Ex-Premier Stambuloff of Bulgaria Dies of His Injuries.

WAS UNCONSCIOUS FOR SEVERAL HOURS

Widow Receives Many Messages of Condolence from High Personages in Europe, Among Them One from Prince Ferdinand.

SOFIA, July 18.—M. Stambuloff, who was mortally assaulted by four men while returning home from the Union club on Monday night, died at 9:35 this morning without having uttered a word since 10 o'clock last night, when the death struggle began. All hope of the ex-premier's recovery was abandoned last evening, when it was noticed that meningitis had supervened and after the sufferer did not recognize any one. A catafalque is being prepared upon which the remains will lie in state. The amputated hands of the murdered man have been preserved in alcohol. The interment will take place on Saturday. The government has not yet proposed to give the remains of Stambuloff a state funeral. The widow of the deceased statesman received many telegraphic messages of condolence from high personages in different parts of Europe.

Queen Victoria and the Prince of Wales have telegraphed their sympathies to Mme. Stambuloff. The government has offered 10,000 francs for the capture of the murderers.

LONDON, July 18.—The Times will say tomorrow:—Stambuloff was one of the brilliant statesmen produced in the Balkans in the last century. With little of the veneer of civilization, with no distinction of refinement, he possessed heart and brain, exterior a natural tenderness and delicacy of feeling which only those who knew him intimately could appreciate. There was no hounding or affliction about him. He was a man of iron, of steel. Whatever his defects may have been, there was never a doubt of his patriotism and devotion to his country.

The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: "Reports were circulated today that Prince Ferdinand had succeeded in getting the command of the army of the Duke of Burgos, and that the Austrian government had sent a circular to the powers on the subject of Bulgaria. The reports, though they affected the money markets, were given no credence elsewhere. It is an interesting point that nothing has been done to meet the demands of the Bulgarians, which may have been there was never a doubt of his patriotism and devotion to his country."

The Zeitung says: "The plot that curses and everlasting shame will cling to the Bulgarian government, which certainly had a share in the assassination, and which knew of the murderous plots, yet did nothing to hinder the notorious traitors from moving forward. The Duke of Burgos and the Emperor, it is true, are guilty. These men, however, will not lead to the intervention of the powers. It is believed that Russian influence will begin to make increasing way in Bulgaria."

SOME HEAVY FIGHTING IN CUBA
No Reports Yet Received from the Engagement Near Manzanillo.

HAVANA, July 18.—A detachment of the Second battalion of the marine infantry at San Diego del Valle, province of Santa Clara, engaged and dispersed a band of insurgents. General Lugue, having been informed that insurgent leader Bermudez intended to burn the village of San Diego del Valle, ordered a detachment of 130 men of the marine infantry and fifteen volunteers to defend that place. The troops upon arriving at the scene of operations found that the village was surrounded by about 300 insurgents, who had been keeping up a heavy fire upon the little garrison. The latter resisted gallantly, and the reinforcements arrived, when the marines under Captain Duena, attacked, routed, and dispersed the insurgents, who left twelve dead and twenty wounded on the field. Bermudez and others, who had been scattered, were wounded. The troops lost three killed and four wounded. Captain Duena, who was slightly wounded in the hand, kept on in pursuit of the insurgents and the news of further fighting is expected at any moment.
