CEDAR RAPIDS. In., July 31—Special Telegram.)—The home team won today by superior all around playing. Risley was uperior all around playing. Risley was superior all around playing and superior all around playing all around all the superior all around playing and superior all around playing and superior all around playing and superior all around all the superior all around playing and sup Continentals Win Again.

Last season clerks of the Continent clothing house and Browning, King & Co. mot on the field, and the Continental-came off victorious. In order to get even the Browning-Kings challenged the Conti-nentals for a game this year, and now they wish they had not, for all that was left of the B. K.'s their wives and sweet hearts had to bundle up and take home. The Continentals started right out, and he the terriffic hatting of Taylor and Conra-and the howling of Gamble scored six tal-lies in the first inning, which they repeated in the second. Not a man made an error, except Spud Farrish, who had his other arm saved only by the aid of friends. Major Wilcox and family did all they could from the grand stand to win the game, but the B. K.'s were all atraid of Flood's curves. Gradinan did not know what the breast protector was for, but that did not step him from knocking the bail clear to the pitcher. And then Moe was there with his six-foot-three, white trousers, and was the only man on his side who could hit at all. The game closed with the score H to 12 in favor of the Continentals.

GEORGE DIXON WINS ON A FOUL. Tommy Connelly All but Put Out by the Little Colored Champion. BOSTON, July 31 .- George Dixon tonight wen on a foul in the fourth round in contest with Tommy Connelly, ex-amateur featherweight champion. The fight was under the auspices of the Union Athletic Thomases who were asking each other as to America's cup racer: "Will she do?" are now saying at least: "Well, she's the best hoat we ever had in," and a confession from these people is to be thought over more than once. It means that the splendid win of the keel boat today shows that she is improving right along in form. If the advancement continues right along in the present ratio Vigilant will be nowhere tomorrow. The faish showed the new boat to be twelve minutes and two seconds to the good on actual time.

On leaving New London the yachts sailed down with a beam wind to Race Rock. Defender had her steering gear patched up during the night and her sailors were smart enough to get over the starting line one minute and twenty-two seconds after Vigilant. Volunteer was pretty quicks and went away five seconds after Vigilant, Jubilee was there, but for some reason she did not start with the others and this fact.
