Fight at Fig Lake.

Big Lake has been the resort for several Sundays past of a lot of people who were bent upon having a good time, even at the expense of the properties. Yesterday a boy on horseback rode at post haste from the lake to the Northwestern round house and sent a telephone message to the police head-quarters, stating that eighteen men were fighting and had overcome the officer. From the excited way in which the alarm was given it seemed as if the eighteen were about massacre all the residents of Crescent township. No one chanced to be at the station who could be sent, however, and no fatalities, or even serious accidents, were reported.

British Republicans Gaining.

William E. Busby, private secretary to General Agent Manderson, of the Union Pacific Railway company, is again at his desk, after a two months' trip to his old home in England. He states that during the few years since he left home the republican spirit in Great Britain has made a rapid growth Still, when the people who favor the republican idea are asked if they will favor a republican government on the death of Queen Victoria, they shake their heads dubicusly and say that since the last presidential clec-tion in the United tSates, republicanism has looked a good deal like a failure, and they are drubtful about making the experiment.

Looking for lils hoys.

Paul Hirsch was looking last evening for ome traces of his two sons, Julius and Willlam, aged 11 and 13 years, who have been living with him at 525 Harmony street. They have been picking berries for William Brown near the Hess place, and had some money coming to them from Brown. Yesterday morning they announced their intention of starting for the farm to get their pay, and that is the last seen of them. They were barefooted and wore their old clothing, so that it hardly seems as if they could have intended to run away. At 10:30 last evening no trace had been found, and he reported the case to the police. Couldn't Place IIIm.
