A Kit en Stopped the Car.

One little kitten, about five inches in ength, held in check Monday morning the down-town traffic over the City & Suburban railroad, says the Baltimore Sun. A summer car stopped to take on passengers, when the kitten, sitting on the sidewalk leisurely in-specting the car, suddenly determined on a personal investigation of the inside work ings of the rapid transit. She ran out into the street immediately underneath the heavy battery of the car and began clambering about the machinery. The conductor and several of the passengers saw her, and an effort was made to chase the kitten away Canes and umbrellas were thrust underneath the car at her, and many emphatic com-mands to "shoo!" were given, but it was evident she was goo new in the world
