

JOHN SELJAN'S LAST RIDE

Body Taken to the River in a Fish Cart. THREE MEN BORE THE GRUESOME BURDEN. Engineer Kinney Saw the Murderers as They Moved Along the Street—Hokove, Drobnic and Mikan Arraigned in Police Court.

The most important witness that has yet been discovered in connection with the Seljan murder case is Thomas Kinney, the well known Union Pacific engineer, who lives at 1360 North Seventeenth street.

Mr. Kinney is in charge of one of the Union Pacific yard engines, and is on the night detail. At just 2:30 o'clock last Wednesday morning he was standing on the viaduct which spans South Thirtieth street.

Three men were conveying a mysterious burden along the street. It was loaded on a cart, such as are used by the fruiterers, and which had been previously pointed out as such a vehicle as the murderers would be likely to have had.

When Kinney saw the men and the cart, he was struck with the resemblance which the object bore to a human body. He had the shape of the body of a large man. The object was too long for the cart and extended a couple of feet over the front.

Men Seemed Excited. The longer he thought about it, however, the more certain he became that the early morning promenade could not be accounted for in that way.

OUTING SHIRTS.

Some people like this weather—some don't. We would call it just right if we hadn't felt short on sales of Negligee Shirts. What bothers us most is whether the people wear last summer's shirts patched up, or economize and suffer?

We'll find out pretty soon. Shirts will be sold much cheaper from now on—at cost, or even at a loss. Can't sell lovely Shirts, of a big assortment (at such pitiful prices as we mention this season) fast enough, then we'll force 'em at all hazards.

About the same amount of pretty designed percale shirts, some with separate collars and cuffs, some with collars and cuffs attached, at SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS. Our former price was $1.00, and some one else's price $1.25.

Quite a collection of French percale dress shirts—striped and polka dot, collars and cuffs detached, lovely fitting at A DOLLAR. Used to be $1.25; others get $1.50 for nearly like that.

Madras, laundered, regular $2.00 values, cut down to $1.25. But if you wish for negligee you have to come and look. We have too many. At 30c—35c—40c—45c—55c—65c and so on.

Can't discriminate. Whatever suits your fancy it is our pleasure to sell. Chances are that we have just the pattern you like. If we haven't with a tremendous stock like that, the man with a handful of shirts might have it, and you are never too late to get it.
