One of Merriam's favorite pashas been the circulation of printed papers bearing a great many hieroglyphics, which enabled him to prove to his own satisfaction that silver was the coming money and Council Bluffs the New Jerusalem. He would expound these circulars on the street corners, and prophesy a reign of bloodshed and ruin unless certain things were done. Until about six months ago he was considered harmless, but his talk of late had been so gory hued that some of his friends called Chief Scanlan and Marshal Canning to have him locked up. They accordingly filed the information on which he was arrested. When taken to the jall he said to Sheriff Hazen: "If you take the law into your own

County Fruit District. Saturday, September 28, will be the date of an "apple jubilee" to be held in Glenwood, for the purpose of entertaining the fruit lovers of the universe, and incidentally of showing what Mill county can do in the way of raising all sorts of f. aits. The town is to be handsomely decorated in honor of the occasion, and the citizens of Glenwood, and, indeed, of Mills county generally, will do all in their power to make it pleasant for anyone who chances to visit the town on that day. Six hundred baskets of fruit will be set out upon the depot platform, and the contents will be distributed among the passengers on the trains that pass through

All the farmers of Mills county will be on hand with their carriages, and the visitors will be given a drive through the fruit dis-trict. There they will see some of the biggest orchards in the west. at Avoca next Wednesday. All other considerations were lost sight of in the momentous question of who should receive the nomination for sheriff, and the friends of Nick O'Brien and J. R. Black carried on a hot fight. They had been pluming themselves all day long, and the success with which each of them swept the board in certain precincts showed how well they organized. O'Brien, it is claimed, has the Second precinct of the Second ward, and William Henry Knepher, who shalled the Black hosts, was summarily sat upon. In the First precinct of the same upon. In the First precinct of the sam-ward, on the other hand, R. N. Whittlese; headed the Black people, and won the day securing a delegation of eight out of ter for Black, with the other two doubtful. William Morris, the committeeman of the ward, showed his fine Italian hand in the caucuses of both precincts and solid delegations were elected for O'Brien. In the First precinct of the Fourth ward Black's friends won the day, while in the Second of the Third and the First of the Sixth they claim a majority. O'Brien has a solid delegation in the Second of the Third, and majority of two in the Second of the first. The above figures, of course, are subject to change in the next three days, but they come from sources which at present claim to be official. R. N.
