Interstate Tennis Tournament Reaches the Finals in Singles.

SECOND AND THIRD ROUNDS ENDED

Games Played in Good Style by the Contestants, but the Chiengo Visitors Rather Disappoint n Large Crowd.

Yesterday's program in the Omaha interstate lawn tennis tournament was carried out as announced. Nothing now remains but the final round of the singles, which will be played off this afternoon. There was a large number of people present yesterday, both morning and efternoon, who fully appreciated the efforts of the players.

In the morning all of the remaining ties in the singles, preliminary to the semi-final round, were settled, M. Colpetzer and W. Bannister retired, and six ties were played off spraining his ankle during the second set. Austin required but thirteen games to de-fest McCsgue. Slocum had a similar contest with Percy Young, and Waldner scored a love set and another, in which he had some slight trouble from Caldwell. In this match the Omaha man tried to "Lawford," until he found that all his balls were killed at the net. He only took eight points in the fanzell; Ha first set, and only once get up to deuce. hours and fi After changing ends he tried the lobbing Attendance: game, and was more successful. He soured twenty-eight points in the second set to Waldner's thirty-six.

SLOCUM DEFAULTS TO WAIDNER. In the afternoon the game that was put up by the Chicago men was rather a disap-pointment. Mr. Waidner started out with considerable vigor, and in spite of his oppo-nent's very accurate and careful game he had little difficulty in capturing the first two sets. Waldner was active as a cat, springing around the court and up into the air, and bringing down some excellent smashes from a great height. The third and fourth sets were very listless. Slocum maintained his careful, easy game, never attempting to kill a ball, and Waidner did not seem to have the energy in him which he had shown be-For the third set this was no surprise, was natural for him to rest after his hard work, but when he did not show any better tennis in the fourth set and let tals go after the other with even a smaller number of games to his credit it began to be whis-pered that after all Mr. Slocum was going to pull off the match.

At two sets all, however, Slocum walked up to the umpire and announced his intention to default in Mr. Waidner's favor. It was time before the spectators realized what had happened, but they gradually began to thin out and went home.

The other semi-final was played off in an adjoining court, beginning about half an hour earlier. Farquhar was suffering from a very lame foot, the result of his morning's acci dent, and was not able to make the fight that he otherwise would have done. Austin had little difficulty in disposing of him, in spite of all the rushing that the Iowan tried to impart into the game at the start,

The final round of the singles will be played this afternoon, commencing promptly at 4:30, between De Roy Austin of Omaha and H. L. Waidner of Chicago. Both of these men play a vigorous, aggressive game, and when they meet the contest is bound to be a lively one. Whether either of them will be willing to take the same number of chances against the other as he would in a match with a more careful opponent is a matter which cannot be decided until they oppose other in the courts. Yesterday's FATHER KELLY DISCHARGED.

Officer Who Needlessly Arrested Catholic Priest Reprimanded. The case against Father Kelly, who was arrested by Officer Thomas, on complaint of Block Watchman Enright, on the charge of impersonating a priest and being a suspicious character, was tried in police court yesterday. The complaint had been changed, charging a disturbance of the peace On motion of the prosecuting attorney the reverend gentleman was discharged, after which the alterney censured the two complainants in severe terms.

Enright was the first witness called. He testified: "I am the block watchman on North Sixteenth street, between Cass and Nicholas. Some time after 1 o'clock Sunday morning I saw Mr. Kelly go into the Union hotel, and come out immediately. I followed him and asked what he was doing on the street at that hour in the morning. He told me that he was a priest, and that he was stopping at the Midland hotel. A white woman, Lizzie Vermass, who lives with Moore, was also arrested and held as complaining witness, Moore being charged with having beaten her.

Moore and the woman live at Sixth and Leavenworth streets. Yesterday Moore came home in an intoxicated condition and expressed his dissatisfaction with the way in which the woman run things. This started an argument, which resulted in the woman being struck to the ground. Moore then vented his rage on the furniture in the house and the woman says he fell in a pile of dishes an glass he had broken up, thus injuring his

El Rami Leads a Serious Pileup on the Queer Track.

Opening of the New York Session of the Grand Circuit Shows Fast Time and a Serious Accident.

NEW YORK, Aug. 26.—The grand circuit trotting races began today at Fleetwood park with fine sport and a good Monday crowd of 2,000. The weather was perfect and the track in good condition for fast time, every heat winner of the day making a new record. El Rami, a 4-year-old that has won many races in the grand circuit this year, was the favorite in the first race for 2:30 trotters and would have probably won in straight heats but for an ugly accident in the third round, when he fell in a heap, throwing his driver, Fred Howard, violently to the ground and injuring him badly. Burlingame, driven by John Dickerson, ran over El Rami and around the track until stopped. Dickerson escaped unburt. Isaac Fleming, the driver of Nomad, also went down in the wreck, but got off with a severe shaking up. The others went on in the race, with El Rami out of it. Prince Purdy winning cleverly. The judges decided that El Rami was distanced, but they permitted the others to start again. Prince Purdy won the next two heats in handsome style, making a record of 2:1514. Moonstone was a rather easy winner of the 2:10, for which Paul started a strong favorite. In the second heat Moonstone lowered her record to 2:09. The 2:17 class race had to be ostponed on account of darkness, after three heats. Catherine Leyburn, winner of the first beat in 2:14, was an outsider in the betting, Benton Wilkes going to the post a favorite. He outclassed the Onward mare and won with something to spare in oming back the next heat in 2:14. Results

DENIED PASSING THE Barrett and His Mother Held to the United States Court. The preliminary hearing of Frank Barrett and his mother for having in their possession counterfeit money took place yesterday before Justice Cockrell. Some cloth that had been found in the house of Mrs. Barrett was produced. It corresponds with that wrapped around the money, also some wall paper that was similar to that in her bedroom.

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Rush crossexamined Mrs. Barrett very closely, but failed to develop any new facts in the case. She denied having any knowledge of the money or even that Frank had it in his pos-session. Frank was placed upon the stand and stated that he received the money from a party named Charles Wells, whom he met three years ago in the county jail. Wells had been arrested at that time for trying to pass counterfeit dollars and Barrett for steal-ing harness. The money found Friday had been given him, so Barrett said, by Wells to dispose of, but the coin was such a poor imitation that he had decided not to try pass it. Barrett * and that he intended to give it back to Wells as soon as he saw him. give it back to Welis as soon as he saw him. Both Mrs. Barrett and her son pleaded not guilty to passing counterfeit money, though Frank did not deny that he would have done so had he not been afraid of being caught. Justice Cockrell fixed the bonds for their appearance at the November term of the United States court in the sum of $1,000 each. They were sent back to the county jail to await trial as neither could furnish had await trial, as neither could furnish bail.

COUNTY SCHOOLS IN GOOD SHAPE. Most of Them Have Commenced the Work of the Year. East Omaha started its school year last Monday with an attendance of thirty-three pupils. The other country schools will folow suit next week," Beginning either upon Monday or Tuesday. The town schools of the county will observe the latter day on account of Monday being Labor day.

"No more country teachers are needed." says Superintendent Hill. "The country schools are now all supplied with teachers. They are ready to begin work again. The average length of the country school year is to be nine months. Over half of the schools at least will be running within a week. Elk-horn. Valley, Bennington, Florence and Florence and Waterloo all start next Tuesday."

One reason for the long school year con-emplated is due to the excellent financial condition of the school funds. The schools, taken as a whole, have not as much money as they had one year ago by $30,000, the amount on hand being but $19,000, but the financial condition is better than ever before, owing to the decreased debts of the districts. Some of the districts, after levying a tax to pay off bonds, found themselves without any bonds outstanding and had to obtain authority of the county commissioners to divert the money into some other fund.

FAIR GROUNDS STREET RAILWAY Cars May Be Running Over the Line

Next Sunday. Yesterday afternoon the Omaha Street double track on West Leavenworth street to a point as far as Forty-eighth street. At that point the county graders were encountered and the track layers were pulled off and put to work on the west end of the line, near the state fair grounds gate. The work on this end of the line will be pushed along as rapidly as possible.

The contractor who is doing the grading on the hill on West Leavenworth street said yesterday that he would finish his contract this week, providing the weather continued favorable. Street railway officials said that they would complete the laying of the track and the stringing of overhead wires in five days after the graders left the street are of the opinion that the line will be in operation to the fair grounds next week if nothing happens to prevent the prosecu-tion of the work.

CUMING COUNTY IS COMING.

Will Have a Float in the Parade on Nebraska Day. Fred Sonnenschein, who is in the in the parade on Nebraska day in state fair week, and declares it will be the finest in line. It is the intention that it shall be surprise in every particular, and Sonnenschein says that in refusing to give any sort of description of it he is only doing what very other citizen of the county will do ferring to let the float show for itself when it appears in the procession. He was yesterday in conference with the local managers egarding the entry of the float.

A letter from North Platic yesterday stated that Lincoln county would send a float, and that probably the Juvenile band of North Platte, which is the protege of Colonel Cody who furnished it with magnificent uniforms ould apply for participation in the festivities

Prominent Missouri Racing Man Shoots Himself in a Drug Store. WELLSVILLE, Mo., Aug. 26,-Hon. Sol Hughlett, one of the best known men in Missouri, shot and instantly killed himself this afternoon in a drug store. He was alone when the revolver was discharged, and it is unknown whether the shooting was pre-meditated or accidental. His friends assert it was accidental. If he did commit suicide there is no known reason for the act, as Mr Hughlett was financially well fixed and his family relations, as far as known, were pleas ant. The inquest will be held tomorrow. Mr. Hughlett was prominent in both political and racing circles and had scores of friends.
