FOR A DECISIVE MOVEMENT

Leaders of the A. P. A. Debate Plans for Action Today.

THE INJUNCTION IS DISSOLVED

Will Not Wait for Further Proceeds ings in Court, but Will Take Hold of Fire and Police Business by Force.

In the A. P. A. camps there was an unusual degree of activity displayed yesterday. Many of the members were hurrying to and fro during the afternoon and late into the night. They gathered on the street corners and in the dark alleys, whispering to one another concerning what would happen if Judge Hopewell should dissolve the injunction, the hearing on which was finished yesterday after-

During the day W. J. Broatch, one of the Churchill-Russell fire and police commissioners, held a close conference with Jack Morrison of the Dismond gambling house, and after it was concluded it was given out that a line of action had been decided upon, though the facts concerning the particular line were not made public. Later in the day C. R. Scott, Rufus W. Gibson, and another pair of the strikers held a secret session which continued for a couple of hours. As soon as the four worthles separated, word was passed down the line that in the event that Judge Hopewell dissolved the injunction immediate action would be taken by Henry P. Haze and his followers. The plan was that pa-pers would be prepared and issued by Scott, citing the members of the Fire and Police commission to appear before him forthwith and show cause why a writ of ouster should not issue against them. In the meantime the members of the A. P. A. gang, headed by Rufus W. Gibson, the coming candidate for chief of police, would demand the books and papers of the office of the Fire and Police commission, cl imi g them under the terms of the Churchil-Russell bill.

WOULD USE FORCE. In the event that they would not be surrendered, the intention was to take them by The next move, so say those who are inside, is to march to the police station and there take possession, peaceably if it can be done and by force if necessary. I think the health of this country will compare favorably with any state in possession in the event that Judge Hopewell decided against the injunction. They gave it out cold that C. R. A. forces would stand him, and not show the white feather. addition to this they announced that coatch and Vandervoort had been consulted and that both of these men had expressed themselves as ready and willing to die in the last ditch at this particular time. As soon as the meeting adjourned, another meeting assembled in the private rooms in the Manderson block, at the corner of Fourteenth street and Capitol avenue, where a session was held until late into the night. Most sending parties to Orchard Homes every few of the parties who attended the meeting days. That is the best way to test its merits, were members of the radical element and See the ground yourself. They insisted that pos-ression was what was wanted, and that right away without waiting for a supreme court adjudication

WILL OVERRULE FOSTER. During the evening it was given out that Colonel Foster of the Churchill-Russell commission was not so eager as his colleagues to anticipate the courts with force. This caused a slight commotion in the street forces of the A. P. A. element, and for a time it promised to be attended with results. Indignation was expressed until Gibson happened along. He informed the gang that Foster would be hopelessly in the minority, having but one vote against the two, which could always be counted upon.

During the night Scott stayed at home, where he received a number of callers, who discussed the plans for today. Again he re-peated the statement which he made some days ago, to the effect that he would wash his hands of the whole affair if he could not days ago, to the effect that he would wash his hands of the whole affair if he could not grandest scenery in the world, all found have men who would stand by him. At all of the meetings the possibility of Judge Hepewell continuing the injunction in force was not discussed. In a crowd at the corner of Seventeenth and Farnam streets one man ventured to intimate that "we are not out of the woods" when he was promptly suppressed and told to hold his tongue. No man even intimated that the judge would confirm the injunction, nor did any of them express an opinion as to what would happen

Is at hand and is gladly welcomed by all, especially those whose duties in life have caused them to greatly run down their sys-tem to meet the requirements, physical and mental, forced upon them. With these and others, it is important, whether at home, at the seashore or in the country, that some thought be given to diet, and as further as-sistance to nature, a good building-up medicine like Hood's Sarsaparilla had best be resorted to. If the digestion is poor, liver deranged and frequent headaches seem to be the rule, Hood's will change all this and en-able everyone to return to their home and business in a refreshed state of mind and

The Value of Orchard Homes Will Be

Decided. "I was born and raised in northern Ohio, zerved three years in the army, came south and have lived in Mississippi since 1870. In all that time I have received the best of treatment and the warmest friends I have ever made in my life are here. I consider very profitable and is being more largely fol-lowed. Church privileges are good. Society and schools of the best. Conduct and mora bearing determine a persons standing in the community. The diversified crops and influx of western and northern people has started the attention of the country to this fertile section. Lands will greatly increase in value. The beautiful south land from all account is as desirable a country to live and prosper in as can be found on the globe. This section will bear investigation. We are now make the investigation, we are satisfied the result will be in favor of Orshard Homes.

How Health Board Will Try to Make Funds Last.

Services of a Special Already Dispensed With-Expenses for Seven Months as Reported Yesterday-Mortality Record.

At its regular meeting yesterday afternoon the Board of Health decided to allow a petitioner to put in dry earth closets to avoid the expense of brick and cemented vaults in default of sewer connections. This action was taken on the recommendation of Commissioner Saville, and over the vigorous opposition of Duncon and Gordon, who asserted that it was establishing a dangerous precedent inasmuch as it involved an evasion of the provisions of the ordinance.

Commissioner Saville presented a report showing the expenditures of the department to August 1, exclusive of hospital and dead animal expenses as follows: January, $1.314 .-42; February, $796.41; March, $387.71; April, $346.06 May, $846.31; June, $814.56; July, The reports showed that there were 141

The report of Meat Inspector Frank showed that he had condemned 1,550 pounds of beef and pork during the month, also 1,392 cans of canned goods, fifteen baskets of peaches, 400 bunches of bananas, and various ther articles.

The dog catchers reported that 379 canines were drowned during the month.

A resolution was adopted directing the commissioner of health to certify to the claim of John Baker for three months' salary council has refused to pay his salary on the ground that it was not good policy to divide up the expense of a clerk with the garbage contractor.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Good Thing that Will Stand Investigation. A good desi is said about the use, the judicious use of printers ink. You see it said in papers, sometimes comic and sometimes doleful ones, that the merchant who does not advertise is not in it, that failure is the legitimate result of such a course on his part. All this may or may not be so; it may or may not be the general rule. But one thing is true and there can be no gainsaying the trut! of the proposition, i. e., that it pays to ad is not what it is represented to be. If Or is not what it is represented to be. If Or-chard Homes lands were not all claimed for them the people would not buy them, it would not pay to spend money advertising them and more than that, we could not atford to pay every buyer the cost of his trip to see and inspect the lands. Lards by the way that can be demonstrated to pay from vertising, but worth going to see and buying after you have seen them. This is what the people are now doing. They are going to see Orchard Homes and when they see the land, they are buying. It pays them to good thing along, for when people find out you have got what you say you have and what they want, they are willing and glad to buy, Orchard Homes looks better the more you see and study it. You cannot investi-gate it any too closely to suit us. Letters and telegrams are now coming in from ac-tual cash buyers who have very carefully looked over every foot of Orchard Homes. The land of sure crops, rich soil, quick returns and no failures, is what the bardworker wants. Orchard Homes fills the bill. Organize into a club of two families or more. UNITTOVISKY WAS ALL ALONE.

There was a rally of the Seventh Ward Polish Republican clubs at a department liquor emperium at Thirtieth and Walnut streets last night. The heavy rain of the early evening had made the roads in that vicinity as slippery as the way some of the local politicians are traveling this year, but that fact did not discourage the yeomanry of the ward from turning out to the number of eighteen, including the barkeeper and four assistants, who had been pressed into service in anticipation of the rush C. Rantank Scottesky, Ben Bakeriski and Charles Unittovisky, three eminent Polish sprakers, were billed to address the meeting. Affairs of state and repugnance to water kept the first named gentlemen away, but Mr. Unittovisky was present, although he came late. He was visibly disappointed at the prospect of having, single handed and alone, to satisfy the thirst for knowledge and beer that was sticking out in the multitude. He finally became sulky and declined to satisfy thirst of any kind Mr. Unittovisky was prevailed upon by a reporter, through the aid of an interpreter. to furnish an outline of what he would have said had he consented to address his fellow countrymen on the issues of the coming campaign. He was prepared to talk pretty plainly to his fellow citizens of foreign birth. The time had come, he said, when it was necessary for men, who were born on foreign soil, to get together and defend their rights. He considered himself the equal, politically, of any man whom the accident of birth had $30.61; total, $5,836.08. CORROBORATIVE TESTIMONY.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI. OFFICE OF

Secretary of State. GEO. M. GOVAII, Secretary of State. JACKSON, Miss., July 20, 1895.

HON. GEORGE W. AMES, Omaha, Neb.—Dear Sir: I am a native Mississippian, and having resided in the state all my life, am thoroughly acquainted with the character of its lands Our farmers, until the last few years, have given their entire time and energies to the cultivation of cotton to the exclusion of all other crops. The low price received for that product, for the past two years, have caused them to change their mode of farming by diversification, semething that was unthought of ten years ago.

These efforts have beyond all expectation demonstrated the adapta bility of the climate and soil to the successful cultivation of all kinds of fruit and vegetables. I am familiar with the lands you have for sale and do hereby give my unqualified endorsement to its fertility and adaptability to the successful cultivation of all kinds of fruit and vegetables as well as to the other crops that can be grown anywhere in the United States. Secretary of State.
