

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published Every Morning

Subscription rates: Daily (except Sunday), One Year, $3.00

Business letters should be addressed to The Bee Publishing Company

Advertisement rates: First insertion, 10c per line

Table with 3 columns: Date, Circulation, and Amount. Shows daily circulation figures for various dates.

Turkey has finally yielded, and before Thanksgiving day, too.

The supreme court has again turned down Judge Scott. But that has happened so often that it has become almost monotonous.

Milwaukee is celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of its founding with appropriate commemorative exercises

There is room in Nebraska for all the intelligent and industrious immigrants who come to the United States in a year intending to take up farm life.

Jerome Couler now poses as an innocent lamb. He may be used for a scapegoat to a certain degree, but his culpability cannot for a moment admit of even the semblance of doubt.

And Comptroller Olsen is the man who wanted the legislature to legislate him and his deputies into office for one year longer than he had been elected by the people.

Broatch and Baker, two of the High-binder candidates for office, are stockholders in Cadet Taylor's Bull bank which not many months ago wanted sixty days' time to pay back a deposit of $2.50 to one of the school children.

While about the work of promoting the ends of justice, what about Councilman Cadet Taylor and his $3,000 deposit of city money?

The plan for Armenian reform pressed by the European powers has been accepted by the Turkish government.

The State Board of Transportation has recently been rejuvinated. If the board shall succeed in compelling the railroad centering in Omaha to provide needed depot facilities it will regain public confidence and the people will rise up and call it blessed.

The League of Republican Clubs is discussing the Iowa plan of campaign organization. Only a few months ago the whole country was discussing the Baltimore plan of currency regeneration.

The low price of corn will doubtless be a strong inducement to the owners of Willow Springs distillery to resume operations.

One L. F. Hilton, ex-ol' inspector, who left his office with a shortage of several thousand dollars hanging over him, is trying to explain the cause of the business depression.

The World-Herald now speaks of the "new" shortage in the city treasury. Three days ago, according to this veracious organ, there was no new shortage.

The P. E. O. Sisterhood is notable in at least two particulars. It is the largest order of women extant and its members have succeeded in keeping the secret of the order, i. e., the significance of the initials "P. E. O."

And now we are officially informed that the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has leased to Contractor Breenor "the penitentiary, penitentiary grounds and convict labor."

Political campaigns in Ohio are usually pretty lively, because both parties in that state have good fighters, but the pending campaign has rarely been equalled in earnestness and aggressiveness, particularly on the part of the republicans.

When Cunningham R. Scott finishes explaining all these judicial villainies he will be in position to seek a vindication at the hands of the people of this district.

Political campaigns in Ohio are usually pretty lively, because both parties in that state have good fighters, but the pending campaign has rarely been equalled in earnestness and aggressiveness, particularly on the part of the republicans.

And now we are officially informed that the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has leased to Contractor Breenor "the penitentiary, penitentiary grounds and convict labor."

Political campaigns in Ohio are usually pretty lively, because both parties in that state have good fighters, but the pending campaign has rarely been equalled in earnestness and aggressiveness, particularly on the part of the republicans.

And now we are officially informed that the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has leased to Contractor Breenor "the penitentiary, penitentiary grounds and convict labor."

Interest in the contest is to be returned to the United States senate, is undoubtedly spending money freely, but there is hardly a possibility that he will carry the legislature.

It is highly important that the republicans shall win in Ohio this year and by a strong majority. Their defeat would seriously impair the chances of the party in the general election of next year.

When a wolf don sheep's clothing he always puts on a white collar to impress credulous dupes that he has a holy mission. In that role nobody exceeds Paul Vandervoort except William J. Broatch.

Thomas Swobe is one of the sureties on the bond of ex-Treasurer Hollis. In the eyes of the democratic derelict organ that fact disqualifies him from acting as city treasurer next year.

A stranger within our gates, reading the reports of the case of Mahoney versus Phelps, would conclude that one or the other of them is sure of election. This is not the case, however.

What do Russell, Churchill & Co. care whether or not the men in the penitentiary are in constant danger of bodily harm from defective boilers and machinery and suffering for want of food because of the state board's refusal to approve the warden's requisition for supplies?

The National Spiritualists' convention has been much agitated over the refusal of certain railroads to grant spiritualists a 10 percent discount on freight rates.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Wolves in sheep's clothing. When a wolf don sheep's clothing he always puts on a white collar to impress credulous dupes that he has a holy mission.

Thomas Swobe is one of the sureties on the bond of ex-Treasurer Hollis. In the eyes of the democratic derelict organ that fact disqualifies him from acting as city treasurer next year.

A stranger within our gates, reading the reports of the case of Mahoney versus Phelps, would conclude that one or the other of them is sure of election. This is not the case, however.

What do Russell, Churchill & Co. care whether or not the men in the penitentiary are in constant danger of bodily harm from defective boilers and machinery and suffering for want of food because of the state board's refusal to approve the warden's requisition for supplies?

The National Spiritualists' convention has been much agitated over the refusal of certain railroads to grant spiritualists a 10 percent discount on freight rates.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Have finished the survey. American Engineering Corps Returns from the Alaskan Boundary.

Saw nothing of the English party. Collected Much Valuable Information for the Use of the Boundary Commission in the Settlement of Pending Disputes.

Seattle, Oct. 17.—The coast survey steamer Patterson has returned to port from Alaska with the party taken out in June to make a detailed survey of the southern line of the international boundary from Prince of Wales island to the turning point on the fifty-sixth parallel.

There are possibilities of trouble in the uncertain condition of the boundary between Alaska and British Columbia. When the United States bought the vast tract of country known as Seward's Ice Sheet, in 1867, it was not expected that any diplomatic complications would arise in regard to the possession of any portion of that barren waste.

With this discovery complications have arisen. No sooner did the British government learn that seals were to be had along the Alaskan coast, than, with the usual British cupidity, it began to consider whether some part of that coast might not be turned to the advantage of British commerce.

Colonel Bryce, the saintly editor of the Valley Enterprise and adjutant on Colonel Redfield's staff, is getting himself into a lot of hot water. He is praising the saintliness of Valley's people and by comparison has cast a lot of slime over the people of Millard and Blkmore, where the German population enjoys its lager every day in the week.

Prof. W. H. Allen was not for Broatch for the nomination for mayor. He says he thinks Broatch made a mistake in accepting a place on the ticket this fall.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Have finished the survey. American Engineering Corps Returns from the Alaskan Boundary.

Saw nothing of the English party. Collected Much Valuable Information for the Use of the Boundary Commission in the Settlement of Pending Disputes.

Seattle, Oct. 17.—The coast survey steamer Patterson has returned to port from Alaska with the party taken out in June to make a detailed survey of the southern line of the international boundary from Prince of Wales island to the turning point on the fifty-sixth parallel.

There are possibilities of trouble in the uncertain condition of the boundary between Alaska and British Columbia. When the United States bought the vast tract of country known as Seward's Ice Sheet, in 1867, it was not expected that any diplomatic complications would arise in regard to the possession of any portion of that barren waste.

With this discovery complications have arisen. No sooner did the British government learn that seals were to be had along the Alaskan coast, than, with the usual British cupidity, it began to consider whether some part of that coast might not be turned to the advantage of British commerce.

Colonel Bryce, the saintly editor of the Valley Enterprise and adjutant on Colonel Redfield's staff, is getting himself into a lot of hot water. He is praising the saintliness of Valley's people and by comparison has cast a lot of slime over the people of Millard and Blkmore, where the German population enjoys its lager every day in the week.

Prof. W. H. Allen was not for Broatch for the nomination for mayor. He says he thinks Broatch made a mistake in accepting a place on the ticket this fall.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Have finished the survey. American Engineering Corps Returns from the Alaskan Boundary.

Saw nothing of the English party. Collected Much Valuable Information for the Use of the Boundary Commission in the Settlement of Pending Disputes.

Seattle, Oct. 17.—The coast survey steamer Patterson has returned to port from Alaska with the party taken out in June to make a detailed survey of the southern line of the international boundary from Prince of Wales island to the turning point on the fifty-sixth parallel.

There are possibilities of trouble in the uncertain condition of the boundary between Alaska and British Columbia. When the United States bought the vast tract of country known as Seward's Ice Sheet, in 1867, it was not expected that any diplomatic complications would arise in regard to the possession of any portion of that barren waste.

With this discovery complications have arisen. No sooner did the British government learn that seals were to be had along the Alaskan coast, than, with the usual British cupidity, it began to consider whether some part of that coast might not be turned to the advantage of British commerce.

Colonel Bryce, the saintly editor of the Valley Enterprise and adjutant on Colonel Redfield's staff, is getting himself into a lot of hot water. He is praising the saintliness of Valley's people and by comparison has cast a lot of slime over the people of Millard and Blkmore, where the German population enjoys its lager every day in the week.

Prof. W. H. Allen was not for Broatch for the nomination for mayor. He says he thinks Broatch made a mistake in accepting a place on the ticket this fall.

Chicago Tribune: Senator Taylor's punishment is a sentence of two years in the penitentiary for a crime committed in 1893. It is the most disgraceful punishment of the most lucrative professions.

Chicago Dispatch: If this is the sort of justice that prevails in South Dakota, that state should become the Mecca of thieves, thugs and plunderers of high and low degree.

General Mills, the new head of the United States army, has thrown off the prediction of an interior that the bicycle and the harness vehicle will have much to do in the wars of the future.

Browning, Knib & Co. Tugging Away—Year after year—is work requiring a certain amount of patience, but time rewards all honest endeavor; and faithful persistence finds its prize, here and there, in every corner from high-priced custom garments and from low-priced shoddy.