"I took an appeal from the decision of Mr. Bowler to the secretary of the treasury, claiming two propositions; first, that the commissioner of internal revenue, having Mrs. Waller said turther that she had intwarded Secretary Olney documentary evidence sufficient to completely prove the innocence of Mr. Waller.

Regarding Consul Campbell at Mauritius Mrs. Waller said: "My husband succeeded was consulted and research the secretary of the complete said turther that she had intwarded to the secretary of the country of the secretary of the complete said turther that she had intwarded to the secretary of the complete said turther that she had intwarded to the secretary of the complete said turther that she had intwarded to the secretary of the treasury, the secretary of the treasury of the treasury of the treasury of the secretary of the treasury of the tr of claims because of the act of 1887, which specifically provides that this shall not be done without the consent of the claimant.

I also requested Mr. Carlisle to name a day, and, if possible, after the middle of November, when I and others interested November, when I and others interested might present the questions involved in ar-guments before him. England Said to Be Taking Advice on the Monroe Doctrine. WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Even after the practical confirmation from British sources of the statement that the State department had addressed a strong letter upon the Vene suelan boundary dispute to Ambassador Bayard for delivery to the British foreign office, the officials at the State department refused to make any admission touching the subject. The guarded and evidently inspired comment of the leading British newspapers upon this etter has attracted serious attention among the diplomatic body here, and they see in it a good deal of significance, and possibly a threat of grave complications to follow. The statement that is held to be of partictlar significance is that the British governnent regards the views set forth in Secreary Olney's letter as so important that a seng time must be taken for its consideration. As there is nothing new to Great Brittin, especially in enunciation in a mild form of the Monroe doctrine, it is assumed here that the only purpose of delaying a response which the terms of the letter indicated would be gratefully received, if sent promptly, is to afford to the British government an opportunity to consult some of the other great European powers upon this subject. Most of these powers are concerned in ment regards the views set forth in ject. Most of these powers are concerned in the fortunes of American states, some di-rectly, as France and Spain, through their colonial possessions and others, through heavy investments of their citizens in securi-ties and concessions. The dectrine laid down by Secretary Olney, if carried to its logical conclusion, probably would estop any inter-ference by force on the part of a European power in the affairs of an American republic, and also, as in the case of Venezuela, which may find a parallel in the case of the bound ary dispute between France and Brazil, precent any of these European nations from extending their colonial possessions in this nemisphere. Therefore it is believed by some diplomats here to be within the range of a possibility that Great Britain may have in contemplation a union with some of the wher European powers in a joint refusal to tecept the dectrine laid down by Monroe.

Surgeon General's Report Makes a

Gratifying Showing. WASHINGTON, Oct. 17 .- The annual report of the surgeon general of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, shows a gratifying record as regards the health of the army for the calendar year of 1894, which, taken as a whole, may be said to be the best annual record ever consolidated from returns sent in by United States army medical officers, for, although the death rate is a fraction higher than the lowest rate ever recorded, the other rates are by far lower than they ever before have been in the history of our army. The rate of non-efficient or constant sickeness was only 34.9, contrasting favorably with 40.15 in the previous year and 42.51 as the average of the previous ten years; and the average number of days lost on account of disability by each man was only 12.6 as against 14.7 in 1322. man was only 12.6 as against 14.7 in 1893 and 15.5 in the previous ten years. The prevalence of alcoholism in the army coninues to decline. In 1890 no less seventsen posts had more than 10 per cent of their average strength under medical care for drunkenness, and during the past year only four posts had this precentage. The food furnished the army is reported as ample in quantity, varied in kind and well cooked, and the clothing issued has satisfaction. The metric sysem of weights and measures has bee adopted in place of the old system.
