HONOR TO THE VETERANS

How the Grand Army Hosts Will Be Entertained This Fall.

STATE REUNION TO BE LARGELY ATTENDED

National Encampment at Louisville Attracting Attention Among the Battle-Scarred Heroes of Nebraska and Adjacent States.

The seventeenth annual reunion of the soldiers and sailors of Nebraska, to be held at Hastings from August 26 to 30, is attracting much attention among the veterans. In view of the fact that this city is centrally located little difficulty will be experienced in securing railroad facilities.

The following speakers have accepted in vitations to be present: Ex-Senator John J Ingalls, Governor E. N. Morrill, Governor Slias Holcomb, General Jonn M. Thayer Senator John M. Thurston, Senator W. V Allen, ex-Senator Charles F. Munderson, General John C. Cowan, Congressman E. J. Habiter, J. B. Strode, W. E. Andrews, ex-Department Commander Paul Vandervoort, S. J. Alexander, Joe Teeter, C. J. Dilworth, Church Howe, Hons, Thomas J. Majors, A. S. Churchill, W. S. Summers, J. H. Stickel, Rev. P. C. Johnston, Judge W. R. Burton and many others of national reputation

The fact that corps are abundant through out Nebraska and adjacent states it is sup-posed will contribute materially to the suc-

Loyal Legion, Sons of Veterans, Union Veteran's league and all state organizations will be supplied with headquarter tents All posts desiring tents should apply im-mediately to Fred Renner, quartermaster and secretary, Hastings, and state the number of

The camp will be turned over to the Grand Army of the Republic by the reunion committee on August 26 at 2 o'clock p. m. and from that time on Camp Sherman will belong to the old soldiers. AS TO WAR RELICS.

It is the design of the Department of Ne-braska, Grand Army of the Republic, to make the exhibition of war relics a prominen feature of the state reunion. H. A. Turtor of Lexington, Neb., has been appointed to take charge of the matter, and in order to make it a success, it will be necessary for him to have the assistance of every one whemay have such relics in his or her possession or has any knowledge of any relic of the late war that would in any way be of interest to the occasion. Any one having anything of the should at once communicate with him an see that he has it in time to list and display Special pains will be taken to see that every thing is properly cared for and returned the owner after it has answered its purpose. Under date of July 20 the following was issued from the office of the department chap lain, Grand Army of the Republic, at Min Dear Comrade: Will you kindly call the attention of your post to the following state ment and appeal? The appropriation mad ment and appear? The appropriation materials by the legislature for fitting up and maintaining the new Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Milford for two years was so small as to compel the most rigid economy. In furnishing a chapel and reading room in an apartment specially adapted for the purpose, it was conceived as most appropriate to ask the several posts of the department for a sma'l contribution in furtherance of this worthy object. Only $1 is asked for from your post. Should the comrades feel like increasing the amount. It will be judiciously expended. Whatever the amount please forward at once to my address that it may be realized before the formal opening of the home in the rear rate of one fare for the round trip has been made. The headquarters of the Nebraska department will be at the Gault house, in same hotel with national headquarters. This department headquarters train will leave Omaha on September 9 at 4 p. m. from the union depot, and will be accompanied by the Woman's Relief corps, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, Sons and Daughters of Veterans. The Departments of Colorado and Wyoming will join the Nebraska contingent in the city of Omaha.

The battlefield encampment of the Sons of Veterans is to be held at Knoxville, Tenn., September 16 to 19. Arrangements have been perfected whereby rates from Louisville to Chickamanga will permit comrades desiring to spend a day with the Sons of Veterans to do so without extra charge, stopover privilege being permitted. Arrangements are contemplated for the accommodation of 25,000 vis itors at Knoxville, and the commander-in-chief trusts many of the comrades will avail themselves of the privilege of speading a day with the Sons of Veterans.

The eleventh annual reunion of the Fifty third Illinois infantry, Coggswell's battery, Captain Ford's cavalry, as Cushman's brig-ade, will be held at Bonfield, Kankakee county, September 18 and 19. All old soldiers ecutor Shoemaker Made Public. The committee on police of the city cour ell has another investigation of City Prosecu last season on a small patch of ground, on tor Shoemaker on hand. This time the complainant is M. C. Sweeney. Sweeney asserts in his petition to the council that Thomas Murphy is the proprietor of a saloon on outh Thirteenth street, between Howard and Jackson. The salcon is situated on the alley, and Sweeney claims that the back door refuses to be closed on Sundays. Acording to his story a crowd of bums conregate in the alley, and after their thirst has been partially assuaged by booze fur-hished from Murphy's saloon, they make a ulsance of themselves, offending the entire Sweeney's charges say that on April 1 he complained to Shoemaker of the nuisance and furnished him with a list of twenty with nesses who would give evidence against Mur-phy. Instead of accepting these witnesses, Shoemaker took Court Officer Boyle and went down to the saloon, where he obtained another list of witnesses, who were roomers or employes of Murphy. This list was used in prosecuting the case, while the witnesses furnished by the complainant were never called. Consequently Sweeney charges that the prosecution was a farce, and that Shoe maker was responsible
