STARVING THE CITY HORSES.

Comptroller Olsen Refuses to Honor Orders for Hay and Onts. had short rations yesterday, and if they could be understood it is not unlikely that they would express their dissatisfaction with the action of the city council, which compelled their partial starvation.

Soon after the council declared by resolution that it would not officially recognize the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners comptroller Olsen refused to approve the requisitions of the board for feed and sup plies for the fire and police departments. He notified the council of his action and it was approved. Then several members inquired if it was the policy of the council to starve the horses in order to spite the board and the najority of the members extricated themselves from a rather embarrassing position by referring the matter to the finance commite. At that time it was stated that the committee would be expected to see that the horses were fed and that without recognizing he Board of Fire and Police Commissioners.
Under this action Fire Chief Redell was directed by the committee to purchase feed on the open market for his department until other arrangements were made. But the patrol horses were not taken into considera yesterday morning the supply of oats and hay in the police stables ran short. Notwithstanding the fact that the horses had nothing to eat, the comptroller still refused o honor a requisition and the finance committee seemed to have forgotten that there was such a department on earth: Finally the board issued orders to Captain Mostyn to go ahead and buy a supply of feed and take chances on getting it paid for, and this was

It appears that Clements agreed to work at the hospital for a year, and then resigned when he got a better position. The board voted an appropriation of $50 toward defraying the expenses of the teachers' institute, which will be held at the High school building next week.

CLAIMS HER PATHER'S MONEY. Jessie Sherwood Will Oppose Pro-

Jessie Sherwood was the only daughter of J. D. Sherwood, who died at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Kelley, on August 9. He left considerable property, which will likely be the cause of a legal battle.

New FOLDING BEDS

The effect most desired in a Folding Bed that it shall be anything but a bed by and nothing but a bed by night. Step by step we have improved it at both these points, and the Folding Red as now perfected is a triumph of ingenuity.

By night it is a full fashioned, luxurious bed with not the slightest suggestion of the "cabined, cribbed, confined" borth above it. The sides are open their entire length, and the bed could not be detected from a regue lar bedstead. Furthermore, in this bed there is a perfect system of ventilation through out the day, and this removes the last possible objection to a folding bed.

In the day time when this bed is "made up," its owner would not be able to recognize the contract of the contract Buy no folding bed of any make until you have personally examined our beds. Price from $10 to $50.
