Austin Wasn't Swift Enough. If Ben Austin, who lives at 1509 West Broadway, had been a better runner there might have been a tragedy in that neighborhood a day or two ago. He was lying, somewhat en dishabille, on his bed when a man came to the front door and after a few pre-liminary remarks made an insulting remark to Mrs. Austin. Her husband heard it, and mping off the bed proceeded to look for a loaded revolver which he had always kept in the bureau drawer. Unfortunately, Mrs. Austin in cleaning up the bureau had decided the closet to be a better place for the weapon, and she put it at the bottom of a pile of boxes, where it was of no use in an emergency. But Austin gathered himself together and seizing a club put chase to the visitor. The chase extended over about half a mile of territory, and at no time did the front man allow the rear man to get within fifty feet of him. Austin threw a brick or two, narrow!; missing the other man, but finally had to stop for lack of breath. He vows he will trounce the fellow when he next sees him.

Yates was among the injured. The attorneys for the company will try to prove that his injuries were not so serious but that he has been able to work at his usual occupation

The case of Heggerty against the Union Pacific occupied a portion of Judge Wool-son's day. Heggerty also claims a big dam-age fee as the result of a railroad wreck, and the evidence was heard at the last term of court. Judge Woolson at that time decided that a release which the plaintiff gave the company upon the payment of a certain amount relieved the company from any further liability. Heggerty admits the release is genuine, but wants it set aside. The case is now being prepared for an appeal.

The National Bank of Commerce of Omaha filed a petition and bond for the removal of the case to the United States circuit court. The plaintiff, Julia Officer, filed a motion in the United States cirucit court to have the case remanded to the district court of the county, upon the ground that the controversy between her and the defendants was not a separable one, but was one requiring the presence of all the defendants separable one, but was one requiring the presence of all the defendants whom she had made parties to her suit. This motion to remand was decided by Judge Shiras, who in his opinion, which was quite lengthy, and expressed in the clear and terse language for which he is noted, said that the right of removal from a state to a federal court was one which should be apparent from the record as it existed in the state court at the time the right was claimed that the petition in the state courts and the petition for removal should show plainly and without doubt that the right of removal existed. Because one court would not oust another court of its rightful jurisdiction unless it was made to appear clearly, plainly and without doubt that the right existed. Efforts Not Appreciated.

The result of the efforts of Manager Alton of the opera house to give the prople of Council Bluffs a first class place of amusement have fallen considerably short of what hoped. "The Wife," as presented by the Stapleton company last evening, was one of the strongest pieces of dramatic work ever seen on the stage of a Council Bluffs theater. The audience was somewhat bet-ter than on some previous occasions, but instead of filling every seat, as the quality of the performance merited, there were many more empty seats than full ones. Not poor play has been given since Alton took charge of the house, but it goes without saying that neither he nor any one else will con-tinue to run the place at a loss for any great length of time. Now, for the first time in the people of this city have a theater at which the best plays are presented, but unless there is an improvement in patronage the probability is that they will not have it MET TO TALK OVER PLANS. Committee to Arrange for the Trans mississippi Congress.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of property owners and business men at the office of Mayor Bemis Tuesday night for the purpos of making arrangements to entertain the of making arrangements to entertain the Transmississippi congress, which will meet in Omaha during the latter part of November. Among those present were: Mayor Bem's, Dr. S. D. Mercer, H. J. Penfold, W. R. Bennett. E. Markell, Ralph Kitchen, John Rush, B. O. Phillippi, L. M. Rheem, John S. Khox, Joseph Hayden, Isaac Carpenter, J. E. Utt, R. W. Richardson, L. H. Berdie, S. Silloway, Charles Saunders, A. P. Tukey, J. W. Richardson, L. H. Bradley, George W. Kelley, John L. Webster and W. J. Connell. Mayor Bemis was elected chairman and briefly explained why he had called the mesting. The Transmississippi congress had me at St. Louis last year, and R. W. Richardson, L. H. Bradley and W. J. Bryan of Omaha were among the delegates. During the con-vention Mr. Richardson wired Mayor Bemis that there was a possibility of securing the location of the next convention at Omaha, and asked if Omaha would entertain the delegates. Mayor Bemis telegraphed that Omaha would be glad to welcome such an assemblage, and after a hot competition the Omaha delegates succeeded in carrying off the plum. In view of the efforts which local business men had made in connection with the state fair it was at first considered doubtful whether they would be willing to take off their coats and hustle for the convention. But all doubts ment of the meeting that the convention ner befitting the great convention city of the west, and this was carried with a whoop. Sev-eral of the gentlemen present expressed themselves, and a number of plans for entertain ent were suggested. These were left for future consideration, however, and on motion of Mr. Penfold the mayor appointed a commit-tee, consisting of Messrs. Carpenter, Bennett Uit, Rheem, Knox, Hayden, Richardson, Bradley and himself to raise the necessary funds to properly entertain the delegates. At djournment was then taken for one week. The transmississippi congress will bring (Omaha not less than 1,000 delegates, who reresent twenty-four states and territories and the leading commercial interests of their respective states. The convention will last four days and the sessions will be interspersed with rides about the city and other forms o entertainment that are yet to be determined OMAHA TO THE FRONT.

OMAHA, Sept. 25 .- To the Editor of The Bee: The meeting of the executive committee of the Commercial club yesterday developed the fact that the merchants of Omaha were active, alert and ready to push forward the interests of our city. The state fair was a success and would have been a greater success had it not been for the miserable accommodations furnished by the street car people and railroad companies in taking people to and from the grounds. It is to be hoped that next year these things will be remedied. The railroad companies undoubtedly did the best they could under undoubtedly did the best they could under the circumstances, but there was no excuse for the manner in which the Street Railway company handled the crowds. Had it gone to work in season, which it could easily have done, and completed its tracks to the grounds, had sufficient power to run its cars and precured decent cars for peo-ple to ride in, the increased patronage would more than have paid for these extra expenses. nore than have paid for these extra expenses. These matters were all discussed in the executive committee; also the fact that everywhere throughout the state are heard comments on the miserable depot facilities afforded at Omaha and the earnest wish was expressed that the railroad companies would amed ately make some move in the direct of giving Omaha adequate depot facili-it has been demonstrated to the people of Omaha that the Commercial club is power in this community, and now that the state fair and fall festivities are over i will turn its attention to other matters of interest to our city and state and it is to be hoped that the same success will attend its efforts in other directions in the future as

In the past.

The duty of Omaha is plain: Stand by the Commercial club. Let those who are not members become members at once and turn their influence in this direction. Concert of action is all that is needed in Omaha and let our business men raily around an or-ganization that has already done so much for the city and is now in splendid work-ing order and ready and willing to do more.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MAN. Asked for a Release.

Ed Foster and H. L. Barnes applied Tuesday to Judge Baxter for a release under a writ of habeas corpus, alleging in support of their petition that they have been illegally deprived of their liberty. Those who are fond of melo-drama should see "The Cotton King." It will be presented here with the same cast that was seen in Chicago. Yesterday afternoon in Council Bluffs Mr.

William Lackey and Miss Alice Evans were married by Rev. Dr. Phelps. Mr. Lackey is probably beter known by his stage name of Wilton, while Miss Evan's will be remembered in connection with Texas Steer. Their narriage is the culmination of an engagement of some months. Miss Evens met Mr. Lackey Council Bluffs, they went together to the nome of Dr. Phelps, secured his services, and

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

An Absolute Cure for the Worst Cases of Rheumatism.

The Pinin Language of Mr. Osear Pike-The Greatest of All Remedies Accomplishes His Cure After Many Months of Weakness and Suffering -No Tedious Waiting for Improve-

Paine's celery compound is the one known specific for the cure of rheumatism.

And it does not need a tedious trial to prove it.

The effect of this best of remedies is straightway felt. Not aweek goes by before the pains of rheumatism diminish. Thousands of men and women have told of the days and nights of pain and feebleness exchanged in a few weeks for activity and strength.

Paine's celery compound has won the reputation of being the remedy "that makes people well." Its good work extends from Oregon to Maine. In every state in the union there has been piled up in the newspapers and medical journals a tremendous amount of indisputable evidence of the curative power of Paine's celery compound over all forms of nerrous debility and diseases of the blood. It was after nature's plan, by affording nutritle for every part of the body, overhauling the worn out tissues and supplying new brain and nerve material, sending pure blood through the veins, invigorating the whole system and removing he cause of disease.

Mr. Oscar Pike, a well known resident of Princeton, Maine, recently sent the following unsolicited letter to the proprietors of this wonderful remedy:

"Two years ago I was taken sick with what the doctors called grip. I was improving when I took on a violent cold and hill. Then rheumatism set in, first in the joints of my shoulders, then down my hands and arms, then all over. Feet, hands and legs swelled. I could no put my hand to my head; could not throw the clothes off from me; could not dress or undres myself, nor get out of my chair without help. For a year and a half I tried all kinds of medicines and sarsaparillas with little or no re-lief. I was 73 years old. Some one told me to try Paine's celery compound. After I had taken three bottles I found a marked improvement. I have now taken twelve bottles and the result is I eat and sleep well, do my own work and go about as usual, getting in and out of my carriage without help. I have been tempted to put an article in the local paper for the benefit of those that are afflicted as I have been."

Mr. Pike is well known in his locality.

He is the founder and president of the North Washington Agricultural Society and Trotting association. When he goes for his mail, he says, people ask him what he has been doing that he is improving so of late, and he answers as do thousands of others throughout the country—
'Paine's celery compound has made me
