

GOES TO ST. PAUL NEXT YEAR

Palace City Captures the Encampment of the G. A. R.

COLONEL WALKER CHOSEN COMMANDER

Hon. Henry Watterson Delivers a Masterly Address of Welcome—Annual Report of the Commander-in-Chief Presented.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 12.—The thirtieth national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will be held in St. Paul in 1896, with Colonel W. Walker of Indiana as commander-in-chief.

As we go sailing on. "This is a voice that we remember—ere its summons rang in battle clamor, and we were crowded with the hiss of sword and crash of prow—"

Our hope sank, even as we saw the sun sink in the west. The ship of state went groping through the darkness of the night.

As one who spoke the dead awake, with life blood in his veins, he said: "I can scarcely find words to express my gratitude to you, my comrades."

The next feature to the preliminary program was the presentation of a gavel made of gold, silver and copper, studded with diamonds.

Eighteen marching veterans, and dozens of women were prostrated by the heat yesterday. All are now reported as recovering.

As many as from here to the encampment of the Sons of Veterans at Knoxville, the dedication of the monuments and the national park at Chattanooga and Chickamauga and to the Atlanta exposition.

By far the most interesting feature of the week began today at 10 o'clock in Music hall. It was the meeting of the encampment.

He said that this was the first meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic south of the Ohio river.

That promissory note drawn by the city of Louisville in 1862, for $100,000, was paid by you in the city of Pittsburg a year ago.

And, when you see the flag that can you doubt the loyal sincerity of those who from house and roof from roof have thrown up to the breeze?

These are honest flags, with honest hearts behind them. They are the symbols of a nationality.

It is impossible to describe the scene that followed Mr. Watterson's address. The speaker's usual was overcome by the emotion and left the front of the stage.

GETTING AT THE MAIN FACTS

Prosecution in the Durrant Case is Rapidly Developing.

ANTICIPATING THE DEFENSE SOMEWHAT

Tracing the Accused and Blanche Lamont to the Vicinity of the Church on River Street When She Met Her Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—The prosecution in the Durrant case has found another flaw in the story told by the young medical student on the day of Blanche Lamont's murder.

There's a voice across the nation, like a mighty trumpet, that says: "I can scarcely find words to express my gratitude to you, my comrades."

CUP WILL STAY IN AMERICA

Lord Durrant Throws Away His Last Chance to Capture It.

PULLED VALKYRIE UP AT THE START

Defender Sailed Over the Course Alone—Crowding of Excursion Boats Given as the Reason for His Refusal to Race.

NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The international series between Defender and Valkyrie III for the America's cup is ended. On the whole it has been an extraordinary series, and while the result is satisfactory to the American people, two at least of the contests that went to make up the match were not.

By the time the match was over, the defender had been so completely out of the race that he was not even considered as a possibility for the cup.
