Large numbers of people assembled at both places, and a good time was enjoyed. The oration at St. Paul was delivered by Rev. George S. WEST POINT, Neb., July 5.-(Special.)-The Fourth was celebrated here in grand tyle. The splendid crop prospects did much to create enthusizem. For many years the outlook has not been so favorable for a heavy yield, and the farming community felt justified in celebrating the day with all the old-time vim. Large delegations were present from neighboring towns, and a glorious day was spent. The usual races, games, etc., were indulged in, and a display of fireworks amusements took place in the afternoon. The speaking took place in Richardson's grove. Rev. J. T. Marvin delivered the address Rev. W. H. H. Smith also spoke. The town was crowded with people all day. No acci-dents occurred. It was in all a big day here.
