

ESTABLISHED JUNE 19, 1871.

OMAHA, SUNDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1895-TWENTY PAGES.

SINGLE COPY FIVE CENTS.

TROUBLE IN TRINIDAD

Question of Ownership of the Island May Yet Result in a Row.

JINGO PAPERS CAUSE GREAT CLAMOR

Demand for Application of the Monroe Doctrine Louder Than Warranted.

MR. BAYARD PRAISED AS A DIPLOMAT

His Recent Utterance Quoted as the Essence of Modern Diplomacy.

GENERAL GLANCE AT EUROPEAN AFFAIRS

Prince Ferdinand's Plan a Failure—Understanding Between France and Russia Seems One-Sided—Salisbury's Foreign Work.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—With the Venezuela question still unsettled, we seem likely enough to be confronted with a Trinidad question, and in both cases are to be called on, if some classes of Americans have their way, to enforce the Monroe doctrine as against France.

There is as yet no clear information about the Trinidad business. England herself does not seem very clear about it, and Brazil is not much in anger to be clear. The island may or may not have been subject to recent British occupation. It is conceded that at one time it belonged to Great Britain, and at another time to Portugal, until latter power Brazil claims it. Where title is latest or best is disputed. When England resumed her occupation of it, it was with a view to making it a free station, and she seems to have no doubt about her rights. Brazil's rather passionate protest, the popular excitement in the streets of Rio, and the violent speeches in the Brazilian Chamber came upon her as a surprise. All that can be said is that the matter is under negotiation. Trinidad is itself an independent, rocky island in the south Atlantic ocean, ten degrees east of Brazil. Lippincott's Gazetteer sets it down as belonging to Brazil, and so does the last edition of Chambers' Encyclopedia. On the latest English map I have it is not colored red, as all British possessions are colored, perhaps because it is not his own. It is only a dot in the expanse of sea.

WHAT MIGHT BE INVOLVED.

It is assumed in the jingo press that I quote from one leading jingo journal in New York—"If Brazil should appear to our government and should be able clearly to show her ownership of Trinidad, the case would certainly involve the Monroe doctrine." "Certainly" is a strong word. The Monroe doctrine in its original and authentic form is a little vague and not a little elastic. The Monroe doctrine, as interpreted by Governor Campbell, is that an ambassador should be in frequent communication with the public press in order to keep the public informed of the Monroe doctrine, but nothing is known of his instructions. The State department at Washington declines to express its views publicly on the action of England, if it has any views, and rightly declines. It is not the duty of a secretary of department dealing with delicate international affairs to make public press in order to keep the public informed of the Monroe doctrine, but nothing is known of his instructions. The State department at Washington declines to express its views publicly on the action of England, if it has any views, and rightly declines. It is not the duty of a secretary of department dealing with delicate international affairs to make public press in order to keep the public informed of the Monroe doctrine, but nothing is known of his instructions.

BAYARD'S BREAK CONDONED.

Well, it is probably always better in all circumstances that an ambassador should be in frequent communication with the public press in order to keep the public informed of the Monroe doctrine, but nothing is known of his instructions. The State department at Washington declines to express its views publicly on the action of England, if it has any views, and rightly declines. It is not the duty of a secretary of department dealing with delicate international affairs to make public press in order to keep the public informed of the Monroe doctrine, but nothing is known of his instructions.

ROVES GET A PRISON SENTENCE.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 3.—It is reported by the press that the American consul in Mexico, Mr. Bayard, has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for a charge of bringing stolen money into this country. The Monitor-Republican demands stricter compliance with the laws of reform on the part of the Catholic clergy, and that the authorities enforce the laws against processions and demonstrations of a religious character.

FINNISHERS SIGHTED ON YACHTING TOUR.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 3.—A small steamer has been seen off the Yucatan coast, with nearly 300 men, armed with Remington rifles and machetes. The steamer put in for water and provisions at Progreso. The steamer is undoubtedly bound for Cuba. Many Americans were on the craft. All the provisions were paid for in American gold.

TURKEY'S REPLY NOT SATISFACTORY.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.—The reply of the Turkish government to the powers regarding reform in Armenia is not regarded as satisfactory. At the foreign embassies it is looked upon as consisting of nothing more than criticism upon the proposed scheme of reform in Armenia. The British Mediterranean squadron remains at Budrum.

LIABILITIES CONTINUE TO GROW.

GENOVA, Aug. 3.—Later reports indicate that the liabilities of Banca Toscana, bankers of this city, who failed yesterday, will reach a sum total of 20,000,000 lire. Warrants have been issued for the members of the firm. They are now traveling abroad.

KING CHRISTIAN UNDER THE WEATHER.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 3.—King Christian is suffering from a recurrence of catarrh of the bladder. It is hoped that the attack is a serious one, but his illness, in view of his age, is causing anxiety.

SUGGESTS PRINCE GEORGE FOR KING.

SOPIA, Aug. 3.—The organ of the Russian sympathizers here suggests that in view of the possible abdication of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, Prince George of Greece may be invited to the throne.

TO FREE THE POPE

Spanish Enthusiasts Put a Sensational Scheme Afloat in Europe.

WOULD BUY THE VATICAN FROM ITALY

Restoration of His Holiness to Temporal Power the Object Sought.

CARDINAL GIBBONS ON HIS VISIT

Went to Rome Solely in Response to the Pope's Invitation.

WONDERFUL FACILITIES OF THE OLD MAN

Despite His Years and Physical Feebleness He Keeps Abreast the Times and Moves the Church to Continual Progress.

(Copyright, 1895, by Press Publishing Company.) LONDON, Aug. 3.—(New York World Telegram—Special Telegram.)—A story comes to me, which would seem preposterous except for its apparently unimpeachable authority, that a number of wealthy Spaniards have addressed a serious communication to prominent and rich Catholics in France, Austria and England, proposing to raise a fund to purchase Rome from Italy, and thus free the pope from his imprisonment, albeit voluntary, and make him again a temporal ruler. Italy's almost utterly bankrupt condition is quoted as a reason for the belief that the government would accept the proposition. The scheme seems wild enough, but it is not Italy's condition is now one of the most alarming elements in the European situation, and is rapidly driving her helplessly tax-ridden people toward anarchy.

TIPED BUT PLEASED.

"I am tired, for as months I have had no rest, mental or physical, but everywhere I have been treated with the greatest kindness. The consideration shown me has been wonderful, both by Italy and France. What charming people the French are! How little Americans who visit Paris see of them, how little they understand them! In order to see the French as they really are one must live at Paris and go into the provinces. I have just returned from a visit to the archbishop of Rheims. With him and his clergy I went all over the diocese, mingling with the people, getting an inside view of things. And the church in France? The French church is very strong, but it seems to me that somehow or other the church has in this country got out of touch with the people, and what is worse, it manifests little disposition to get into touch with them. The French church is hierarchical rather than democratic. It has been so long accustomed to rule, to be looked up to with reverence and respect that it actually overshadows the people down from its aristocratic position to enter the democratic arena and keep abreast of the times. Here and there are men alive to the situation, but the mass remain inert." "You are doubtless aware the greatest interest has been taken in your recent visit to Rome, and that numberless speculations have been made as to its object."

SIMPLY TO SEE THE POPE.

"Most of the press rumors have been utterly wide of the mark, but I make it a rule never to correct misstatements. The best way is to let the ill-founded rumors defend themselves. The truth in this particular instance is very simple. I went to Rome on a visit to the holy father, who had expressed a desire to see me. My visit was of limited, in ecclesiastical language, that is, devoid of official significance. I was received several times by the pope and we discussed many topics. What passed between us, of course, a private matter and cannot be divulged. The pope is deeply interested in the progress of the church in America and wishes to be kept informed with regard to all phases of its development. "And what impression did the pope make upon you?" "The feature that impressed me most strongly was his extraordinary mental vigor, that he, buried in the Vatican, knows all, understands all. No detail escapes him. And this is truly remarkable for one in his 86th year. He is abreast of, not in advance of, the times and is fully alive to the importance of current events as the youngest of those around him. Besides, he is a progressist. The spirit breathed by his later encyclicals is the spirit of the man himself. Physically he is not robust. His face is as white as yonder wall. His checks are transparent, yet through the fleecily veil an indomitable spirit shines. The quickness of his intelligence is marvelous. He, better than any other, understands that the watchword of the church must be progress, not reaction, energy, not apathy." "PROGRESS WILL NOT STOP." "But when the pope disappears, is there no likelihood of reaction?" "I think not. Progress demands a steady forward movement, and the Catholic church is the most powerful power in the world. The guaranteed time for emptying the dock is two hours and fifteen minutes, which necessitates delivering 540 tons of water per minute. Although the new dock is open, it is not yet ready for use, as one of the big pumps damaged last night must be repaired. There is a large vessel can be accommodated. It was originally intended to dock the New York of the American line today, but the damage to the discharge pump has necessitated sending the New York to Tilbury, opposite Gravesend. The town and docks were gaily decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting, but when the special trains from London and elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges of the dock had been erected, from which the invited guests were to eat as they stood in the rain, the opening ceremony, which was performed by the prince of Wales. His royal highness, accompanied by the princess of Wales, his two daughters and the duke of York, came over from Cowes in the royal yacht Osborne, and at 1:30 p. m. the prince presided the lever by which the sluice gates elsewhere with the invited guests arrived, the scene was one of damp desolation everything being deluged by rain. Alongside the Graving dock a sumptuous lunch had been prepared in one of the dock houses, covers being laid for 400 persons, and on the edges