While the Chinese Mob Plundered the Missionaries Officially Refused Aid.

Men, Women and Children Chased Mile

Concerted Effort on the Part of the Leaders to Drive Christian Teachers from that Section of the Empire.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Reports of the outrages upon missionaries in China have come from members of the American Baptist Missionary union to the Baptist Missionary magazine which show that the outrages were more general than has been told before.

In the province of Szechuan, the largest in the empire, there were many small stations scattered over the valley of the Upper Yang-tse-Kiang river. Most of the missionaries had gone to the field in the past few years. While the natives seem to have tried, in some instances, to protect the missionaries, the only service they were able to render was to help them to escape.

On Chen-Tu, the capital of the province of Szechuan, a place which was reported as being a "foreign barbarian" were being evil characters to steal small children for them. The next day a mob of several thousand tore through the streets, and the mission and the property of the two Protestant societies and the Catholic churches.

OFFICIALS REFUSED AID.

The missionaries appealed to the magistrature, but he told them he was powerless to help them. When the missionaries were friendly natives they effected their escape. Then the cry went up: "The time has come to turn all the missionaries out of Szechuan."

MISSIONARIES IN HIDING.

In most cases the missionaries, while their property was being destroyed, left the cities and hid in the neighborhood, awaiting an opportunity to escape. They were hidden by friends who helped them to procure boats and to put the missionaries and children aboard.

BERLIN, Sept. 1.—Empress William and the Empress Augusta and other members of the imperial family, the grand duchess of Baden, and numerous representatives of German princely houses, ministers of state, veterans and legislators were present at the consecration of Emperor William Memorial church.

STOKE HAD A LEGAL HEARING.

INDICATIONS THAT THE ENGLISHMAN WAS NOT HANGED WITHOUT A TRIAL.

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Associated press learned today from a trustworthy source that the Englishman, Stoke, hung by the British, under Captain Lathaire, near the river Aramux, in the Congo state, which was mentioned in a previous cable dispatch to the Associated press, had a legal trial, but that Captain Lathaire acted illegally in hanging him without allowing an appeal to the tribunal at Boma.

Earthquake of Considerable Proportions Disturbed that Section.

THREE DISTINCT SHOCKS WERE NOTICED

Many of the Frightened Inhabitants Testify to the Disturbed Conditions and Rocking of Residences at an Early Hour.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Three distinct earthquake shocks were felt by the residents of New York and Brooklyn about 6 o'clock this morning. No damage to life or property is reported from any section of the city. The districts of East New York and South Brooklyn received the greatest shock, but the rumbly sound distinctly felt in other sections of the city.

The first shock, which was felt at 8 o'clock, was followed by a rumbling noise like distant thunder. This was followed by two other slight shocks, which, according to most of the reports, died away in a low grating tone.

James Jackson, a colored watchman at the municipal building, said that the residents of the city were awakened by a rumbling noise, and that many houses had been shaken. The building trembled perceptibly, while the plates and other dishes on the table were moved.

CREATED A SENSATION IN MADRID.

Story of a Polish Count on the Alliance Affair Made Public.

MADRID, Sept. 1.—A Polish count, Hobkirk, who was a passenger on the American steamer, Allianca when she was fired upon by Spanish shells near Cape Matanzas, and who accuses the captain of the Allianca of suppressing his evidence that the Allianca carried contraband of war and was within Cuban waters, has arrived here and has seen the minister of war and marine regarding the matter.

FELT IN JERSEY CITY.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Sept. 1.—New Jersey felt the force of the earthquake, the tremor extending throughout the northern part, while the southern section appears to have escaped the experience entirely.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—An earthquake shock was felt in this city about 6 o'clock this morning. Houses shook perceptibly, window panes were broken and pictures and other movables were torn from their fastenings.

RATHER SEVERE IN PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 1.—An earthquake shock lasting several seconds was felt in this city shortly after 6 o'clock this morning. The disturbance by mother earth of the quiet of the Sunday morning was violent enough while it lasted to create a panic in the suburban districts, and it is said that at one part of Georges Hill, in Fairmount park, a fissure was opened, permitting the entrance of a plumed, which extended down over 100 feet without touching bottom.

WILMINGTON, Sept. 1.—Quite a perceptible shock of earthquake was felt in this city about 6:30 o'clock this morning. The vibration lasted for several seconds and was felt in all portions of the town.

Special Train on the Missouri Pacific Carries the Morning Bee to Many Towns Hours Ahead of Former Time.

Yesterday morning The Bee started another enterprise that will be of great service to the people of the eastern and southern central part of the state. It was the initial trip of a special train on the Missouri Pacific railroad, which will daily carry The Morning Bee from Omaha on such a schedule that the residents of Springfield, Louisville, Newhawa, Union, Lincoln, Nebraska City, Omaha, Council Bluffs, Papillion, Fairbury, Blue Springs, Wymora, Holdrege, Francis, Home, Alvo, Murdock, South Bend, Meadow, Richfield, Wabash, Elmwood, Eagle, Walton, Waverly, Greenwood, Ashland, Davy, Cereso, Swedenburg, Wahoo, Concord, Cedar Bluffs and Fremont may have The Bee at breakfast.

These places many hours ahead of any other newspaper in the state. It is arranged that the latest news of the night is printed in the edition, thus giving the people the completest paper published in the west at the earliest possible hour. It is an evidence of the advance in modern methods to deliver at the doorsteps of a resident of an inland town or village at an early hour in the morning a complete metropolitan newspaper, containing in detail and at large the history of the world of the day before, giving the rural districts the advantages of city life in the way of keeping posted. And this is done at a cost of only one cent a copy.

It is not alone in the train itself that The Bee makes special preparations for this service. For years it has been recognized that the Bee's news gathering facilities were the most complete of any paper in the west. Its reporters, without number, are on part of competitors and would-be rivals, who have time and again attested their appreciation of The Bee's enterprise by either imitating or being outdone by it.

HAS EVERYTHING IN IT.

On this new train The Bee is sent out complete with all the news of the day, political, religious, sporting, state, local, sensational and depressing, is contained in the most accessible form. No other paper printed in Nebraska has the use of the New York World's paper in Nebraska has or can obtain the same facilities for gathering the news. In addition to the state of Nebraska, Colorado, South Dakota, Colorado and Wyoming, correspondents of very important cities in the United States from Boston to San Francisco, and from London to New York, are on the foreign news service, the best ever organized, and the exclusive use for Nebraska of the great Associated Press service, which is furnished by the Bee, is a feature of the latter feature is one of the wonders of modern journalism, and would require columns to adequately describe. It is only one of the features of the Bee which makes it a perfect paper. Such comprehensive arrangements for securing the news of the world are possessed by none of The Bee's rivals.

TO PLEAD IRELAND'S CAUSE.

Call of the Chicago Convention Given to the Public.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The official call for the convention of the new Irish movement, to be held on September 24, 25 and 26, has been issued from the headquarters of the executive committee of the new Irish movement. It is as follows: The new Irish struggle for freedom has reached a momentous period. Ireland, abandoned in the crisis of her fate by the liberal leaders, is told by the troy secretary to the lord lieutenant, that the British government is sternly and unalterably opposed to the granting of any measure of home rule whatever. The English cabinet, in the old attitude employed by English governments toward Ireland. She has been alternately betrayed by the whigs and betrayed by the Tories. Nothing worthy of her acceptance is to be expected from either of the leading English parties. Ireland must, therefore, be her own children and their descendants for support in her struggle for freedom.

Parliamentary agitation has had a long and patient trial, but has utterly failed to accomplish its object. It remains for us to consider what other procedure of dealing with the Irish question can be used to achieve her liberty. The Irish race in America cannot afford to be neutral or passive while the motherland is being slowly but surely crushed by the usurping enactments of a foreign and hostile power.

SCHEMES TO CATCH SUCKERS

Some of the Side Features of the "Midway" at the Reunion.

PETTY PLANS FOR ROBBING THE RYAN

Sure Thing Gambling Games Introduced Under Guise of "Innocent Divertements," Which Flourished During the Week.

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 1.—(Special)—"You ought to have seen me playing one of the roulette men last night," one of the state militia boys said to The Bee's representative one morning as he made the rounds of Camp Logan. "But they are not running a faro game here on the grounds, are they?" I ventured. "Well, that's about all you can call it," he replied. "There are three different fellows up the Midway who are selling cheap pencils. You buy one and you stop on the black. Well, the boys won $5 or $10 on the fellow's own game and simply set him crazy. I tell you they were thankful when we moved on."

That was the first intimation I had that there was any systematic gambling going on. "Fargo" would be nearer right to call it systematic robbery, because there was hardly a game on the grounds where a man had any chance of getting any return for his money. There were the usual "one-up" and "two-up" down-one-baby-get-one-cigar-games, but those were usually merely an excuse to get a permit and the men were running some other game on the side.

SURPRISED THE PRESIDENT.

But it was not until Friday, which was practically the last day of the reunion, that I had a chance to talk to the manager of the reunion on the subject. I approached President Dutton, because there was hardly a man on the grounds that was being worked square or was not a swindle.
