

COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL

Barish Features of the Day's News in What Very Numerous.

VISIBLE SUPPLY HAS INCREASED

Export Clearances Were Not Encouraging and Bears Kept Putting in Wheat-Stocks and Bonds.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—The barish features of the day's news concerning wheat were legion, and the price of the article suffered a slight drop in consequence of the close a decided gain for the day.

The wheat market opened at a decline on the familiar reports of big receipts up north, the visible supply near home to have increased 3,000,000 bu., compared with an increase of only 1,100,000 bu. a year ago, and that brings the present total up to 56,000,000 bu., compared with 54,900,000 bu. last year.

The Chicago receipts were 705 cars, against 175 cars a year ago, and the total receipts for the year to date are 1,000,000 cars, against 875 cars on the corresponding day of last year, and the total receipts at the primary western markets are 1,000,000 cars, against 875 cars on the corresponding day of last year.

Export clearances were not encouraging and the bears kept putting in wheat-stocks and bonds. However, every time the price dropped below 77c for December, there was some recovery, and the day, and nothing like a wild market, and the feeding on the many western reports of big receipts, in spite of all efforts to bolster up.

Cats were so dull that the movement was retarded, and the market closed Saturday at 29c, sellers, wound up at 29c.

Previous could scarcely be said to be in the speculative business today. In pork it was a steady market, and the range was 10c to 11c, and the highest figure was 11c at the close. Pork is 2c higher for the day, and is 10c higher than the corresponding day of last year.
