DES MOINES, July 10.—(Special Telegram.)—Contrary to expectations, the republican state convention closed through its work today and adjourned at six o'clock.

Work of Naming the State Ticket of the Hawkeye Republics Soon Over - Harlan's Forces Broke Away from Their Candidate. The convention will pass down in history as one of the most important in the annals of the state. The intense interest taken in the contest for nomination for governor attracted thousands of the leading republicans of the state. The morning session was tardy in getting together, owing to the protracted sessions of some of the district caucuses, which began at five o'clock.

GAVE ALLISON A RECEPTION.

An interesting incident of the convention was the reception of Senator Allison by the convention at the morning session, which clearly showed him the unanimous choice of the Iowa republicans for the presidential nomination. The reception of Senator Allison was observed to ascend the stage and move slowly toward a seat on the platform.

FEATURES OF THE PLATFORM.

The platform in brief reaffirms the fealty of the party in Iowa to the national party, contemplating the people upon the evidence of returning prosperity and industry re-established on a progressive basis, all of which is attributed to the prospective of the republican party.

SOUNDS THE KEYNOTE.

Members of the Convention, which took for the honor you have conferred, in allowing me to be your representative at this convention, congratulate you upon the magnificent harmony existing at the present time in both branches of the legislature in national affairs.

Third ballot: Drake.....509 Letts.....19 Harlan.....385 Ormsby.....19 Parrott.....248 McFarland.....2 Harsh.....34 Conway.....2

Fourth ballot: Drake.....509 Letts.....19 Harlan.....385 Ormsby.....19 Parrott.....248 McFarland.....2 Harsh.....34 Conway.....2

Fifth ballot: Drake.....509 Letts.....19 Harlan.....385 Ormsby.....19 Parrott.....248 McFarland.....2 Harsh.....34 Conway.....2

Sixth ballot: Drake.....509 Letts.....19 Harlan.....385 Ormsby.....19 Parrott.....248 McFarland.....2 Harsh.....34 Conway.....2

OTHERS CAME EASY.

General Drake made a brilliant ten-minute speech, in which he congratulated the convention then proceeded to the nomination of lieutenant governor. It has all along been thought that Lieutenant Governor Dungan would be elected, but the friends of some of the defeated candidates for the gubernatorial nomination pushed him from the front for the second position, and a ballot was cast, resulting as follows: Dungan, 34; Parrott, 69; Ormsby, 21; Kamrar, 30. During the second ballot Dungan's name was withdrawn and the nomination fell upon the republican party.

BOSTON, July 10.—The most important proceedings in connection with the fourteenth annual convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, which formally opens at 5:30 tomorrow, was the meeting of the trustees of the organization at noon today.

CHERRIED SENATOR ALLISON. An unexpected but highly interesting and interesting feature occurred when Senator Allison came on the platform in the middle of Chairman Lane's speech. There was a pause in the proceedings, which was broken by Allison's response with gracious bow and was then seated.

LAPE YOUNG'S VIEW OF DEMOCRACY. At the afternoon session Hon. Lape Young, of Iowa, made a brilliant and exceedingly brief but eloquent address as follows: "Neither defeat nor success in any of our political contests has been an opportunity to me as a democrat, when most attempts to build it most destroy it. Its best efforts are demonstrated in the country at different times, but it has attempted to make something out of democracy, only to fail.

CITY LAVISHLY DECORATED. The city was never more lavishly decorated and never appeared to better advantage than today. At reception headquarters to break chances' lab messengers are constantly bringing reports from the living white-capped Envoys, who are at railroad stations and boat landings, and who are bringing to the delegates who are coming in from all parts of the country.

THE TRUSTEES FINALLY DECLINED TO ACCEPT THE CHICAGO TIMES-HERALD OFFER OF $15,000 ON CONDITION OF THE REMOVAL OF THE SOCIETY'S HEADQUARTERS FROM THE CITY. The trustees finally declined to accept the Chicago Times-Herald offer of $15,000 on condition of the removal of the society's headquarters from the city.

TESTIMONY OF THE NUMEROUS WITNESSES

Details of the Bloody Crime that Was Committed in the Little Cottage on Pierce Street—Another Witness Located.

The preliminary hearing of Mikau, Bukove and Drobnic, the three men accused of the murder of John Seljan, was commenced in police court at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. A crowd of spectators filled every inch of standing room and almost fought for positions that afforded a view of the prisoners and that they might be within earshot of the witness stand.

Joseph Struikel, a boiler-maker living at 1245 South Sixteenth street, was the first witness. He knew Seljan and had last seen him alive on June 9. He knew that Seljan lived with the Mikans here. He saw Seljan's dead body at South Omaha. On cross-examination the witness said he had known Seljan for twenty years. Had seen him with Bukove and Drobnic at the witness' house frequently, but for a month or more prior to Seljan's death the visits had been discontinued.

Joseph Berg, 2536 Chicago street, liberally testified that he had seen Seljan's body in the river on the morning of July 3. He landed at the foot of Harney street, where he found a man lying on the bank. The vest was bloody and the body was badly decomposed.

Chief of Police Brennan of South Omaha testified that he had seen Seljan's body in the river on the morning of July 3. He landed at the foot of Harney street, where he found a man lying on the bank. The vest was bloody and the body was badly decomposed.
