County Attorney Saunders had a search warrant issued from Justice Vien's court yes terday for Mrs. Ann Pralor's place, 1333 Broadway, alleging that intoxicating liquors were being sold there. Mrs. Pralor has failed to put up her mu et law ax in advance, but will very likely do so and avoid further trouble. Constable Baker served the writ and searched the place, but his return falls to state whether he found anything or not.

Mrs. Mary Bartalow arrived here yesterday from Montana, accompained by her two children, in search of her husband, who has deserted her. She hoped to find either him or his brother, ex-Marshal Oscar Bartalow of Manawa, whose recent passing has been the subject of some newspaper note. She was stranded, and the overseer of the poor provided her with railroad transportation to the me of her friends at Guthrie Center, Ia. Among the important cases which would naturally come up at this term of the federal court is that of the Omaha Bridge and Terminal Railway company against the county treasurer, to restrain the sale of the bridge

Attached MacConnell's Goods. Sheriff Hazen levied upon a lot of S. P. MacConnell's household goods Saturday night under a writ of attachment sworn out by S. T. McAtee. The amount claimed was $393, due on a grocery bill that had been running for several months. The petition, which was filed in the office of the clerk of the district court at 9 o'clock at night, alleged that Mac-Connell was about to move his effects out of the state for the purpose of defrauding his creditors and that he had refused to secure McAtee in any way. The property levied upon was all stored in the McCormick Implement company's warehouse previous to the de-parture of Mr. and Mrs. MacConnell for Kirksville, Mo., some little time ago.

On the third Williams disappeared. On the fourth F. J. Day received 2, McGee 3 and Harl
1. All the changes possible were rung in on these three names, until the twelfth bailot, when Harl had 3, McGee 2 and Day 1.

The directors then took a recess and went into the hall to refresh their fevered minds with draughts of hydrant water.

Then they came back to hear a report from Chairman Snyder of the teachers' committee to the effect that J. G. Lemen of the Christian home wanted to rent a two-room building to the district for $30 a month, to keeper. He became smitten with the house be used as a school for the children of the keeper's charms and about a year ago in be used as a school for the children of the Domestic Accused of Stealing. Jacob Sims, the well known lawyer, says that he is the victim of a hired girl, whose mind runs to the beautiful and whose feet ran away with it. Up to last Thursday Mrs. Frances Miller was employed as domestic at his house 316 Planter street. She left that day, and the disappearance of three handsome embroidered centerpieces, two children's dresses, and a child's silk shirt was almost immediately noted. It was found that Mrs. Miller had told a number of strangely conflicting stories, and on the strength of several suspicious circumstances Sims swore out a warrant in Justice Vien's court yesterday, charging her with larceny. She was ar-rested at the home of her father, in Lewis township, who gave bonds for her appearance next Monday.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 23 .- All doubts of the intention of Judge Jenkins to maintain jurisdiction over the Northern Pacific receivership and of the receivers acknowledging his jurisdiction and disregarding the order of the Seattle court, were removed today when Judge Jenkins entered an order requiring all parties with preferential claims arising from the receivers' operation of the Wisconsin Central lines and the terminal properties in Chicago to make answer to a petition of the receivers regarding the adjustment of the claims by November 1. The petition is in effect that the court divide the claims equitably between the Northern Pacific and the Wisconsin Central, and the Chicago & Northern Pacific, and that in the meantime had had his furniture driven up to the back door as soon as he got in, and was snugly ensconsed there, as though he meant to stay all winter. CHICAGO Sept. 23.—West bound freight rates received another black eye today when the Alton announced that, effective September 26, it would make a rate of $1 per ton on hard coal from Chicago to Kansas City. This is the cheapest cut by far that has been made in this recent flurry in western rates The other roads had cut the rate from $3.2 to $2.50 and had agreed that the cut should be kept out of Kansas City. The Alton has not only gone deeper, but has put the rate into a territory where none of the other lines were willing to extend it. The action of the Alton will be followed by the other roads as soon as they can make the rate.

GOVERNMENT WILL NOT MIX IN. Secretary of the Interior Decides Against on East Omaha Request.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(Special Telegram.)-In the matter of the application of the East Omaha Land company for proceedings to cancel a patent issued to C. C. Lefferts December 23, 1893, for fractional section 16, township 73, north of range 4, west of the fifth principal meridian, lowa, the secretary of the interior today decided that inaxmuch as the state of lowa was allowed to select lands in lieu of this functional section 16, and that upon approval of such selection by the general land office the said original fractional section reverted to the United States, the sale of Lefferts was perfeetly legal and proper. The supreme court of the United States has decided that despite the shifting of the Missouri river the despite the shifting of the Missouri river the state of Iowa has jurisdiction over the land and the city of Council Bluffs maintains public schools there. The fault lies with the land company for not knowing the legal status of the and. There is no evidence of fraud on the part of Lefferts. The only pos-sible redress for the land company would be by suit against the state of lowe. by suit against the state of Iowa.

Secretary and General Manager DeLong of the East Omaha Land company says that little more than one-tenth of an acre is involved in the dispute. The land company got it by patent from the state of Iowa six or seven years ago. Later the United States aveyed it to Lefferts by patent, and the understanding of the company is that the decision means only that the government refuses to bring suit to quiet the thic on the application of the land company.

Gradually my stomach became involved and I are so little that for months I was wretchedly weak in mind and body. A catarrhal affection of the kidneys and other organs became a later feature, causing a number of distressing symptoms, besides a good deal of worry, for I did not think I could survive these serious allments of such important organs. The cost of a full course of treatment with Drs. Copeland and Shepard is $5.00 per month, whether the requisite period of treatment be three months or three weeks. This fee includes all medicines and the constant and watchful care of all patients to a final cur-

"As I stated above, I wrote for your question blank for women, and it seemed just fitted to my case. I began treatment at once, and during the first mouth I found wonderful ease from the torture that had been slowly killing me. During the second month of treatment my stemach and kidney troubles disappeared and I felt nearly well, although still vesk. The third month's supply brought me an entire cure, for I found my health excellent in every respect. The freedom from pain, the return of appetite, sleep and bodily strength, the absence of nervous prostration and kidney derangements, all these mark a new era in my life. Any woman who desires may write me for a verification of this statement."

Mrs. H. G. Bolan, Edgement, S. D., is a lady highly respected by the whole community where she lives. For her away comfort and safety, as well as for the sake of her family, she desired good health. Regarding this she wrote to Dr. Shepard under recent date:

"I became totally unfit for doing anything on account of terrible headacnes that scarcely ever left me for a moment. Heavy and piercing pains in the forehead, temples, top of the head and neck reduced DRS. COPELAND & SHEPARD,
