FRANCE CONCEDES AT POINT

Stand Taken by the State Department Beginning to Have Effect.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—It is semi-officially announced that the French government has granted the request of United States Ambassador Eustis to allow a representative of the United States embassy to visit Mr. John L. Waller in his prison under the prison regulations. It is stated, however, that no further steps can be taken until the papers in the case arrive. It is understood that pressure has been brought to bear upon Mr. Eustis from Washington in view of the strong feeling among the American newspapers on the subject, and that nothing will be left undone to arrive at the true facts in the case. Affairs between the two governments are said to be proceeding in the most friendly phase.

PREPARING TO HEAR BECK'S CASE

Attorneys in the Flouroy Land Litigation Getting Ready.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—(Special Telegram.)—The Department of Justice today received a communication from the Indian office transmitting a copy of the request from Captain Beck that Assistant Attorney Ralph Breckenridge be retained as counsel in the Flouroy land company case now pending in supreme court. The Indian office desires to have Attorney Breckenridge retained so that he can prepare his argument and be ready when the case is taken up for trial. The solicitor general is now absent from the city and no action will be taken on the request of the Indian office. The case is set for hearing on the second Monday of the October term of the supreme court, which will be October 14, but it cannot be taken up until at least a week after that time. Solicitor general Knapp will consider the question of whether or not to appoint an assistant in the prosecution of this case. He has already informed the Indian office that he will personally represent the government at a trial and therefore his action on the request that Attorney Breckenridge be employed will depend entirely upon the exigencies of the time.
