SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Ordinances read for the first time at the last meeting of the city council compelling the railway companies to stand their share of the expense of the repairs on the L and Q street viaducts were favorably reported on by the committee on viaducts, streets and alleys at last night's meeting of the city council.

WHAT $5.00 A MONTH MEANS

IT SUITS THE PEOPLE BOTH IN CITY AND COUNTRY. Scientific Medical Treatment at a Nominal Fee, Including All Medicines—Period of Treatment Now Reduced One-Half, Owing to the Helpful Influence of the Summer-Time.

The July offer of Drs. Copeland and Shepard to treat all patients and all diseases at $5 a month was accepted by large numbers in Omaha, Council Bluffs and South Omaha who came personally to the office. Scores of other sufferers in distant towns and adjacent farms responded through the mails and are now using with great satisfaction the home treatment.

ned me entirely if I had neglected it. From the nasal membrane on the left side grew, after awhile, a tumor or polypus, which plugged the nostril and nearly ruined the eyes.

A LITTLE GIRL INVALID.

Cured at Her Country Home by the Mail Treatment. Mrs. Mary M. Morris, of Hillview, McLean Co., Ill., writes of the happy results attending the treatment of her little daughter, Miss Edith M. Campbell, by the Copeland and Shepard mail system, when apparently sinking and perishing under catarrh and kidney trouble, thus:

CHRISTIAN MINISTERS.

A Presiding Elder's Experience of the Copeland and Shepard Treatment. The Rev. D. K. Tindall, D. D., presiding elder, Grand Island, Neb., late of Omaha and one of the most noted clergymen of the Methodist denomination, writes:

When it comes to catarrh trouble I can tell you all about it. It got hold of me many years ago in Denmark and when I moved to this country the disease staid right by me, superior to any other course of treatment with the Copeland and Shepard specialists, and found it to be incomparably superior to any other course of treatment which I had ever resorted to. I feel it a duty to strongly commend these physicians and their method of treatment to all who are in need of skillful and faithful treatment.

An old soldier named Seibel, who lives at the corner of Vine and Second streets, claims he was robbed of $300 money, which he had put in a purse and kept in the house. He blames a woman who occupied a part of the house, but left a few days ago.

Mrs. Albert S. Loring, who has been under special treatment at the City for consumption, has been given up by the physician and has been taken back to her former home in Illinois to spend the rest of her short life. She has been married less than three months and has been ill for more than five.

A dirt hauler whose name was not learned ran into a wagon driven by a son of C. E. Grass yesterday on Main Street, between C and Eighth streets. Both teams were going at a lively rate, and the dirt hauler found himself unable to stop. The horse stopped his horse just at the wrong time and the dirt hauler wrecked the lighter vehicle.

W. H. Confar of Hancock, who is at the head of the Avoca Grand Army post, was in the city yesterday and visited Joseph Porter, an old soldier who has been kept at St. Bernard's hospital for some time past. He is blind, and has been becoming steadily feeble lately. It is probable he will be taken to the Soldiers' home at Marshalltown. He states that he had along the "Boina, although the east end of the county, was drenched by Sunday's rain.

The Hardman piano wears like iron. The Genuine Round Oak Furnace is the same success that the Genuine Round Oak heater is. Air-tight, gas-tight, burns any kind of fuel and less oil than any other furnace made. Lowest prices. Cole & Cole, 41 Main St.

Yes, the Eagle laundry is "that good laundry," and is located at 724 Broadway. If in doubt about this try it and be convinced. Don't forget name and number. Tel 137.

DOINGS OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. Mrs. W. H. Confar of Hancock narrowly escapes injury.

Reports received from the country districts show that Sunday's storm was attended with some rather vigorous wind and electrical effects. W. H. Confar, who lives near Hancock, was in the city yesterday and stated that his wife narrowly escaped being struck by lightning. She was standing at the front door of their residence, when there was a blinding flash, followed by a tremendous report. Mrs. Confar looked around and saw his wife topple to the ground. She soon revived, but while she was telling him how it happened she fell over again in a dead faint. Twenty feet away from the place she stood at the time of the flash was found the dead body of a chicken which she had noticed only a few minutes before, alive and apparently enjoying good health.

B. B. Lender, member of the City Board of Supervisors from Pleasant township, three miles south of Shelby, also had a story to tell. A hurricane came along and lifted a hay stack bodily from the ground, dropping it in oblique attitude bottom side up, with scarcely a straw disturbed.
