ALL SHOULD KNOW

THE EXACT TERMS OF DRS. COPELAND & SHEPARD'S OFFER

The Intelligent Majority of the Community Understand It, But Even Those Who Don't Read the Papers Should Have a Chance to Share Its Benefits.

Briefly, the reading classes know that any man, any woman, any child in Omaha, pale, haggard, droopiug, bent or groaning under the wasting poisons or cruel sufferings of any chronic disorder or infirmity, is inclu-ded in Drs. Copeland and Shepard's univer-sal invitation to come any time to their offices and receive the care and treatment they need, from physicians of great expe-rience in their professional specialties, with-out any expense beyond a nominal assess-ment on a basis of 35 monthly, including all medicines and full services for the briefest time necessary for a radical and lasting cure.

A case in point is that of Mr. S. W. Creel 500 East Pierce street, Council Bluffs, the popular conductor on the street car line between Omaha and Council Bluffs, He says:

all medicines and full services for the briefest time necessary for a radical and lasting cure. There is a class, however, who never read the newspapers. Mentally speaking, they are millions of miles away from those lamps of information. Of course, light travels fast. A telegraph dispatch will make 3,000 miles in a second, but a sunbeam will come 95,-000,000 miles in the same second and over-take the dispatch on the wire. Still there are burning suos, way out in Immensity, so far away that their beams are 1,000 years in reaching the earth. And there are sick people in Omaha teday, intellectually so far away from the newspapers that life is too short for even so public a fact as this offer of help to ever reach them but by the friendly whispering in their ears. Hence the thoughtful humanity of those of Drs. Cope-land and Shepard's patients who make known to their benkhed neighbors the ever ready help which the system of these physicians is intended to provide for all.

WHERE THEY WORK. To more fully meet all demands of a large and exacting practice, Drs. Copeland and Shepard have enlarged their consultation rooms and laboratories, and have every equipment for thorough professional work. Their spacious suite of parlors on the third floor of the New York Life Building. with wide frontage on both Farnan and Seventcenth streets, constitutes. without doubt, the largest and best appointed medical office in Nebraska.

These attacks became more and more fre-quent, coming on from one to three times a day and often at night. My sleep was very irregular. I would often spring up in the middle of the night with my heart papitating violently. My heart became very weak. I could not bear the least excitement without palpitation. The floral decora-tions were exquisite, and the dresses of the ladies were in keping with them. The floors were canvased and the evening was spent in dancing to the music of an orchestra About 100 guests were present from Omaha and Council Bluffs, and dainty refreshments were served. A little coterie of music lovers has been gathering frequently during the past few weeks at the houses of the members for the purpose of mutual enjoyment. Informality was one of the features that made these affairs enjoyable in hot weather like that of the past week, and some excellent music has been heard. Monday evening Miss Julia Officer, who has been spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Officer, was the hostess. During her stay in Chicago she has made wonderful progress in her music, and is now considered one of

in her music, and is now considered one of the best planists in that city. Frank Badol-let, who is also becoming widely known in the musical circles of the eastern cities as a performer and teacher of the flute, was another member of the party. An orchestra composed of Mr. Badollet, flute; Paul Tul-leys, violin; Charles Tulleys, cello, and Miss May Tulleys plane rendered a number of May Tulleys, plano, rendered a number of May Tulleys, plano, rendered a number of choice selections. Miss Officer and Mr. W. I. Thickstun played L. M. Gottschalk's ar-rangement of the William Tell overture, and Mr. Badollet played a number of his finest plects. On the following evening Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth entertained a similar company at her home on Fourth street, and on Wednesday evening Miss Officer again enter.

Wednesday evening Miss Officer again entertained, most of the program on the latter occasion being rendered by Mrs. Wadsworth and the Dudley Buck quartet. The Misses Moore, Hutchinson and Sketch-ley of "The Rosalind" camp at Manawa

The outlook committee of the Woman's Christian association has a custom of enter-taining twenty ladies of the city every two caning twenty laters of the city every two weeks at the hospital. The entertaining is done each time by two of the members of the committee. The methods of increasing the usefulness of the hospital and bettering its financial condition is discussed, and a great deal of good has been done in the way of awakening an interest among ladies who be awakening an interest among ladies who be-fore knew very little of the work that was being done. Last week Mrs. J. G. Wadsworth and Mrs. J. D. Edmundson were the two to whose lot it fell to entertain. While the reception was in progress it was announced that one of the female patients was about to un-dergo a surgical operation, and some one sug-

Quietly Wedded.

Mr. R. H. Bloomer and Miss Anna Oberholtzer were quietly married at high noor vesterday at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Oberholtzer, 628 Third street. Only the immediate relatives were present. After the ceremony had been performed by Rev. Mr. Sarchet, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, a wedding dinner was served.

The expression of congratulations and well wishes is by no means confined to the little company who witnessed the ceremony. The bride has lived in Council Bluffs since childhood and is deservedly popular in social circles

Mr. Bloomer is a young man who came here last year from York, Neb., where he had been conducting a manufacturing enter-prise so successfully that it had outgrown that field and demanded increased capacity and opportunity for development. Removing it to this city he has by his enterprise been conducting it with continued and increasing success under the title of the Combination Pence company, and it now takes rank as the largest fence manufacturing plant west of Chicago. He has of late added wood-working machinery for manufacturing vari-ous other articles, and the enterprise, though so young, is looked upon as one of the most promising and prosperous in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloomer leave on an extended eastern trip, visiting the St. Lawrence, Lake Shamplain and other points of interest, and ilso New York, in which state the groom has relatives. They will return in October There will be no cards.

The only plane worth having, the Hardman The Campers Will Entertain.

Lake Manawa has swarmed with campers this season as never before. All have enjoyed themselves heartily, and much of the enjoyment has been due to the management of Colonel Reed, who has been untiring in his efforts to secure comfort and security to the patrons of the lake. Desiring to give some expression of their appreciation of the some expression of their appreciation of the numerous courtesies extended, some of the campers have proposed to offer an even-ing's entertainment by the local talent.
