OPPOSITION TO REALISM

School of Fiction Without Substantial Public Favor. REALITIES TOO GRIM AND SORDID. Romanticism Preferred by the Multitude, and the Reasons Thereof—Ideals that Stir the Emotions... The evolution of each century is incarnated in a particular form of literature, and the form of our age is the novel.

warmed by enthusiasm, books full of turmoil and ebullition, from which emerge men and women who, by reason of their genuine vitality and vigor, have made their names immortal. And romanticism, which has been told by the eminent authorities, Howells, Boyesen, Zola, Ibsen, and others, is dying of bloodlessness, of starvation, for the storm of the new literature has broken upon so often that they no longer nourish her... Devoting themselves to their realities, these writers have neglected the things which are the most beautiful and the most interesting in life.

POSSIBILITIES OF IRRIGATION

Transforming a Desert Waste into a Fruitful, Populous Region. THE MAGIC OF ARTIFICIAL MOISTURE. Wonders wrought by Irrigation in California—Soil Tickled with Mountain Streams Smiles an Abundance... Some years before the building of the Southern Pacific railroad, writes Kirk Munroe in Harper's Weekly, I was one of an exploring party that struggled across the burning deserts of southern California...

RELIGIOUS.
