

UNIONIST VICTORY GROWS

Each Day's Balloting Emphasizes the Extent of the Liberal Disaster.

ANOTHER EX-CABINET OFFICER DEFEATED

Speaker Gully's Return Gives General Satisfaction—Contrary to Expectations—London Cheers the Success of Jos. Chamberlain.

LONDON, July 16.—At 10 o'clock the result of the general election was as follows: Conservatives, 166; unionists, 27; total, 193. Liberals, 29; Conservatives, 4; Conservatives, 12; labor, 1; total, 46. The net unionist gains up to this hour are twenty seats.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the liberal leader who was recently defeated by Mr. C. D. Drake, conservative, at the election held for members of Parliament to represent the two seats of Derby, has accepted the offer of Mr. C. N. Warrington, Q. C., who was recently nominated to stand for election in West Monmouthshire, to retire in his favor. There was to be no opposition to the candidacy of Mr. Warrington, and Sir William Vernon Harcourt will be nominated in his place tomorrow.

Up to midnight the returns from the Parliamentary elections show the following results: Conservatives, 209; Liberal-unionists, 51; total, unionists, 261; Liberals, 41; Parliament, 302. The net unionist gains secured in the elections thus far held insure them a majority of thirty-two in the next house even if the remainder of the seats to be voted on remain the same as heretofore. The portion of electors who went to the polls was higher than on any former occasion. The superiority of the unionists was manifest, both by the magnitude of their own majorities and by the extent to which they pulled down their opponents.

Shobahi Nasrji, the liberal member for the central division of Pinnabury, who was only recently elected to the House of Commons, was defeated, while his fellow countryman, Ishwargoon, won a seat for the conservative division of the same constituency. Hugh Cecil, who has returned from Greenwich, a labor member, William R. Cremer, who sat for the Haggerston division of Shoreditch, and who recently made a journey to America to urge the adoption of an arbitration treaty, has been unseated.

Discovery of the Bodies of the Pitzel Children—Another Link in the Evidence Against Him—Third Child Thought to Have Been Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, July 16.—The finding of the bodies of the two Pitzel children in Toronto has created a sensation in police circles in this city. The authorities are convinced that they were murdered by H. H. Holmes, who is now in prison in this city, awaiting trial on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the Fidelity Mutual Life insurance association of $10,000. This admission was obtained by Lawyer Jephthah D. Howe of St. Louis, representing the family of B. F. Pitzel, who it is alleged, was killed in this city by an explosion of a chemical and who had shortly before insured in the Fidelity company. It is probable that the charge against Holmes will be changed from conspiracy to murder as it is generally believed that Pitzel is really dead and that Holmes murdered him. Just before Holmes was brought to trial he made a confession in which he said he procured a corpse in New York, brought it to this city and disguising it as the body of a child, placed it in the hands of the Pitzel family. The question now is whether Holmes will be held for trial here on the charge of murdering Pitzel or be taken to Canada to answer for the death of the two little girls. It is believed that the Philadelphia murder detectives the Canadian murder man will have to stand trial here.

Eight Thousand Dollars Mysteriously Disappears from an Express Office.

IDENTITY OF THE THIEF UNKNOWN

Passed Through Several Hands While in the Office—Affair Has Been Kept Quiet Since Thursday of Last Week.

A mysterious but clever express robbery has occurred here in the heart of Omaha. It occurred Wednesday afternoon, the spoils consisting of a package containing $6,000 in currency. The robbery was committed in the office of the Pacific Express company at Fourteenth and Harney streets. The package is still missing, and there is little evidence to show who committed the deed.

It is certain that the package reached the union depot safely, being carried by the United States Express company. It was intended to transfer it to Omaha to the Pacific Express company and to forward it through that company to its destination. It was carried from the depot and arrived safely at the express company's office, but after that trace of it is lost. It reached the office about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and at 5 it was supposed to have been deposited in the company's safe. On the following morning, however, it was missing.

Between the time that it arrived and the time that it should have been put in the safe, the package was in the hands of several clerks. In that time it might have passed through the hands of four to six clerks, and suspicion rests upon all of these, although it is extremely difficult to find through whom the package was taken. From what can be elicited from the express officials the package had been checked by all of them, but when questioned by the police they all deny having positively stated whether the package passed through their hands. The number of packages the clerks handle each day is large, and they do not remember any particular package that goes through their hands. The chance that one of the clerks may have made a mistake in checking the money package is not a remote possibility. The man who has recently come into political prominence as a magistrate. Both were strong Breckinridge men last year, but Breckinridge's closest ally, A. J. Gorham, a Breckinridge man, has been elected, but the indications are that a very light vote will be polled.
