

The Falconer Stock.

Omaha's Greatest Sale!! A marvellous success. We cannot find language full enough to thank you for the royal reception given us on our opening day.

We realize fully that Mr. Falconer's reputation for excellent goods and strict integrity are the main reasons for our enormous rush. We thank our competitors for their unselfish expressions of good will, and wish to express special thanks to J. L. Brandeis & Sons for their hand, some floral offering and kindly sentiment.

We cannot as yet find time to quote prices. Have engaged a large additional force of salesmen, and from now on can promise better service and less friction.

Have not as yet shown one-fourth of our genuine bargains.

KILPATRICK-KOCH DRY GOODS CO.

TO CONVICT GEORGE DAVIS

Trial of the Alleged Train Wrecker Opens at Lincoln.

FRANK HILTON'S UNIQUE PROPOSITION

Ex-State Oil Inspector Asks that the Charges of Crookedness by the Commonwealth Be Made More Specific.

LINCOLN, Nov. 11.—(Special)—The Davis murder trial opened this morning in district court before Judge Holmes. The jury is composed of the following: H. Armann, George J. Fischer, John W. Minick, Charles Wray, J. S. Shaver, J. R. Clark, E. N. Wilson, Pat Murray, Jr., C. E. Yates, B. H. Debord, C. M. Branson and W. B. Mann. Nearly all of them are farmers. County Attorney Woodward made the opening statement for the prosecution, and George W. Adams for the defense.

The prisoner, George Washington Davis, is being tried on the charge of wrecking a Rock Island passenger train on the night of August 9, 1894. Eleven lives were lost in the accident. The first attempt to convict him resulted in a mistrial, it having been shown to the satisfaction of the court that the jurist in charge of the jury had been guilty of irregularities while out with them. Since then quite a number of damage suits have been instituted against the Rock Island road by the administrators of the estates of victims of the accident. Some of them have been withdrawn without prejudice, pending the present trial.

HILTON GROWS BOLD. The attorneys for Frank Hilton, the alleged defaulter of the State Oil Inspector, have made a motion that the state be compelled to make its charges against defendant more specific. In substance, it demands that each item of charge included in the records kept by the ex-oil inspector be set out in the petition filed by the state. In this connection it will be remembered that Hilton for several months after the appointment of State Oil Inspector Edmisten by Governor Holcomb refused to turn over the records of his office, but retained possession of them all through the period in which the case against him was being prepared.

Supintendent Abbott of the State Hospital for the Insane denies point blank that Steward Rawick assailed the employees of the institution for campaign purposes. He admits that he received a letter from the populist state central committee soliciting aid and that he posted it up on the bulletin board in full view of everybody. Nothing, however, was compulsory and the employees contributed just what they could afford and no more.

The Lincoln citizens' committee has authorized Attorney John H. Ames to begin proceedings to enjoin the sale of the north side viaduct bonds. A test case will likely soon be begun in the courts. It is understood that both the city council and mayor are in sympathy with the movement.

SMALL BANKERS QUIT BUSINESS.

Going into Voluntary Liquidation Under the New Statute. LINCOLN, Nov. 11.—(Special)—The State Banking board has authorized the Bank of Wisconsin to proceed under section 35 of the new banking law and close up its business, under bond of $25,000. The Steel City bank, which recently went into voluntary liquidation, has been granted the same privilege. Henry Rice was president and Hercules Rice cashier of the Bank of Wisconsin. The capital stock and surplus were $15,437, with $16,154 deposits. The provision included in section 35 of the new law, under which the Bank of Wisconsin, Steel City bank and Citizens' bank of Omaha have recently closed up their own affairs, reads as follows: Provided, however, that whenever the officers, stockholders or owners of any insolvent bank shall give a good and sufficient bond, running to the state of Nebraska, conditioned upon the full settlement of all the liabilities of such bank, by such officers, stockholders or owners, within a stated time, and such bond shall have been approved by the State Banking board, then the State Banking board shall turn over all the assets of such bank to the officers, stockholders or owners of such bank furnishing said bond.

By the Nebraska Banking board and all the state bank examiners this provision of the law is regarded with great favor. The State bank of Belknap, Lancaster county, has gone into voluntary liquidation. A. H. Parmer is president, Louis M. Thomas cashier, and the capital stock was $10,000.

Omaha Insurance Man Hurt.

LOUP CITY, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram)—Hiram Vandecar of Omaha, a life inurance agent, while endeavoring to get off the Union Pacific passenger while in motion this evening, fell under the train and lost the fingers of his right hand.

Young Sidney Burialer Sentenced.

SIDNEY, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram)—In chambers today Judge William Neville sentenced James Roberts to two years in the penitentiary for robbing the hardware store of A. Pease last month. The defendant had expressed a desire to plead guilty and begin sentence as soon as possible. A strong effort was made to send the young man to the reform school, but he was beyond the age limit for that institution.

Old Settlers' Tea at DeCATUR.

DECATUR, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special)—E. D. Canfield, the oldest resident of this city, gave an old settlers' tea at his home Saturday evening in honor of his guest, Mrs. W. M. Wilbur of Omaha.

Black Diphtheria in Deuel County.

BIG SPRINGS, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special Telegram)—Black diphtheria has become epidemic in the central part of the county, resulting in several deaths. Julesburg, Colo., has quarantined against Deuel county people from the north and the plague has resulted in the indefinite closing of several county schools.

Indian Girl Thrown from a Buggy.

INDIANOLA, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special)—While assisting Miss Vistlan Grossard to alight from a carriage last evening, H. C. Whitmore lost control of the lines and the team ran away. Miss Grossard was thrown from the buggy and badly bruised. The buggy was wrecked.

W. C. T. U. Entertainment.

ORD, Neb., Nov. 11.—(Special)—The Woman's Christian Temperance union gave an entertainment in the court house Friday evening, the principal part of the program being a scene on a railroad train.

Protect Your Children.

Mothers would do well to atomize their children's throat and nasal passages morning and evening with Allen's Hygienic Fluid—a positive preventive of all contagious diseases, such as diphtheria, scarlet and typhoid fevers, small pox, bronchitis, etc. It has a pleasant, aromatic flavor and is perfectly harmless.

William McVeey.

William McVeey, a young boy, was arrested at the instance of F. Swanson of 1728 South Fourteenth street for stealing a dozen brooms from his factory. McVeey will be given a hearing before Judge Berka today.

AMUSEMENTS.

Crescent hall was crowded last night with an audience which included many well known Omaha people, attracted by curiosity or a desire for scientific research in the direction of Miss Anna Eva Fay's singular powers. It is safe to predict that most of those that were there will go again and advise others to go, for the exhibition is one which affords plenty of food for reflection as well as a sufficiency of amusement. Extended comment on what Miss Fay does is deferred until after our view of the performance; not in the hope of doing better then to explain the wherefore of what is presented to the senses, but with the idea of doing fuller justice at least to a description of the strange things accomplished by this slight, blonde woman, who faints in her chair when the display is over. John G. Tipton and St. A. J. Bagshaw set out on stage last night, and tied the "fair mahatma's" hands and feet, or held her tightly, sitting in the cabinet with her; but "the hand played on," and if the two gentlemen could account for the strange manifestations that took place they were not near to do so at least. Grant that these and similar things have been done before, and perhaps exposed, time out of mind; but the writer heretofore was one of many who set down a question on paper—a silly, trivial question in his case—and he verily believes, having seen it. He then went down to the theater and returned in about an hour, having in the meantime forgotten all about his question, which cannot be said to have been upon his mind at any time. Miss Fay not only called his name, but also came straightly near to repeating his question, which had been in his pocket, and not in his head, since he scribbled it heedlessly down. It would be interesting to know how many of the dozens of questions which were read in that way were correctly read, and what proportion of the answers given fitted the questions. In the case cited the result was a surprising one. More chairs will be provided tonight, the management not having anticipated such a rush to the opening performance. After tonight Miss Fay will occupy the Cresington theater for the remainder of the week.

MANY DELEGATES WILL ATTEND.

Large Attendance Anticipated at the Transmississippi Congress. Letters of acceptance have been received from more than 250 of the delegates to the Transmississippi congress, which convenes in this city November 25. Among those who will be present are Judge Torrey, who will argue the good points of his bankruptcy bill, Senator Morgan of Alabama and Congressman Bailey of Texas will discuss the Nicaragua canal. Yesterday a letter was received from Governor W. J. McConnell of Idaho, in which he said that he would do all in his power to have a full delegation from his state, and that he would attend if possible, speaking upon the Monroe doctrine. His letter closed with: "The time has arrived, I think, when we should assert ourselves and put an end to the aggressions of Great Britain on this hemisphere."

CAUGHT A SHOPLIFTER.

She Had Made a Ten Strike at a Douglas Street Store. Detectives arrested a well dressed woman at Fifteenth and Douglas streets last night on the charge of shoplifting.

No coming out of the Kilpatrick-Koch dry goods store one of the officers noticed a woman ahead of him, and on account of the peculiarity of her appearance accosted her. She at first appeared indignant, but when she discovered there was no escape she consented to return to the store. In the office she broke down completely and turned over a bolt of silk, another of velvet, six handkerchiefs and a pair of gloves. At the station she gave the name of Mrs. Anna Post and said she had just arrived from Kansas City. The police, however, think she is a resident of Omaha and an old offender in this line. She was found to be under the influence of liquor, and stubbornly refused to say anything concerning herself or her antecedents.

MOORES FOUND NOT GUILTY.

County Commissioners Decided that the Charges Were Unfounded. Yesterday afternoon the Board of County Commissioners rendered a decision finding Frank E. Moores, clerk of the district court, not guilty of the charges brought against him by Sackett, Winspear and Davis.

The decision is to the effect that Moores was not guilty of neglect of duty, extortion, corruption, or willful malfeasance in office. There was a finding that he was guilty of carelessness in the management of his office, not more so, however, than the other clerks of the district court who had preceded him.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued yesterday: Joe Berber, South Omaha, 22; Emma Nead, South Omaha, 18; Anna G. G. G., Papillon, 21; Michael F. Carey, Omaha, 25; John V. Plympton, Omaha, 46; Elizabeth Remy, Omaha, 44; William Emerson, Waterloo, 26; Miss E. Gould, Omaha, 27.

Caught the Leader.

Frank Brogan, charged with trying to incite a riot at the county court house grounds last Monday night, was before Judge Berka yesterday afternoon. Brogan posed as a

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS

At the meeting of the city council last night E. H. Doud tendered his resignation as city attorney, and it was accepted. The mayor appointed W. C. Lambert to fill the vacancy, and the appointment was confirmed by the council.

Ordinance No. 865, requiring the owners of property on the south side of E street, from the intersection of Twenty-sixth street to the alley between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth streets, to lay a sidewalk, was read for the third time and passed. Property owners will be required to lay six-foot sidewalks within thirty days.

Mosier, Doud and Christie, who were appointed to go over the reports of ex-Police Judge Fowler, reported that the expert employed to check up Judge Fowler's books had made errors in his calculations, because he had not consulted the docket, but had checked up from the jail record. After a thorough investigation of the docket it was reported that Judge Fowler's account with the city balanced.

John Paklik wanted the council to cancel city taxes on $150 he was alleged to have in bank when the assessor came around. He claimed that he did not have that amount of money in the bank at that time. Referred to judicial committee.

K. Marwick and John Owens sent in final estimates for grading district No. 28, $672.30, and $425.10 for grading district No. 29. The estimates were referred to the committee on viaducts, streets and alleys.

City Attorney Doud made the statement that he could settle with Anna Stalsney for $140. She fell on a defective sidewalk and sustained severe injuries. The city was sued for $1,000, but agreed to settle for the amount mentioned above. By a resolution of the council the city attorney was instructed to settle with Miss Stalsney for $140.

Police Judge Christmann reported fines collected for October amounted to $83.

An electric light was ordered placed at Twenty-seventh and N streets and charged to the Union Pacific Railway company. Ryan wanted an electric light placed at the B. & M. crossing, Thirty-sixth and E streets, but the council failed to order it. Chairman Ryan of the committee on finance recommended that the Tribune be paid 64 cents per square for printing ordinances, the total bill being $18; carried. The Drovers' Journal bill for $14, at the same price, was also allowed.

Crosswalks were ordered laid on Q street, from Twentieth to Twenty-fourth street.

The Drovers' Journal sent in a communication stating that if the city clerk was instructed to send all ordinances, etc., to that paper the work would be done for 64 cents per square. The contract for the city printer has never been let, and the Drovers' Journal proposes from now on to charge only 64 cents per square for each insertion, providing it gets all notices, ordinances, etc. A motion by Bulla to lay the communication on the table was carried.

The printing matter stands just where it did a month ago.

Three bids for repairs on the two viaducts were opened and read. The bidders were S. K. Martin, E. S. Beattie and K. A. Forsythe. The contract was awarded to Forsythe. Although Beattie was the lowest bidder by $125, Forsythe is a South Omaha man and agreed that he would buy all material and employ only South Omaha help, and accordingly was awarded the contract, while Beattie is a Blair contractor.

Adjourned until next Monday night, when the proposition for a new city jail will be considered.

Piles of people have piles, but DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them.

Some One Has Said That he who advocates truth must not be afraid of repetition—truth is not so common as to be tiresome—There's a sweetness of tone, a responsiveness to the touch, an enduring goodness about the Kimball Piano that makes it unsurpassed among the world's great pianos. Prices and terms that will make you and the Piano companionable.

A. Hospe, jr.
Music and Art. 1513 Douglas St

These High Art Pictures Are designed to get the attention of the ladies. Today it's the wet weather ladies' shoes we'll mention—those cork filled shoes—light—graceful—those a suggestion of clumsiness. They'll keep the feet dry—no rubbers necessary—no colds—no damp feet. They're in latest fash, square or pointed toes, all sizes, widths AAA to E. Three prices, $2.00, $2.50, $4.00. We commend them to your consideration.

Drexel Shoe Co.
1419 Farnam St.

It'll be an eye opener to those who know something about sideboards—For $7.25 there's a handsome, neat sideboard—others up to the most elegant, massive oak—new big line of these sideboards placed on Monday—the price part is their strong attraction—better see 'em now—buy later if you wish.
Hedcock & Odell,
204 North 16th Street.

"I'se in Town, Honey!"

AUNT JEMIMA'S Pancake Flour

A combination of the great stuffs of life WHEAT, CORN and RICE. A grocer who offers you any other colored package than Red when you ask for the Genuine Aunt Jemima is trying to deceive you, and if he deceives you in this matter he may in your accounts. Remember the Red package.

Beware of counterfeits. HERE'S OUR GUARANTEE. Buy a package of Genuine Aunt Jemima's Self-Raising Pancake Flour, and if you do not find it makes the best cakes you ever ate, return the empty box to your grocer, leave your name and the grocer will refund the money and charge it to us. Specially Prepared and Manufactured only by R. T. Davis Mill Co., St. Joseph, Mo.