EX-CHIEF COOPER PLACED ON TRIAL

Capital City Gon Club Will Celebrate the Fourth at the Traps-Welt Known Worker to the Beligious Field Married.

LINCOLN, June 27 .- (Special.)-J. J. Imhoft was a prisoner at the police court this morning, having been arrested at the instance of the health officer for having violated the sanitary regulations by permitting garbage to be thrown in the zitey back of his palatial residence on J street. A number of good, women testified as witnesses and Imhoff was fined a nominal sum and costs. The women all claimed their witness fees and these amounted to $11.80, which the defendant refused to liquidate, claiming that the fine itself was an injustice and he would pay no more. A mittimus for the incarceration of Imboff was written out, and after sliting around the court room for an hour he paid up and indignantly withdrew, threatening the health office with all manner of dire venge-

The lecture of Prof. Cook at the teachers Institute this morning was on "Habits," in which he held that school life is the formation of habits. It was the business of the teacher to direct this habit-forming into proper channels. As a general definition for education he gave the influence of one will on another and said the function of punishent was to make a place for the teacher's fill. He divided punishment into three heads, corporal, isolation and that based on a sense of honor. He claimed that corporal punishment was not such a barbarous thing es many held it to be, and thought there were cases which could be best reached by this means.

At a mass meeting of the teachers this afternoon the following were appointed a committee on resolutions: J. C. Pentzer, B. J. Woodbury, J. J. Anderson, E. E. Blackman, G. E. Hansen. They will report to an adjourned meeting tomororw at 3:15 EX-CHIEF COOPER ON TRIAL.

The trial of ex-Chief Coper on the charge of E. H. Woolley testified that Sheriff Tighe, Akerson, Cooper and Malone came to his office the morning after the arrest of the murderers of Akerson's father. Cooper re ed to give up the prisoners until the ward was paid. A check was given him and cashed, for which Cooper gave a receipt. Soon afterward a saloonkeeper named Conway came in and laid claim to the reward. Cooper then said that if Akerson had to pay Conway he would pay him or return the amount to Akerson. Another receipt was given by Cooper with this clause inserted. Subsequent to judgment being redered against Akerson in Conway's favor, Cooper refused to return the money. The court records were intro-duced to show that Akerson had paid it. Pending further evidence in the matter the case was continued till tomorrow morning. It is understood that the defense will claim that the case is not liable to criminal prosecution, but a matter for civil procedure en-

NOTES FROM THE GOVERNOR'S OF FICE

Steps Being Taken to Collect the Direct Tax Refund.

LINCOLN, June 27 .- (Special.) -- Governor Holcomb has taken steps toward securing the $19,312 direct tax levied against the state of Nebraska March 2, 1861. During the session of the last legislature Governor Holcomb addressed a communication to that body, informing it that he had received advices from Senator William V. Allen to the effect that there was now credited to Ne-braska the sum of $19,312, awaiting a formal demand for the same. The legislature im-mediately adopted a concurrent resolution accepting this amount from the United States. Today Governor Holcomb requested Secretary of State Piper to furnish him with an of-ficial copy of the joint resolution. The governor will now write Secretary of the United States Treasury Carlisle, and formally receipt for the money. The tax was one levied upon Nebraska when a territory, at the breaking out of the civil war, in common with other territories and states, and by act of congress refunded.

In 'regard to the insane patient, Carroll, now confined in the asylum for incurables at Hastings, and who is reported in the morning papers as having beaten to death another patient with a stone, Governor Holcomb has written to Superintendent Damerell for a written to Superintendent Damerell for a full explanation. It is said that through some motive of secrecy the affair was kept from the newspapers, and instead of in-stantly giving the widest publicity to the matter, it was suppressed. If this be true the governor is severe in his condemnation of such a mistaken policy. Carroll was sent up from Lincoln to Hastings two years ago for shooting and slightly wounding Acting Police Judge Borglet, before whom he ing Police Judge Borglet, before whom he was being examined. He has always been a violent patient with homicidal tendencies, and was habitually confined with his hands in leather muffs. He cut these off with a ece of wire staple when he made this last Citizens' Ditch Will Soon Be Completed in that Section.

WILL UTILIZE THE WHITE RIVER'S FLOOD

Many Thousand Acres Will Be Irrigated in Addition to Affording Five Hundred Horse Power for Manufacturing Purposes.

CRAWFORD, Neb., June 27 .- (Special.)-Shortly before the passage of the new irrigation laws two claims were filed here appropriating the waters of White river for power purposes. The first was filed by Leroy Hall, proprietor of the flouring mill about three miles north of the city on the White river, proposing to take the water from the river on Fort Robinson military reservation, near the city, and conduct it by canal on the west side of the river to his present mill site.

The second claim was filed by W. T. Forbes, a prominent local merchant, proposing to take the water from the river three miles above Fort Robinson, on the reservation, and to conduct it by canal to the high hills in the southern part of the city. The War office at Washington was the scene of the fight for priority of way over the reservation. There is only enough water in the river for one of the proposed ditches, and Hall wanted the power only for his mill. Forbes had offered Hall sufficient power to run his mill free if Hall would withdraw CITIZENS' DITCH FAVORED. Forbes was backed by almost the entire amunity in his efforts to secure the power for Crawford, and last week received word rom Washington that his claim was allowed for the Citizens' ditch, and work was com menced immediately on its construction. Forbes today drove The Bee correspondent over the proposed route to the scene of op-erations, passing on the way the surveying outfit under J. R. Hickox, who surveyed the B. & M. railway through here. Hickox says return a verdict of not gullty, there being that the ditch when completed will give evidence to indicate that defendant was Crawford the finest water power he has any cnowledge of between Niagara and Great Falls.

The canal will be fifteen miles in length The width at the bottom is six feet, and will run a stream of water four feet deep to the hill south of town, where an almos perpendicular drop of ninety-six feet will be had, furnishing about 500 horse power. Two miles further on another drop of sixty-five feet will be had, where the water rewith power for his mill. IRRIGATES MANY ACRES.

After passing the Hall mill the large irrigation ditches utilize the water of the river n irrigating hundreds of acres of land trib stary to the city.

After leaving the surveyors, climbing along the side of an almost perpendicular butte. The Bee correspondent entered a beautiful spot, the head of the Citizens' ditch, where a large group of men, with horses, scrapers and shovels, are at work, from the heat by the beautiful and heavy timber through which they are cutting. The cost of the Citizens' ditch, as estimated by Forbes, will be about $75,000, which will in clude the making of two or three large artificial lakes and reservoirs near the city.
