Wheat Made Several Labored Efforts at Higher Prices.

BUYERS, HOWEVER, WERE DISCOURAGED

Corn Was Quiet and Nearly Featureless, the Expectation of a Bearish erop Report Causing Weakness.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.-Wheat made several Inbored efforts at higher prices today, but the expectation of a bearish government rediscouraged buyers, and December closed %c lower. May corn lost %c, May oats closed unchanged, and provisions finished at declines. Wheat was only moderately active, and averaged about he lower than it closed There has been little of importance in the way of news; cables were reported somewhat higher, but in spite of that the feeling here was weaker. The northwest deliveries were again heavy, and there was liberal seiling for the future by northwestern operators against these heavy deliveries, which have to be taken care of. There was also a good deal of short sell-ing by the local bear talent, Rosencranz and Pardridge being prominent in this on about every advance the market made. The expectation of a bearish government report was a prominent factor. At one time the price was fully %c below the close last night, but when the liberal exports from the night, but when the liberal exports from the scabbard became known there was a gradual recovery of $2c, but most of this was soon lost. Business was narrow, as a rule, but there was considerable nervousness, although price changes were within $5c range. December opened at 60%c, fell to from 50%c to 60%, split, up to 60%c, and at noon was 60c bid. A report received during the last hour that thirty boatloads of wheat had been taken for export started prices up, and December wheat went quickly to from 60%c to 60%c, split, but weakened about as rapidly to 60c, where it closed.

weakened about as rapidly to 60c, where it closed.

Corn was quiet and nearly featureless; the weak feeling in wheat, the liberal receipts and the big estimates, with the expectation of a bearish corn crop report this afternoon, made the feeling weak. May sold early from 29c to 28%c, and at noon was 25%c. October sold from 25%c to 28%c. Trade was slow during the closing hour. May finishing at 28%c.

Oats ruled duil, and while inclined to be easy with wheat and owing to big receipts made very little actual decline. May kept at from 20%c to 25%c, split, and from 20%c to 25%c, split and from 20%c to 25%c.

Estimates for tomorrow: Wheat, 250 cars; corn, 590 cars; oats, 360 cars; hogs, 27,000 head. The leading futures ranged as follows:

OMAHA GENERAL MARKET.

Condition of Trade and Quotations on Staple and Fancy Produce. Cold storage eggs have put in an appearance n the market, and as usual are being sold as fresh stock. Those offered on the market so far have come principally from Stoux City, though there are some eggs in storage in this city. The market for fresh eggs is very firm and the price is gradually working its way upward. The placing of cold storage eggs on the market, however, will have a tendency to hold prices

The placing of cold storage eggs on the market, however, will have a tendency to hold prices down.

Foultry is very weak and slow sale, even at the low prices quoted. Every one appears to be loaded up and the demand is small.

The butter market continues firm, and with arrivals of country butter very light.

The receipts of hay are fair and the demand is reasonably good. The market remains steady at prices quoted below. Quotations:

That feeling on apples is firmer, that is on good apples. It is claimed that the growers are refusing to sell at present prices, and that fact is helping to maintain prices. Another reason for the firmer time to the market is the likelihood that the east will be compelled to come west for a good many apples this season. While there are plenty of apples in the east, such as greenings, etc., there is a scarcity of red fruit, which will make a good opening for western Hen Davis and Jonathan apples. It is almost impossible to get any Jonathan apples for this market. The growers who have that variety are holding for 15 per bbl., and in some cases are getting it. Quite a good many apples have gone into cold storage in the west. It is said that the growers in the vicinity of Gienwood have placed over fifty cars in storage and are holding for a big advance. It remains to be seen whether the advance will be forthcoming.

STOCKS AND BONDS.

Security Market Was Somewhat Less Active Than Usual. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The stock market today was somewhat less active than yesterday and the movement of prices was irregular. The professional dealers were responsible for the bulk of transactions. London sold some of the interna-tional stocks, but was not much of a factor in the dealings. The opening was moderately act the dealings. The opening was moderately active, most stecks showing advances. The early trading was marked by strength, and this condition lasted until the end of the first bour. The advances extended to 14 per cent in Union Pacific. Reconsideration of the western annual report appeared to have a favorable effect, as the stock rose I per cent. The grangerrs were helped by reports from the west of efforts to settle the railway rate war, the progress of which, reported by the conferees at the trunk line meeting in this city, caused a hopeful sentiment toward that group.

city, caused a hopeful sentiment toward that group.

The Leather shares were subjected to an effective raid by the bear traders about II o'clock, in which the common yielded 19, per cent and the preferred 2% per cent. Pressure was exerted on the general market, with Chicago Gas and Louisville & Nashville especially objects of professional attention. The stocks mentioned dropped 18, and 1% per cent respectively. In Louisville & Nashville the selling was attended by reports of dissutisfaction over the government cotton crop estimate.

A Nashville the selling was attended by reports of dissatisfaction over the government cotton crop estimate.

Supporting orders checked the downward movement around 1 p. m., and a raily ensued, which carried quotations up from 4 to 14 per cent, the last increase in Colcago Gas. The movement in this stock was regarded as due chiefly to the manipulation of a strong pool, although the various reports purporting to foreshadow the lines of the proposed reorganization had some effect. The improvement was not sustained, however, as a further determined onslaught was made by the bear contingent in the last hour, which resulted in a general slump in prices to the lowest of the day.

In the reactionary movement the grangers, industrials and southwestern shares were conspicuous. The market closed weak at general net losses. The most prominent of these were in Indianapolis. Illinois & Iowa. 24 per cent; Iowa Central preferred, 14 per cent; Builmore & Ohlo and Louisville & Nashville, 15 per cent; Iowa central preferred, 18 per cent; Eather common, 18 per cent.

The anthracite coal stocks as a group were not as responsive as had been expected after the advances in coal prices. Slight gains were recorded in, Union Facific, Denver & Guif and Mexican Central in the early dealings, and were sold down to the improvement in the price of sliver, which always exerts influence upon the earning capacity of those roads and of other increase in coal prices. The last mentioned slock closed at a slight net loss. There was a slight increase in the volume of bond trading today, the sales aggregating 11.79,000.

The temper of speculation was decidedly buillish and the transactions embraced a number of intherto neglected issues. Values of the speculative mortgages suffered somewhat in the late operations, the depressed condition of the share market being the prime cause of the changes. The more important changes are: Advances—8t.

cific consols, trust receipts, 3 per cent; Erie lists, funded, 2% per cent; Erie first consols, 1% per cent; Oregon Improvement consols 86, 2 per cent; Minnesota & St. Louis 1sts, southwestern extension and St. Paul & Northern Pacific lists, 1½ per cent; Cordage 1sts, trust receipts, 1% per cent; Union Pacific, Denver & Quif 1sts, 1½ per cent; Cordage 1sts, trust receipts, 1% per cent; St. Paul & Minnesolis & 1% per cent; St. Paul & Minnesolis & 1% per cent, and Kansas Pacific & Denver division, and Ohio & Mississippi consols sinking fund 7s, 1 per cent. Declines—Kansas & Texas 5s, 1% per cent, and Peorla, Decatur & Evansville 2ds, trust receipts, and Michigan Central consol 5s of 1902, 1 per cent.

cent, and Peoria, Decatur & Evansville 2ds, trust receipts, and Michigan Central consol 3s of 1902, 1 per cent.

Government bonds were dormant, the trading being confined to a sale of $1,000. State securities did not figure in the dealings.

The Evening Post's London financial cable says: The coin and builton in the Bank of England increased this week $1,000.000, though the net exports of gold were only $102,000. The details are: $20,000 to the Cape, $130,000 to Egypt, $12,000 to Argentine, $12,000 to the continent, $13,000 imported from Australia and $81,000 in bars bought. The efflux of gold into circulation is regarded favorably as indicating signs of improved trade. Notwithstanding this other deposits, that is, market balances with the bank increased to over $50,000,000, the highest figure recorded. The increase is due to the disbursements of dividends on the funds last Saturday. The stock markets have been firmer all day, but closed flat. Americans were quite strong at one time, but shared in the general flatness at the close. Union Pacifics were strong. The approach of the settlement and the present situation are prominent factors of the hour on which everything hangs.

The Paris cable says: The market closed dull after firmness. Checks on London unchanged.

From Berlin: The markets were steady today. The New South Wates loan is well applied for, but is not a huge success.

one Evening Fost says. Houses with western nections were the principal sellers of silver tifficates today. They intend to deposit about 600 cunces in the Mercantlle Trust company, in der to obtain the certificates for delivery, nowledge of this fact caused the late reaction. MUCH EXCITEMENT IN COTTON. Receipt of the Official Crop Report

NEW YORK, Oct. 10,-Great excitement preington. The exchange was crowded with brokers when Secretar, Powers read the report, The most sanguine bears were surprised when the official figures 65.1 were read, and the brokers could scarcely wait to hear the remainder of the report, which might have been expected to exert a moderating influence and which stated that the crop had been damaged by drouth, boil worms and shortened by premature opening. The pit became a scene of the wildest excliement and the price immediately broke 18 points under heavy selling pressure from Europe, the south and the local contingent. Trading continued very active during the session. A report that New Orleans was less unfavorably affected helped to check selling here, although local liquidation was extensive. The market reneted some 12 points later on outside buying and news of damage by frost. official figures 65.1 were read, and the broker

Hall County Redistricted. GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special.) The county board of supervisors yesterday omplied with the Burns law and divided the county into the following districts: Dis-trict No. 1, composed of Lake, Prairie Creek, Center and Alda townships; No. 2, Mayfield, South Loup, Cameron and Harrison; No. 3. Wood River and Jackson; No. 4, Doniphan, South Platte and Martin; Nos. 5, 6 and 7, Grand Island city and Washington township. For Grand Island, Supervisors George H. Thummel and E. C. McCashland remained, and for Washington township Henry Reif remained on the board. The supervisors of the townships in the various other districts cast lots to see who should remain. The lucky ones were: For District No. 1, Jacob Lessig; No. 2, Pat Hoye; No. 3, P. W. Francls; No. 4, Seth Wilson. This leaves four republicans and three populists. Populist Rally at Chadron. CHADRON, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special Telegram.)-The populist barbecue and rally held here today was a failure. Even ex-Congress man McKeighan as the star attraction failed to draw a crowd of over 200 outsiders. There were less people in the rink opera house at the speaking than at the late republican county convention. The barbecue was slimly

Although the democratic judicial convention held at this place today was ostensibly called in the interest of the populist can-didate for the judgeship, the delegates falled to do what had been expected of them. The onvention after a short session adjourned without making any nominations, or even some of the democratic-pops present.

Bound Over for Abusing a Child. PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special.) The preliminary hearing of Alonzo Moore, charged with being criminally intimate with the 15-year-old daughter of Fred W. Paiterson of Rock Buff, was held today. The court bound the prisoner over, without bail, for safe keeping, as there were a great many threats made by the friends of the wronged family. family. A suspicious looking crowd from the neighborhood of where the crims was committed gathered to hear the testimony. While nothing was done, the sheriff took the precaution to place the fellow under heavy

KNICHTS TRYING SHAEFFER

Alleged Shortage of the Ex-Recorder Reduced by Investigation.

BOTH SIDES CONTESTING EVERY POINT

Parade in the Afternoon the Feature of the Day's Exercises of the Grand Lodge Session at Grand Island.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special.) The attention of the delegates to the grand lodge, Kuights of Pythias, was occupied all of last night, that part of yesterday afternoon not taken up with sight-seeing and also a part of yesterday morning, by the investigation of ex-Record Keeper Shaeffer, and yet the matter is not near a solution this morning. Each side has its attorney and is presenting and pushing its case. The prosecution is said to come mainly from the Omaha contingent. The latter, it would seem, is making a strong fight, with Bechtel as a leader, as Shaeffer was compelled to return to Lincoln yesterday to bring back some more of the books. The matter was again taken up at 9:30 this morning. At this hour the parade was to have taken place, but a disagreeable confusion ensued. The arrangements committee had engaged the Pacific Hose Company band to appear at 9:30 a. m. The band met at this hour and just as it was about to leave its headquarters for the point at which the parade was forming it was notified that the knights had tired of waiting and having a lot of business on hand, had deand having a lot of business on hand, had de-clared the parade off. The trouble arose over the changing of the hour for the parade to 9 c'clock sharp, and no notice having been given the band. Later the committee of ar-rangements and the knights got together and decided to hold the parade at 1 p. m.

PARADED IN THE AFTERNOON. The parade moved from the Paimer house, headed by the band. The Uniform Rank followed, and were in turn followed by Frank lodge delegates and members of subordinate lodges. At the close of the parade Chancellor Shuman called upon Past Chancellor Goss of Bellevue, the oldest in the state, for re-marks. Mr. Goss complimented the Uniform Rank for its appearance and participation in the parade, and members of the band for their excellent music. Brigadier General Hotchkiss responded on behalf of the Uni-

Members of the grand ledge then went to the hall to continue their work. The in-dividual drill of the Uniform Rank men took place in the street. There were three contestants, all from division No. 1 of Lincoln. They were William Rhode, Sipe and Al Round. The second gentleman was the first to be ruled out. Rhode and Round continued, and many movements were made before either failed. It was clear, however, that Rhode had the best of the contest, and it ended in his favor. A fine gold medal was awarded to Rhode by Brigadier General Decastro. Lincoln obtained the $50 cash prize for the largest represented company here. The Uniform Rank elected F. H. Decastro of Sidney as brigadier general. The Third regiment elected as major McLaughlin. Third regiment elected as major McLaughlin of Kearney. The Fourth regiment pro-moted Major Zingree to lieutenant colonel, postponed the election of majors, and left the same to battallon meetings.

Tonight the grand idoge is still battling with the Shaeffer matter. The investigation is said to have reduced the amount of the aleged shortage. Exeter News Notes. EXETER, Neb., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—G. B. Martindale, living near this place, has a contrivance for getting water out of his well by means of horse power. His children were drawing water Tursday, when his daughter, Maud, got her hand caught on the rope at one of the pulleys, and it was fearfully lacerated and burned by the rope.

The populists met in caucus Wednesday afternoon in W. J. Walte's office, and after a struggle endorsed the entire democratic nominers, with the exception of treasurer, placing George Masters on their ticket. It is rumored that George H. Lee, the democratic The ladies of the Christian church gave here. She was not entirely successful, however, in repairing the breach at this time. The republicans of Exeter township will meet in caucus Saturday for the purpose of electing delegates to the first supervisor district convention, which is called for Saturday afternoon at 2:30. This district consists of Exeter and Liberty townships, and the supervisor fight is going to be the hottest of any in this fail's election in Fillmore county.

Grain Purchasers at Sidney. SIDNEY, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special.) -- The local dealers are making extensive purchases of wheat, rye, oats and barley from the farmers, and most of the small grain has been raised on the high divide, where one must dig from eighty to 200 feet for water. The grain is of excellent quality, free from smut and weeds. Oberfelder Bros.' big elevator is already packed. Most of the grain will be fed to cattle and hogs. Dunlap, who has conducted a coal yard here for the past five years, was married at North Bend this week to Clarence Tarbell, one of the employes at her yard. The newly married couple returned to Fremont yesterday, and are housekeeping at the corner of Tenth and Morrell streets. The wedding was a surprise to her friends. Mrs. Tarbell is a successful business woman, and her busband has been in her employ for some time. Funeral of Mrs. S. G. Miller. HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 10 .- (Special.)-The funeral of Mrs. S. G. Miller will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:39 at the Methodist church under the auspices of the Epworth league, Rev. S. W. Isham officiating. Frank and Will Kinnan, brothers of the deceased, arrived this morning from Chicago.
