

MARRIAGES OF MIDSUMMER

Society Sojourners Grow More Numerous by Sea and Lake.

WEDDING AT THE CATHOLIC CATHEDRAL

Wedding at the Catholic Cathedral. A wedding at the Catholic cathedral...

Well Known People.

The hostess who is a member of some literary society or writing group can arrange a novel luncheon for her co-workers by the following simple method. Let the places at the table be designated by miniature books resembling in appearance, if possible, those of classics from various languages.

It is easy for the young woman who invites her companions to the tennis court to a tennis luncheon to astonish her guests by unique decorations. These can be made to seem quite elaborate without necessitating any great outlay.

A woman who conducts a polyglot department in the Washington Post is a woman who is very largely exploited, so to speak, by the speech of Mr. Edward Rosewater at the dinner given in honor of the late Mr. Rosewater.

Until the New York World had published a two-column article about the latest thing in the world, the New York World gardeners noticed that their link cut buttons were supplied by black silk ribbons, three-quarters of an inch wide, of the color of the buttons.

The wedding of Miss Philomena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swift, and Mr. Charles Dugdale, took place at St. Philomena's cathedral Wednesday morning.

The wedding of Miss Philomena, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swift, and Mr. Charles Dugdale, took place at St. Philomena's cathedral Wednesday morning.

When the bride and groom and their attendants knelt before the officiating priest, Rev. Bernard O'Connell, the bride was wearing a charming one. A parallel row of potted palms and ferns extended from the communion rail to the altar.

As the last notes of the wedding march died away, Rev. Father Galvin advanced to the railing, and in a few words said the words that linked the lives of a son and daughter of Omaha.

The ushers were Messrs. James Tracey and Henry Melie. A wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride.

Last Monday the Holy Family church was the scene of a quiet but extremely pretty wedding. The contracting parties were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Smith.

The hour drew near, the sky became overcast and rain descended, but will Rev. George Edwards, the officiating clergyman, read the Epistle and the Gospel, and the sun shows forth in glory.

The Tascobit and Anzeiger of Berlin contains under date of June 26 the following item from Cassel, the capital of the German province of Hesse-Nassau.

His Thirty-second Birthday. Mr. M. T. Hassell, 415 G. street, celebrated his 32d birthday Wednesday.

Governor Jackson and party visited the lakes on Thursday, and made a short address to the people of the state.

Miss Annette Slightman was tendered a farewell party at the home of her cousin, Mrs. T. Douglas, Seventeenth and Cass streets.

Reception in the church. The ladies of the First Christian church, corner of Twentieth and Capitol avenue, gave a reception in honor of Miss Annette Newcomer.

Evans and Foland. Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock Mr. Thomas Evans and Miss Verla Foland were married at the residence of T. Sturgis.

Miss Helen Hoagland is visiting at St. Joseph. Miss Alice Parker has been visiting in Chicago.

Miss Cecelia Frazer of Chicago is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. H. Korty, 2536 Poppleton avenue.

Miss Jennie Coulter and Miss Jean Watt left Tuesday for Ironopolis, Canada, to spend the summer.

SOCIETY IN LINCOLN.

LINCOLN, July 13.—(Special.)—It must be confessed that the small portion of Lincoln's 400 now at the eastern resorts, at Lake Minnetonka, or on the Rockies, are on "the wheel" in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Patch of Kansas City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Garner last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Kaufman of Gothenburg is the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Powers, 2025 St. Mary's street.

Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Whittney have returned from their trip and are at 129 North Thirty-second avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Whittney have returned from their trip and are at 129 North Thirty-second avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Brown, accompanied by her son, have returned from the summer in Colorado Springs and Manitou.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cartan will remain with Mr. and Mrs. Nash until August, when their house will be ready.

Miss Ruth Atkinson left last week for Chicago, and will visit in Lincoln at the end of her return until August.

Miss Nellie Moore, who has been visiting at Miss Lane's, is now the guest of Mrs. F. W. Wesells at Fairview, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Davenport and Miss Alice Wheeler leave Wednesday morning for Hot Springs, S. D., to be gone a month or six weeks.

WAGNER'S IMMORTAL OPERA

Dr. Baetens' Estimate of 'Die Meistersinger' and the Moral it Teaches.

HOMER MOORE LEAVES FOR THE EAST

Little Doing in the Musical Colony Hereabouts—Prospects Not Overly Bright for the Coming Season.

The music of Richard Wagner is becoming more and more popular even though intellectual and art centers demand examples of the Italian and French composers.

There are two ways of looking at "Die Meistersinger." It can be weighed with a symbolical and even autobiographical character, as the extreme admirers of Wagner would have it, or it can be taken as an example of pure comedy.

Smoking behind the scenes of the American theater is generally prohibited. Sig. Del Puente, an inveterate smoker, who can no longer indulge in his favorite between-acts pastime.

AMUSEMENTS.

Frank Lee Short, who has risen steadily in the dramatic profession, and who last night made his debut as actor, was a pupil with Mr. Henry Seargent.

"Broken Hearts" was first played in 1875, under the direction of Manager Hare in London, with Mr. and Mrs. Kendal in the principal parts.

Some time next month the Saengerbund will give a picnic at Ruser's park. The picnic of the Verein Gemuetlichkeit at Hoch's farm last week was a success in every respect.

Thursday last the new lodge of the German order of the Harnack held a meeting at Hoch's farm last week.

There was a meeting of the Omaha Turnverein Monday night. The new officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Alfred Moebel; secretary, Theodore Baumer.

There was a meeting of the Omaha Turnverein Monday night. The new officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Alfred Moebel; secretary, Theodore Baumer.

There was a meeting of the Omaha Turnverein Monday night. The new officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Alfred Moebel; secretary, Theodore Baumer.

ST. LOUIS IMPROVES HER SPEED

Made the Westward Passage at the Rate of 10.47 Knots an Hour.

NEW YORK, July 13.—The steamer St. Louis, Captain W. C. Randle, arrived from Southampton today on her second voyage to this port.

The first berth on board the St. Louis took place last Monday, a child being born to a Finnish steamer passenger named Biliopina.

WILL DEDICATE CHICKAMAUGA PARK.

Secretary of War Lamont Will Take a Prominent Part.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 13.—Many of the most distinguished citizens of the United States are coming to Chatanooga to attend the Chickamauga park dedication.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

CLERKS WILL HAVE NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—The Retail Clerks National Protective association, now holding a convention here, has voted to establish the national headquarters at Cleveland, Ohio.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

Secretary of War Lamont, who has sole charge of the dedication, has written to the various members of the government officials. They will take about a dozen rooms at Lookout inn.

typical phrases out of which the continual orchestral part is constructed; this music will be considered monotonous and wearying because of its complexity.

Some offense seems to have been given last week to the friends of "Die Meistersinger" in the short paragraph relative to the violinists who will be in Omaha next season.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Some of the London critics have remarked in the Daily Chronicle that it is not as strong as it used to be, and one of them was particularly impressed with the way in which the younger women in the company imitated the Holland's "Nile" show Frank Daniels at the Casino.

Highest of all in Leaving Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Advertisement for "Highest of all in Leaving Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report" with large stylized text.