

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.

Rumors of Gold Exports Scared the Bulls Yesterday.

CORN WEAKENED IN THE AFTERNOON

After a Firm Start at an Advance of a Quarter of a Cent Over Thursday's Closing Quotations, Strength Disappeared.

CHICAGO, Aug. 2.—The rumors of gold exports scared the bulls and all Board of Trade markets closed lower. Wheat closed at a decline of 1/4c, corn 1/8c, oats 1/8c, pork 1/2c, lard 1/2c, and rib 7/16 per 100 lbs.

The early dispatches showed a general strengthening of the market, but the rumors of gold exports were too much for the bulls, and the market closed lower. The opening quotations for September wheat were 70c and 69c, against 69c at close yesterday.

The opening quotations for September wheat were 70c and 69c, against 69c at close yesterday. The market for corn was also weakened, closing at a decline of 1/8c.

Table with columns: Articles, Oats, Hrs, Lvs, Cloak. Lists various commodities and their prices.

Table with columns: Articles, Receipts, Shipments. Lists various commodities and their trade volumes.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market was generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

OMAHA GENERAL MARKET.

Condition of Trade and Quotations on Staple and Fancy Produce. WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market was generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

HALTING FOR THE SUMMER

Though a Little Late the Midsummer Dullness is Here. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices. The opening quotations for September wheat were 70c and 69c.

IRON INDUSTRY HARDLY HALTS

Cotton Manufacturers Also Continue Busy—In Other Lines, However, There is a Slight Faltering. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK MARKET

For the First Time in Several Days Native Steers Were Sold. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices. The opening quotations for September wheat were 70c and 69c.

WESTERN PENSIONS.

Veterans of the Late War Remembers by the General Government. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

THE FAIR WAS A SUCCESS.

Colored People at an Afternoon Outing. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

THE REALTY MARKET.

INSTRUMENTS placed on record August 2, 1895. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.

NEW YORK GENERAL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—WHEAT—Receipts, 15,000 bushels; exports, 3,100 bushels. The market is generally quiet, with a slight decline in prices.