HOWE'S LITTLE GAME STOPPED.

Put in Jail to Answer Charges of Swindling.

Robert C. Howe, a smooth individual, who has been, it is alleged, systematically working various people around Omaha and Council Bluffs for the past two weeks, came to grief last night.

Pollock came to this city from a small town in Iowa on the 10th inst. to look for work. He fell in with Howe at the union depot and was at once attracted by the warm cordiality shown by his new acquaintance.

There was a delay about the arrival of the train, but Howe did not lose sight of Pollock, and he was not long in convincing the latter of his own ability.

We Guarantee Shoes.

Just to jog your memory we'll repeat. That we guarantee shoes—not repeat, but we guarantee every shoe we sell to wear a reasonably long time.

Splendid working shoes, (dress style), $1.25 a pair—wear 'em, and if they ain't just right get a new pair for nothing.

Some rule applies to all qualities from the cheapest to the finest. We like to see all $5.00 shoe people. A $5.00 shoe $3.00 here.

And what a unique collection of that $3.00 shoe! We never in all our acquaintance with shoes saw the equal—point toes, medium toes, wide toes, some with tips, some have none.

The greatest shoe store in the country—this is—did any one ever hear of any shoe dealer who will give a new pair of shoes for old ones? We do it cheerfully. Our shoes are made on a guaranteed. We lose nothing.
