been there all night. The police are mystified. Mr. Cottle's story is that on Monday morning a man drove out to his house the large of the country were all called it was evident that General Hardin was nominated, and the Hardin men and table him and control of the country were all called it was evident that General Hardin was nominated, and the Hardin men cheered as the last counties responded: "More for Hardin." Before the result of the ballot was amounced the Clay men moved that the nomination of General Hardin be made unanimous, and it was carried with a great hurrah.

The result of the ballot was announced as Hardin, 4681/2; Clay, 3201/4; Stone, Watterson, 2. Mesers. Henry Burnett, J. B. Parris and

J. R. Hrecklaridge were appointed to escor General Hardin to the hall. Meanwhile General Cassius M. General Clay said he wou never again be before the people for offi-and after thanking those who stood loyally by him, urged them to keep Ken-tucky in the democratic columns. When the committee escorted General Hardin to the hall there was the wildest scenes of shout ing. General Hardin accepted the nomina-tion in an elequent appeal for harmony, without referring to any issues of the con-test. He spoke very briefly.

For lieutenant governor the names of R.

T. Tyler, M. B. Brown and Oscar Turner jr., were presented. Tyler was nominated without counting the vote, when the convention, at midnight, adjourned till 9:30 a. m SKETCH OF GENERAL HARDIN.

SKETCH OF GENERAL HARDIN.
P. Watt Hardin was born June 3, 1841, in Adair county, Kentucky. He is the second son of Parker C. and Caroline Watkins Hardin. The Hardin family came to Kentucky about 1784, and the most prominent of them settled in Washington county. Martin D.
Hardin, Colonel John Hardin and Ben Hardin will be ever remembered as belonging to the category of Kentucky's men.
General P. Watt Hardin received his education in the schools of Adair county. He studied law with his father and was gdmitted to the bar in 1865. From the very mitted to the bar in 1885. From the very first General Hardin was the pride of his relatives and friends because of his noble heart and graceful manners. In 1879 he was nominated by the democratic state con-vention for attorney general of the state and was elected, re-elected in 1883 and again in 1887. In 1891 he was a candidate for gover-nor, and after a splendid contest was defeated

Williams has since died. Patterson also fired two shots at J. L. Isenberg, editor of the Daily Wave. One shot took effect at the outer edge of the left eye. Isenberg's injuries are slight. The difficulty was between Isenberg and Patterson, and was occasioned by an article in this evening's Wave criticising Patterson. They met at about 7 o'clock, when angry words ensued, immediately followed by words ensued, immediately followed by blows. Patterson drew his revolver and began shooting at Isenberg, when Williams ran in. Patterson then fired at Williams, Williams ran in.
