

HAYDEN BROS. HAYDEN BROS.

Suits—Cloaks

Ladies' Waists

$1.25—At this price we put on sale today 1 case of Plaid Wool Waists, lined throughout, never sold before at less than $2.75, which we close at $1.25.

Shawls

Don't buy a Shawl until you see our stock. Double Wool Shawls at $2.95, $4.50, $5.90.

Fur Capes

We have the largest stock of Fur Capes in the west. At $7.95 we will sell a Fur Cape worth $12.50.

Ladies' Skirts

Ladies' heavy cut cheviot lined and stiffened, made to suit at $6.50, lined $12.50.

Ladies' Wrappers

We have just opened 300 dozen of Wrappers, including, Russian stripes, small flowers and broken stripes, all in dark grounds, sizes from 32 to 44; these Wrappers are worth from $1.50 to $2.00, all to be closed out at 98c.

Ladies' Suits

We are selling a ladies' black and navy Box Coat Suit at $8.95. And in a line of Storm Serges and fine mixtures in gray and other dark shades at $12.50.

Ladies' Jackets

Look at his cut, fine beaver, extra heavy, black, navy and brown, sold everywhere at $5.90, our price $3.75.

36 inches long, in black, navy, light brown and tan, are worth from $12.50 to $16.00, good value at $9.90.

Saturday's Grand Suit Sale. Suits Worth $12.00 for $5.00

We ask you will you take a look at 'em before you buy a suit tomorrow.

With Cash in Hand

Our clothing buyer bought $30,000 worth of finest, ready-made men's suits for $15,000. Bought last Monday from the well known firm Hart, Schaffner & Marx, Market and Jackson streets, Chicago, at 50 cents on the dollar.

Men's All Wool Suits for $5.00

In blue, black and brown chevots, dark gray cassimers, melton, and worsted double and single breasted long and medium sack styles—combining extreme durability with style and fit.

$5.00 A SUIT

All Day Tomorrow.

Big Butter Department

We have received another large shipment of Separator Creamery, and notwithstanding the fact that butter is getting much higher you will have another chance to buy fine Separator Creamery For 19 Cents a Pound

Strictly fresh eggs only. 15c

HAYDEN BROS. HEADQUARTERS FOR BEST BUTTER AND EGGS

Special Sale on Working Silks.

We will sell on Saturday all kinds of Richardson's working silks at 10c doz skeins; the regular price is 35c per dozen.

Books for Saturday.

1,000 bound Books, worth from 25c to 70c, your choice Saturday only 10c each.

Ribbon Sale.

The greatest Ribbon sale on record begins Saturday morning at 8:30. No. 2 all silk gros grain Ribbons, No. 2 all silk, satin and gros grain Ribbons.

Saturday Night Sale

For Two Hours Only 7:30 to 9:30 we will sell all silk Vellings at 1c per yard, worth 15c.

Hats and Caps.

ANTHOE DEEP CUT IN PRICES. Men's fur Fedora in brown and black, worth $1.50, $1.25.

Headquarters for High-Class Silks.

Good quality plain China silks, 22-inch wide, yard, 25c.

Hayden Dress Goods Dept. Saturday.

THE HOME OF SERGES. THE only DEPARTMENT in Omaha where you can get every possible WEAVE AND MAKE AND WERE going to make a SPECIAL EFFORT FOR SATURDAY.

Saturday Evening Special.

Another lot of those $1.00 dress patterns. This will be the bargain of patterns. Only one to a customer and none peddlers. Just one hour, 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S HAYDEN'S

KILLED THE WRONG MAN

Reputable Citizen Shot Under the Supposition He Was a Criminal.

CHICAGO DETECTIVES MAKE A FATAL ERROR

While Trying to Arrest a Fugitive from Justice Without a Warrant Officers Shoot a Man Not Suspected of Crime.

VERY SMOOTH MR. PETER BACK.

His Property Assessed to a Railroad and Exceeded Taxation.

Wants to Know of Blossert's Death.

Eugene Lockyer, writing Chief Sigwart from Shawnee, Kan., would like to have an inquiry made into the death of Tobias Blossert, who was killed in this city March 31, 1894.

It Was an Expensive Sleep.

Mr. Schneiderwine, living at Thirteenth and Davenport streets, indulged in a short nap in front of a house at Fifteenth and Davenport streets on the evening of election day.

HIS TURN HAS COME AT LAST.

Harvey McGrew Preparing to Take His Hummer of a Wife.

BOUND TO DECLARE FOR FREE SILVER

President Cleveland's Foreign Policy One that Lacks the Elements of Firmness—Omaha and the Next Convention.

WOES OF ONE WOMAN WHO OPERATED A BOARDING HOUSE.

Bertha Loomis appeared at the police court yesterday and complained that she had been assaulted and beaten out of a boarding house by a party named Moore and his wife, Jenny.

RECEIVER FOR BOLLA'S PROPERTY.

George Rich, administrator of the estate of Johann Ludwig Wendel and Christina Magartha-Wendel, has begun suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage on some property owned by Henry Bolin and his wife.

MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold their next meeting at the Coliseum building, Monday evening, November 25.

VIEW OF SENATOR ALLEN

and I shall exert my influence in that direction. The Waller case will arouse the senate to action. An American citizen who is deprived of his rights and thrown into prison...

WERE CRAZED BY THE FLAMES.

Nine horses burned in a Walnut Hill Livery Barn.

WILL ASK AN EARLY HEARING

Energetic Promise to Secure a Settlement of an Important Controversy.

HER DREAM OF LOVE SOON VANISHED.

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 15.—Miss Marjorie Rhoden, who has caused the arrest of H. P. Burdick at Rochester, N. Y., on a charge of bigamy, is well known in this city, where she resided with her mother and brother.

WHITNEY WANTS THEM STOPPED.

Chief Sigwart, the celebrated individual who went around the world for $5,000, has accepted a limited engagement at the Boston Store. He will sell goods just like any other dry goods man, and he says he will sell more or less money that anybody.

REPUTABLE CITIZEN SHOT UNDER THE SUPPOSITION HE WAS A CRIMINAL.

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—Edward Dix, the private detective agency employee who shot and killed Frank White in a carriage on the West Side last night, was seen at the Central Police station this morning, but said that under orders from his superintendent, Charles McDonald, and the attorney for the agency, he must decline to say no more than that he thought the man shot was Clarence White, a man who has been sought for months under a charge of burglarizing the residence of Norman B. Ream, the well known Board of Trade man. Dix admitted that he may have been mistaken.

VERY SMOOTH MR. PETER BACK.

His Property Assessed to a Railroad and Exceeded Taxation.

WANTS TO KNOW OF BLOSSERT'S DEATH.

Eugene Lockyer, writing Chief Sigwart from Shawnee, Kan., would like to have an inquiry made into the death of Tobias Blossert, who was killed in this city March 31, 1894.

IT WAS AN EXPENSIVE SLEEP.

Mr. Schneiderwine, living at Thirteenth and Davenport streets, indulged in a short nap in front of a house at Fifteenth and Davenport streets on the evening of election day.

HIS TURN HAS COME AT LAST.

Harvey McGrew Preparing to Take His Hummer of a Wife.

BOUND TO DECLARE FOR FREE SILVER

President Cleveland's Foreign Policy One that Lacks the Elements of Firmness—Omaha and the Next Convention.

WOES OF ONE WOMAN WHO OPERATED A BOARDING HOUSE.

Bertha Loomis appeared at the police court yesterday and complained that she had been assaulted and beaten out of a boarding house by a party named Moore and his wife, Jenny.

RECEIVER FOR BOLLA'S PROPERTY.

George Rich, administrator of the estate of Johann Ludwig Wendel and Christina Magartha-Wendel, has begun suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage on some property owned by Henry Bolin and his wife.

MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold their next meeting at the Coliseum building, Monday evening, November 25.

WHITNEY WANTS THEM STOPPED.

Chief Sigwart, the celebrated individual who went around the world for $5,000, has accepted a limited engagement at the Boston Store. He will sell goods just like any other dry goods man, and he says he will sell more or less money that anybody.

WERE CRAZED BY THE FLAMES.

Nine horses burned in a Walnut Hill Livery Barn.

WILL ASK AN EARLY HEARING

Energetic Promise to Secure a Settlement of an Important Controversy.

HER DREAM OF LOVE SOON VANISHED.

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 15.—Miss Marjorie Rhoden, who has caused the arrest of H. P. Burdick at Rochester, N. Y., on a charge of bigamy, is well known in this city, where she resided with her mother and brother.

RECEIVER FOR BOLLA'S PROPERTY.

George Rich, administrator of the estate of Johann Ludwig Wendel and Christina Magartha-Wendel, has begun suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage on some property owned by Henry Bolin and his wife.

MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold their next meeting at the Coliseum building, Monday evening, November 25.

WERE CRAZED BY THE FLAMES.

Nine horses burned in a Walnut Hill Livery Barn.

WILL ASK AN EARLY HEARING

Energetic Promise to Secure a Settlement of an Important Controversy.

HER DREAM OF LOVE SOON VANISHED.

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 15.—Miss Marjorie Rhoden, who has caused the arrest of H. P. Burdick at Rochester, N. Y., on a charge of bigamy, is well known in this city, where she resided with her mother and brother.

RECEIVER FOR BOLLA'S PROPERTY.

George Rich, administrator of the estate of Johann Ludwig Wendel and Christina Magartha-Wendel, has begun suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage on some property owned by Henry Bolin and his wife.

MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold their next meeting at the Coliseum building, Monday evening, November 25.

WERE CRAZED BY THE FLAMES.

Nine horses burned in a Walnut Hill Livery Barn.

WILL ASK AN EARLY HEARING

Energetic Promise to Secure a Settlement of an Important Controversy.

HER DREAM OF LOVE SOON VANISHED.

STOCKTON, Cal., Nov. 15.—Miss Marjorie Rhoden, who has caused the arrest of H. P. Burdick at Rochester, N. Y., on a charge of bigamy, is well known in this city, where she resided with her mother and brother.

RECEIVER FOR BOLLA'S PROPERTY.

George Rich, administrator of the estate of Johann Ludwig Wendel and Christina Magartha-Wendel, has begun suit in the district court to foreclose a mortgage on some property owned by Henry Bolin and his wife.

MEETING OF THE KNIGHTS.

The Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold their next meeting at the Coliseum building, Monday evening, November 25.