AK-SAR-BEN JUBILEE THE COMING EVENT

Proceeds of the Entertainment to Be Devoted to Sweet Charity's Sake-Movements of Omaha People.

Last week was a very gay and eventful one in society. There were dinners and Hallowe'en parties galore, to say nothing of the numerous receptions, Kensingtons, luncheons and various other modes of entertaining time for namasking came a witch appeared. which took place.

The next week, too, will be quite gay, a fiery kettle, and then the fun began, hobbing luncheon on Monday and the Cinderella dasce, the Mercer-Smith wedding on Wednesday and several receptions on Saturday, besides other entertainmonts throughout the week.

The little French club of debutantes has disbanded until after the Ak Sar Ben jubilee, as the rehearsals interfered.

The Ak Sar Ben jubilee promises to be ong of the most attractive entertainments ever given in Omaha. The brilliant trio of colors which became familiar to Omahins during state fair week will again appear in the deco-rations and costumes and the gay trappings will add not a little to the enjoyment of the

KIRKLAND'S TROUBLES.

Cause of the Recall of Rear Admiral William A. Kirkland.

The recent reprimand of Rear Admiral William A. Kirkland, U. S. N., and his detachment from the command of the European naval station seems to have been the result of a series of actions that met with disfavor at the department in Washington. Upon the election of President Faure of France the admiral wrote him a congratulatory letter, which, in view of his position, Secretary Herbert pronounced bad form. Paxton Blk , Cor. 16th and Farnam.

Subsequently, in a newspaper interview, the admiral reflected on the character of American missionaries in Syria, which excited vigorous protest from religious people and provoked another rebuke. His third offense and that which brought upon him the present trouble, occurred during the exercises incident to the opening of the Baltic canal at Kiel. While waiting for the arrival of the German emperor on board the cruiser the officers of the vessel were drawn up on the bridge. They were all in full dress uniform except the chaplain, who has no such uni-form. When Admiral Kirkland noticed the garh of the chaplain, Rev. H. H. Clark, he ordered Captain Evans, commanding the cruiser, to send the chaplain below. Captain the guest this week of General and Mrs. Evans protested that the chaplain was in the only dress provided by the regulations of the department, and being an officer he had a right to be on the bridge. The admiral then gave a peremptory order to send the chaplain below, which was obeyed. The chaplain com-
