THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1895.

MINOR MENTION. SALOONS CLOSED FOR A TIME. The Rebekah Relief association will meet the Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. S. A. Sack-ett, 1116 Third avenue.

estified.

ward

ward.

ward.

Bros.

The city veterinary physician was sum-moned to 1323 Broadway yesterday afternoon to sit on the case of a horse supposed to have while a c. naker was minimizing ins locate yesterday afternoon he received a vicious kick from the snimal. The kick took effect in his right leg just above the knee. No bones were broken, but a very painful in-jury was inflicted.

All members of the Butchers' union are All members of the Butchers' union are tranestly requested to attend a special meet-ing, to be held at Liberty hall Wednesday evening, October 30, at 5 o'clock, Business of importance. By order of the president, W.

of importance. By order of the president, W. C. Keeline; Robert Marx, secretary. Charles O'Connor, alias Charles Williams, the Omaha crook, who is accused of playing a confidence game of a Missouri postmaster a week ago, succeeded in having his Omaha friends put up a bond of $300 yesterday in Justice court to secure his release from the bis case by the grand jury. John Willemans a farmer, whose love for his case by the grand jury. John Willemans, a farmer, whose love for the flowing bowl has gotten him into trouble before, wandered into Jim Brooks' barn in the alley south of Vine street, with a jag Monday night, and lay down to sleep. Mr. I Brooks round him enjoying his beauty sleep at 2:30 in the morning and turned him over to the police. Judge McGee assessed a fine of $10.20 yesterday morning. It is almost needless to say that Bill Ker.

after the other inquiring concerning the they would only be allowed to receive one affair, with a grave pretense that they day's fee, no matter how many times they thought the banker was the wounded one. He finally broke up the conspiracy by a box of Farm loans made in western Iowa at low-st rates. No delay in closing loans. Fire and tornado insurance written in best of com-panles. Bargains in real estate. LOUGEE & TOWLE, 235 Pearl St.

Money to loan on improved Iowa farms. Large loans a specialty, L. W. Tulleys, 102 Main street, rooms 2 and 3.

(1) No. 919 Main street is Cold Wave Coming.

If you want a good stove to put up before you start your furnace, buy one of Swaine's afr-fight stoves, the best made, at 740 Broadway Broadway.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Mrs. W. F. Vie Roy has returned from a visit to Chicago. Mrs. J. M. Lane and Mrs. John Danforth gone to Chicago. W. A. Hill of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly a Council Bluffs man, is here on a visit. Victor E. Bender, who has been dangerously ill from typhold malaria, is improv-

Injunctions Granted by Judge Macy for Violation of the Mulet Law. Evidence was heard by Judge Macy yester-When Don Eccles, janitor of the Brown

Judge Macy appointed A. J. Stephenson guardian of Thomas Fox, insane, yesterday. on the filing of a bond of $250. Under the store of the state of the store of th of liquor by dealers who have had screens on the top floor and had saturated quite a before their windows and in other ways portion of the cigar stock of Peregoy &

The janitor says that for the past two nights the building has been open all night No write have as yet been issued, and the salouns are all running as usual. This morning a lot more of the cases will be disposed of. The trial of the question of and boys and men have used it as a roosting place. There is a coal hole leading from Pearl street into the cellar, through which access could also be obtained without trouble making these injunctions permanent will not be had until the next term of court. In and his theory is that some one for mer devilment went in and turned the water on the meantime it is stated that stipulations are being entered into between Shea and some of the saloon keepers, by which they are to pay the costs of the present prosecutions, tear down their screens, take out their free The theory of the tenants, however, is with one accord that the janitor himself left the water turned on when he went home at

The Hardman plano wins many friends.

of the saloon keepers have already signed these stipulations. Shea refuses to say just what the stipulations contain, but will file N. 8

A plant theroughly equipped with the newest machinery, the best work by skilled employes, prompt deliveries and fair treatment are among the things that makes the Eagle "that good laundry." Telephone 157. Rockers, rockers, rockers; 400 styles. Dur-fee Furniture company, 336-338 Broadway.

(3) Fare on the smallest purchase it will may you to go down and see T. B. Hughes' line of underwear, hats, gloves, shoes and Besides working Brown and George S. Davis, Rood went to Omaha Sunday and presented a forged check for $25 at the ticket Huber Bros.' new meat market is the finest n the city, 112 Broadway. office in the Paxion hotel 'n payment for a 1,000 mile ticket. He then came back to Council Bluffs and tried to sell the ticket to BROWN FELL FROM GRACE. Favored Paving Pearl Street for a Time, but Changed His Mind. D. W. Bushnell. The latter was suspicious on account of it being a bran new ticket and When the council met Monday evening it vas decided not to have Pearl street paved money back. this fall, but Mayor Cleaver and the aldermenthis fall, but Mayor Cleaver and the aldermen who favored the paving scheme announced that they would try to have Alderman Brown who favored the paving scheme announced 1ng C. J Colby expects to leave in a few days for Detroit, Mich., where he will make his

Mrs. N. C. Phillips returned vesterday morning from a visit of several weeks in Indiana.

John Sharps of Idaho, a resident of Council committee sent in the names of the men who had been selected from the democratic ranks Buffs twenty-five years ago, is visiting friends in the city. o serve as policemen on election day. The opulists also had a list of names, but it was

I. C. Huff, who a short time ago was dangerously ill, is now improving, and it is thought he will recover.

Harry Schmidt and Miss Lillian Shepard both of this city, are to be married this even ing at the residence of the bride's parents. County Attorney C. G. Saunders goes to Red Oak tonight to deliver a republican Thursday evening he will speak with General Drake at Stuart. C. H. Judson, Mr. Lefferts, W. C. Coker and the Misses Armstrong, Bryant, Palmer, Britton and Swanson bave gone to Des Moines to attend the Christian Endeavor conven-They will make an effort to have the next convention held in this city.

Senator W. B. Allison of Dubuque, Con gressman A. L. Hager of Greenfield, General G. M. Dodge, Congressman G. D. Perkins of Sloux City, O. R. Patrick, superintendent of the Mills county schools, and President W. E. Wentworth of the Republican Traveling Men's formed a dinner party at the Grand hotel yesterday.

This weather suggests warm and e fortable things. Those "Colorado Eider Down" bed comforts at the Council Bluff-Carpet company's and the big line of fur rugs meet these suggestions. They are cheap, durable, beautiful.

(2) Away down town, but if T. B. Hughes can save you more than car Chambers' dancing scademy now open for pupils. Call after 10 a. m. Circulars.

One Way to Pay Rent.

L. E. Cady has a house at the corner Ninth street and Nineteenth avenue which he rents to John Johansen. He went down Monday to collect the rent coming due, which amounted to $10. After a little parley Johansen paid $5, and told him to come back in the morning for the rest. He went, taking with him a receipt for the whole amount, $10. When he arrived at the house and $10. showed the receipt, Johansen told him he could not read and acked Cady to let him have the check, that he might take it into the house and show his wife. Cady gave him the paper, and when Johansen came him the paper, and when Johansen came out again he was without the paper. Cady asked him for it, and Johansen refused to give it up. A spirited debate ensued, but Johansen brought on a crisis by picking up a hammer and trying to hit Cady in the head with it. Cady dodged just in time to receive the blow on the shoulder. He swore out an information in Justice Cook's court, charging Johansen with assault with intent to do great bodily injury.

Burlington Route.

Fail race meeting, Lincoln, Neb., October 8 to November 1. The best horses in the country will be there. One fare for the round O. M. BROWN, Ticket Agent. trip.

Coal Oll is Cheap,

And as it's too soon to start your hard coal fires it's just the thing for heating if you use it in one of the new oil heaters. Largest line in the city at DeVol's.

Have a New Church Building.

Articles of incorporation were filed with the county recorder yesterday by the First Swedish Baptist church, which has been in existence for the past two years. The or-ganization has recently purchased the lot and building of the African Methodist church, at the corner of Avenue D and Sixth street, and will hold its meeting there. The incorpora-tors are: Andrew Norene, Andrew Martin, John Levin and Gustavus Landstorm.

"The Prize Winner" Tonight.

Charles A. Gardner, the well known character actor, will appear at the new Dohany this evening with an excellent company, and will present "The Prize Winner," vays. But the meeting was held, and not ince did Brown stick his nose inside the ways.

Nothing like it. The famous Crown plane with orchestral attachment leads them all. Bourielus Magle House, 116 Stutsman street.

elved and filld, while the democratic lis

The Hardman plano improves with use.

CLAIMS SHE WAS GULLED.

Annie Feency Wants the Property

A civil suit was started in the district court yesterday as the result of the recent street by the heirs of the Dohany estate for nmediately after Feeney had bought in.

m a financial standpoint cannot

The Standard plano next to the Hardman, from selling out.

Broadway.

been realized.

She Traded to Tim Foley

door. The action of the council connot now be reconsidered, and the Pearl street paying consequently goes over until spring. things for cold weather." Chairman Zurmuchlen of the republican esterday noon on the Rock Island passenger as adopted. It was as follows: First ward, First precinct, Henry Altrop train, westbound, just as it pulled into First ward, Second precinct, Charles Norton; Second ward, First precinct, C. A. Rose; Sec-ond ward, Second precinct, John Davis; Thi d Avoca. She had been suffering from consumption and was on her way to Colorado. accompanied by her husband and two chilward, First precinct, Frank Holliday; Third ward; Second precinct, A. J. Larkin; Fourth ward, First precinct, H. C. Stageman; Fourth deen and her nutber. The commenced to sink shortly after leaving Chicago Monday evening. The remains were taken to under-taking rooms upon the arrival of the train here and will be taken back to New York for burial. She lived at 1959 Madison ave-Second precinct, John O'Neill; Fifth First precinct, Bert Kligore; Fifth Second precinct, William Emarine; Sixth ward, First precinct, Isaac Doly; Sixth ward, Second precinct, W. J. Whiting, nue, N. Y.

Clan Stewart's second annual social o Halloween, October 31, will be held in Roya Arcanum parlors. All members and Sco tish friends cordially invited. Nicest line of overcoats in town. Metcall to eat pumpkin pies. There was an interesting literary and musical program, recita-tions being delivered by Cora Hitchcock, Jet Kissell and Annie Corlies, while Laura seizure of the old Dohany barn on Bryant $600 unpaid rent. Annie Feeney, wife of one evening. Then came the refreshments, an of the proprietors, is plaintiff, and she makes Tim Foley and his wife, Mary, defendants, She alleges that August 24 Pat Feeney, her ment being a pie cating contest, in which C A. Morgan, George H. Baker, John Duquette and Frank Hitchcock participated, these busband, acting as agent for her, traded to the defendants lot 15, block 5, and lot 8, in block 8, Pierce's addition, for a half interest gentlemen being selected for their well known prowess in the gastronomic line. A ple was set before each one, and at a signal in the livery stock, while relying on Foley's representations that he had paid $7,100 for the onslaught was made. The first mouth-ful showed that a cruel joke had been played, for fully a bale of cotton had been it, that it was clear of all incumbrances and that a good business was being done with a clear profit of $285 per month. whereas the facts were that he never pale any such sum as $7,100 for the establish appearances, were excellent samples of the ment, it was not paying expenses, and it was encumbered with a landlord's lien for $600 for unpaid rent, which was foreclosed fixed up a cayeene pepper pie especially for Ralph Williams, who failed to appear. Duand the place seized by the city marshal quette made away with his pie first, cotton and all, and was awarded the prize, a huge pie. Time: 0:75. Dancing and cards oc-Mrs. Feeney asks the court to set agide the deeds by which the lots in Pierce's ad-dition were transferred to Foley, and to pie.

issue a writ of injunction to restrain Foley Radiant, Novelty and Elmhurst stoves for made. Sold only by Charles Swaine, 740 day evening. In honor of this, the club's first Benefit for Blind Soldiers. An entertainment was given at the Broad way Methodist church last evening for the benefit of B. S. Dawson and Captain B. W Hight, two old soldiers who during the past two years have been stricken with total blindness. The church was well filled. A selection by the Odd Fellows hand opened the exercises, after which President D. C. Bloomer announced N. P. Dodge as the principal speaker of the evening, his subject being "Recollections of Council Bluffs During the War." His familiarity with the things of which he wrote gave an added charm to the lengthy, but well written paper. The High School quartet sang with much expression "The Vacant Chair," and had to respond to an encore. Rev. G. W. Crofts of Beatrice, who is visiting his many friends here, was the last speaker of the evening.

his origianl poem on the subject, "The Blind Soldier," recalling old times. The affair was very successful, but just how much se just now, as a large number of tickets were sold that were not turned in at the door. The expenses were very small, so that a guardian of Clara Willmaser, his sister. She owns a lot in Morningsids. Last August handsome sum of money is certain to have Nicest line of overcoals in town. Metcalf

