

THINKS TAMMANY WILL WIN

Channey Dewey is Also Confident the Republicans Will Carry the State.

BUSINESS PROSPECTS ARE IMPROVING

Entire World Entering upon an Era of Prosperity—Expresses the Opinion Ireland Will Get Home Rule.

LONDON, Sept. 6.—Hon. Channey M. Dewey has returned to London and he saw Mr. Richard Croker today. Mr. Dewey sat in a room at the Savoy hotel tonight and talked in a characteristic way of his experiences abroad.

"I came to Europe to see nobody," said he, "and consequently I saw every one. I saw Mr. Croker today who told me that he is returning to New York to take an active part in the campaign. Mr. Croker is very confident that Tammany will elect its whole ticket, and he bases his confidence on a belief that the reformers and the republicans will not be able to pull together, as was the case in 1894. If we are unable to adhere to the combinations of 1894 Mr. Croker's opinion is right. Tammany, in that event, will elect all the judges, the county clerk, the senators and most of the assemblymen. I believe that the state will go republican, and that we have a pretty sure thing for electing the republican presidential candidate."

Mr. Dewey was asked about an article which appeared in the London Times on Tuesday on Mr. W. C. Whitney's presidential chances. Mr. Dewey said: "I really do not believe Mr. Whitney wants the democratic nomination. The fact that the nomination is not sought for shows the slim chances of the democrats."

Regarding his own trip Mr. Dewey said: "I had the usual good time at Hamburg, where I dined twice with the prince of Wales. From there I went to Lourdes and saw a miracle—at least I believe it a miracle. I made quite a lengthy tour also in Germany, France and Belgium. There is a great improvement in business manifest in all three of these countries, and likewise in England. The whole world will experience an era of prosperity in the next five or six years, the United States especially. Indeed, it has already started. We have just reaped our greatest crops in our history. Wages are voluntarily being increased and our securities are increasing in value and are being sought for by foreign investors. The market is rapidly regaining confidence in American securities."

Mr. Dewey was asked by his interviewer why his speech was called "a miracle." He said: "I think the conservatives, who have come to power in England, will give Ireland home rule in the next year. By just as good as the liberals would have given. Just like ourselves, the English are peculiar and like to be forced. It is not a medicine to which they object, providing the label on the bottle is satisfactory."

CASTELLAR COMPLIMENTS CAMPOS

Spanish Statesman Exchanges Soft Words with the Spaniard.

HAVANA, Sept. 6.—Senator Emilio Castelar, who was president of the executive power in Spain after the abdication of King Amadeo in 1873, has written a highly complimentary letter to Marshal Martinez de Campos. In this letter Senator Castelar expresses his admiration of the courage, heroic deed and nobility of heart which he ascribes to the captain general. He declares that the prestige which de Campos enjoys is recognized throughout the world by his own generation, which is rich in notable men. Castelar adds an expression of his admiration for the chief of the staff and deep political ideas of Marshal de Campos, qualities which are recognized even by his enemies, will soon give place to Cuba's freedom and to the glory of this united beautiful island with her not less noble mother, Spain.

Senator de Campos has replied that he is not entitled to praise so liberally bestowed by Senator Castelar. His only aspiration as a soldier is to his duty, which, he says, he has fulfilled to the satisfaction. He expresses the belief that Senator Castelar's complimentary letter is inspired by his feeling of loyalty as a Spaniard, stationed at Sitio Grande, about ten miles from Sagua in the Grand.

General Canales has had a skirmish with the band of Senech near Viana, in which the insurgents lost two killed. A spy was also captured at Sagua.

General Canales has had one of their number wounded in a skirmish. General Campos has sailed on the Villa Verde for Cayo Francés.

General Campos has sailed on the Santa Domingo, province of Santa Clara, by which five persons were wounded. The band then fired upon the train, but were repulsed by a detachment of the civil guards. The engine was destroyed.

MORE CRITICISM FOR MR. DENBY

Missionaries to China Appear to the United States for Assistance.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 6.—President E. P. Porter of Kentucky Wesleyan college at Winchester today received the following interesting letter from Dr. C. F. Reid of Shanghai, China, citizen of the United States and president-elect of the Shanghai district Methodist church south:

SHANGHAI, Aug. 10.—Only two weeks ago today I sent you an account of the Chinese massacre at Ku-cheng. You had our minister act promptly and adequately in the first case of the kind which probably had not occurred and we would have been spared the spectacle of eight young and consecrated women dragged from their beds and brutally murdered before the eyes of their husbands and a faithful servant of God buried in his bed.

I am sending these accounts in the hope that you will use them where they will do the most good. I wish I could put my own hands on the hands of those who have done us wrong and every other man who has taken part in the massacre of the church or the honor of his country.

We don't seek for revenge, but we do ask that the government of the United States should have a right to demand and no civilized nation has a right to withhold from its hands of justice. Foreigners in China are unanimous in the belief that the prompt and vigorous action would at once put an end to these things.

We have lost all hope of help from the legation at Peking and we are now appealing directly to Washington. Will you not help us in this matter? We have done what we shall have to abandon all our interior work, which represents so many thousands of dollars of investment.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—A special to a local paper from Washington says the United States will institute separate inquiries into the Cheng Fu missionary outrages. It is said that this government has become tired of the reports from the Chinese consul, and is determined to investigate the matter.

SIGNIFICANT REMARK AT A KOMMERS

Emperor William Will Not Allow the German Frontier to Be Diminished, Says General Loe to America.

BERLIN, Sept. 6.—A grand kommers was given this evening in honor of the visiting German-American veterans of the war of 1870-71, 2,000 people being present, including General Loe, Erpus, Rogulowski and Saxe. The band played the "March from Tannhauser," the "Star Spangled Banner" and "Yankee Doodle." The banners of the different veteran societies, including the American, were brought in, and the band played the "Entry to Paris" march. Cheers were given for the emperor and a telegram expressing homage was sent to his majesty.

General Loe, in replying to President Schaeffer, called upon the German Veteran association, in returning thanks, said the celebration did not consist only of the handful of persons present, but of all the military associations of German-Americans, and all Germans who upheld Germany abroad. He declared that the reception there would bring blessings not only upon their comrades, but upon all Germans abroad. He then placed the wreath upon the banner of the society.

PRESSING TO SEE THE RACE

EFFORTS TO KEEP THE COURSE CLEAR

Cup Committee Takes Unusual Precautions to See that the Racing Yachts Secure Fair Play All the Way Round.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—No previous contest for the America's cup has ever aroused such intense and widespread interest on both sides of the Atlantic as the races between Defender and Valkyrie III, which begin tomorrow off Sandy Hook. Not only are hundreds of strangers in town from Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Chicago, and many other cities of the far west, eager to witness the grand struggle between the two speediest yachts ever built, but the number of foreign visitors who are here for the same purpose has never before been exceeded. The hotels are packed with guests and every available excursion steamer in the vicinity has been pressed into service to accommodate the thousands of sightseers who will witness the rare spectacle.

Such a big rush for the ocean course has been anticipated for tomorrow that unusual precautions have been taken by the cup committee to have the course properly patrolled, so that the racing yachts shall not be interfered with by the excursion fleet. The patrol force will be in charge of B. S. Osborn, who looked after the recent canal races, and Lieutenant Delahanty, supervisor of the port. Colonel Gillespie of the engineering corps of the United States army will be in charge of the land police interested in securing fair play for the racers.

The committee has also issued a notice to all captains of excursion boats and pleasure craft, advising them to keep an absolutely clear course and asking them to do all in their power to prevent interference with the races. It is stated that there was no cause for complaint, as there was on several occasions during the international races two summers ago.

Designer Watson of the Valkyrie said today to a reporter: "I am going down to the race tomorrow expecting to lose. If I win this evening, but whether he or any other of the Valkyrie people looked very downcast."

MEASUREMENT OF THE YACHTS

The results of the measurer's work on the yachts were as follows: Defender, 104.49 feet; Valkyrie, 104.49 feet. The English yacht would give over a minute and a half in a thirty-mile course to Defender, yet many capable critics said the challenger would give a minute, but that she should yield less than half a minute was astonishing to all the smart people. However, here are the figures, and they speak for themselves.

Defender, Valkyrie. Length on load water line, 85.45, 85.55; length on deck, 104.49, 104.49; length from foremast to mainmast, 104.49, 104.49; length from foremast to mainmast, 104.49, 104.49; length of extreme spinnaker, 73.56, 73.56; length of mainmast, 51.52, 51.52; length of topmast, 51.52, 51.52; height upper side of mainmast, 47.73, 47.73; height upper side of topmast, 19.29, 19.29; sail area per rule, 112.25, 114.14; sail area per rule, 112.25, 114.14.

When Mr. Hyslop brought the measurements to the New York Yacht club house he said Valkyrie would have to allow Defender a margin of 101.49 for Valkyrie, but he should yield less than half a minute was astonishing to all the smart people. However, here are the figures, and they speak for themselves.

Released an American Prisoner

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The State department received a cable tonight from Consul General Williams at Havana stating that the prisoner of war, Juan Sanguily, had been released by the Spanish authorities and Sanguily would be returning to his home in Cuba tomorrow. This was welcome news to the department, as the case of these two United States citizens imprisoned in Cuba has attracted the attention of the public. General Williams was active in seeking protection for Aguirre and Sanguily, so much so that he offended the former Spanish minister, Don Antonio de la Torre, who was then in charge of the Lewis Lukanbach, which has been chartered for the purpose of marking the route of the yacht. The yacht is not military trials. The release of Sanguily and the prompt trial of Aguirre will secure everything for which the United States has contended.

PRISON MIDDLE FURTHER COMPLICATED

Formal Demand for Occupancy by the Representative of the Board of Public Lands and Buildings Formally Refused.

LINCOLN, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—The situation in regard to affairs at the penitentiary is fully explained by the two letters from Warden Leidigh, published below. Contractor Beemer today filed his bond with the secretary of state, it having been previously approved by the Board of Public Lands and Buildings. The question was raised that it was the province of the governor to approve all bonds, but this one of Beemer's was not submitted to him. A reporter of the Bee today showed the original contract of the state with ex-Contractor C. W. Mosher, together with Mosher's bond. The name of the governor does not appear on the document, and it seems to have been approved by the Board of Public Lands and Buildings. Shortly after noon Mr. Beemer went down to the penitentiary and presented the order of the board, installing him as contractor, to Warden Leidigh. The latter refused to admit Beemer on the basis of contractor, and the latter immediately called on each of the gentlemen and closed himself with Land Commissioner Russell. When seen by a Bee reporter Mr. Beemer said that he had been down to "the pen."

"And then what happened?" "The warden came up again, and Mr. Beemer, Mr. Leidigh came up to the capitol and filed the following letters with the parties to whom they were addressed:

LANCASTER, Neb., Sept. 6, 1895.—To the Honorable, the Board of Public Lands and Buildings of the State of Nebraska, Gentlemen—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of an order dated September 1, 1895, from Hon. Charles F. Johnson, your board, to recognize Mr. A. D. Beemer as contractor and look to him for supplies, building and repairs. As the contractor, by virtue of appointment by his excellency, the governor, I am fully and completely aware of the duties and responsibilities of the position, recognizing that as a taxpayer, as well as an interested citizen, I must perform to the citizens of Nebraska, I must respectfully decline to become a party to this attempt to install a contractor upon the taxpayers of the state without any authority from the state. I believe the action of the board in this respect to be wholly without authority of law, and an attempt will be made by me to appoint another contractor, and I will not be bound by the action of your board in this respect. I believe the action of your board is a flagrant violation of the spirit and letter of the law providing for the appointment of a contractor, and I will not be bound by the action of your board in this respect.
