PECULIAR CASE AT MALCOM

Bernice Hotchkies Becomes Unconscious and Cannot Be Revived.

Dr. McCandless Denies that Any Hypnotic Influence Was Exerted to Secure the Attendance of the Two Girls.

LINCOLN, Nov. 16 .- (Special.)-From the little town of Malcom, this county, a curious case is reported. Thursday afternoon Bernice Hotchkiss, Burlington agent at that place, was married to Miss Laura M. Hurd. Yesterday morning Hotchkiss arose to make the fire. While applying a match to the wood he fell over in a faint. Since that time he has remained in a comatose condition. Hearing his fall, his wife ran to his assistance, and, as he did not recover consciousness, a physician was summoned. He could do nothing for him. No cause for his peculiar condition has yet been assigned.

Tuesday evening of next week the regular monthly entertainment of the Catholic Union club will be held at its hall in the parcchial school building. The club congratulates itself on having secured a fluent and brilliant

It was direct from South Bend, and left at noon for Crawford and the northwest. Mr. O'Brien had in the car about 5,000 young croppies, black biss, ring perch and German carp for distribution to applicants along the line of the Burlington. They were about equally divided as

NO HYPNOTISM WAS USED. Dr. McCandless, one of the principals of the recent Waverly elopement, is in Lincoln.

I do not want to take the whole blame of this affair, but am willing to accept my share. All of us, girls included, were old enough to know better, and we soon realized the evil of the path we had pursued. One thing, however, I desire to expressly and emphatically deny, and that is in relation to the rumor that hypnotism or mesmerism was employed by me in getting the girls to leave home, I am a practicing physician, and while there may be something in hypnotism, I do not believe in it at all. I am possessed of no measmeric power whatever to my knowledge. The idea that I mesmerized the girls is nonsense. What broke up the party was the fact that the girls were very anxious to get married, and because Vining and I would not consent to any matrimonial alliance the girls concluded to go home. In fact, when I learned that they were so destrous of getting married, I myself advised in the Supreme Court. LINCOLN, Nov. 16 .- (Special.) -- By Darnell & Kirkpatrick, attorneys for Warden Leidigh in the mandamus case against the State Board of Purchase and Supplies, the brief of the plaintiff was filed today in the supreme court. A copy of the same was served on defendants last Tuesday. Governor Holcomb, Land Commissioner Russell, Secretary of State Piper, State Treasurer Bartley and Attorney General Churchill are the members of the defendant board. It has been of the case defendants will not rely allegations in their answer that no proper demand for supplies has been made by plaintiff. Governor Holcomb has at all times been to perform his duties in the premises, and the writ of mandamus is not asked against him. By plaintiff it is claimed that the act of legislature approved February 15. 1887, entitled "An act to regulate the pur-chase of supplies for public institutions and the executive departments of the state " is in force and wholly unrepealed. By the pro-visions of that act it is the duty of defendants to provide the supplies asked for by Warden Leidigh, and to properly feed, clothe and care for all convicts in the penitenlary.

That under the constitution and laws of the state the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has the general supervision and control of the penilentlary, co-extensive with other state incitutions, and that it is not only the right but the duty of said board to hire to contractors upon the best terms possible the day labor of convicts. That the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has no right to lease the penitentiary, grounds or convict labor of the state, and that the pretended contract of lease entered into by the board with A. D. Beemer is an unwarranted as sumption of authority, is contrary to law and public policy, null and void. That the Board of Public Lands and Buildings has no authority to purchase supplies for the penitentiary or any other state insticontract entered into by said board to do indirectly what the law does not allow it to o directly.

That the immediate management and con trol of the penitentiary is under the war-den; that it is his duty to see that convicts are properly clothed, fed and cared for, and t proper sanitary conditions are That the Board of Public Lands and Buildings cannot place the penitentiary under the control of a lessee or superintend ent and relieve the warden of the perform ance of his duties, nor relieve the Board of Purchase and Supplies from the performance of its duties, and that of necessity the warden have, and by statute does have, the right to maintain the suit at bar. Attorney General Churchill has not yet filed the brief of defendants. Attorney Kirkpatrick today filed a motion to advance the case, which will be argued next Tuesday been observable here for many days past, partly owing to atmospheric causes and partly due to the remerkable brilliance of the half disc of the planet Venus in the position she has occupied since about the middle of October. Not only has the light of the planet been sufficiently intense to cast a pure sheet of light through eastern windows, by the illumination of which one might read an ordinary newspaper several might read an ordinary newspaper several hours before sunrise, but she has also been plainly visible to the naked eye, long after midday, to men at work in the fields. Benefit for Mrs. Drexel. A few weeks ago the Omaha Liederkranz elected a new board of officers. The present offices are now filled mostly by the younger members in the society, and their efforts to build up and maintain an organization which would be of credit, not only to themselves, but also to the German-Americans of Omuha have already commenced to bear fruit. At their last regular business meeting, twenty applications for membership were received and at the same meeting it was decided to give a monster concert some-time next February, at which a male choir of at least 100 voices will participate, ac-companied by an orchestra of about thirty instruments. In addition to this, several Albert, the conductor, is now selecting the songs and music, and is preparing to give the music loving public of Omaha a rare

It has a membership of 150, in-cluding the ladies' choir which, by the way, is quite a prospering feature of the society. It is out of debt, and has money in the treasury. Through A. P. Spitko, its president, the society is pegotiating for the erection of a suitable hall and club house. Several owners of buildings that have been with out a tenant for some time, are submitting propositions, agreeing to alter their buildings according to the requirements, and it is presume that the Omaha Liederkranz will, in the near future, be better quartered than any other singing society

KENTUCKY'S DAY TO SHOUT

BLUE GRASS MEN CELEBRATE AT ATLANTA

Governor-Elect Bradley Tells Eloquently of the Erasure of Sectional Lines Between North and South, East and West.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 16.-By reason of the split in the Board of Women Commissioners from Kentucky several sets of Kentucky day exercises were held at the exposition grounds today. The state commissioners made short talks. There was a large crowd | been heard to remark that they would see to present, including members of the Manufacturers' club of Philadelphia, the Cleveland. The address of Hon. W. O. L. Bradley, governor-elect of Kentucky, was, of course, the feature of the occasion. He said: "Kentucky and Louisville give kindly not unmindful of the honor shown us on this day. No two states of the south are more deeply impressed with the fact that great commercial prosperity awaits them, and no two, I trust and believe, will more earnestly and zeaiously labor to accomplish grand

'To give Kentucky the meed of praise to which she is entitled is beyond the power of tongue or pen. Her history is a part of the nation's history. If she had ing more than give to the world Clay and Lincoln she would be immortal. Kentucky and Georgia—indeed the whole south—are awakening to the possibilities of the future. In this section we have not accomplished what might have been accomplished; but the future will prove that we have now a new south; a south devoted to improvements; a south; a south devoted to improvements; south that has brockn its chains, and that stands forth in unfettered manhood.

"While we love the south and are devoted to its interests, we rejoice that sectional lines have been substantially erased and that today we have in reality no south. no north, no east, no west, but one country grand and indivisible, to which every person owes the highest allegiance. Would that your gifted Grady were living that he might one the swift approaching realization which his prophetic words portrayed. His patriotic utterances have not been forgotten, but form part and parcels of the inspiration of this occasion."

After drawing a picture of the the war and the years following, he said: "We pause not to discuss the causes that led to that strife, nor the motives by men were actuated; we know that in this broad land there is not one who does not rejoice that the union was preserved. "We put behind ms forever the bitterness of the past, and shall keep constantly before us the glories which are our common heritage, and the magnificent possibilities of the future. Henceforth there will be no contest between us except as to who can do most

We are the guise of business, collects all the ready money in the community and ships it east and lets local enterprises die for want of support. This is the man the manufacturers propose looking after.

Now that the question is up before the people, it has been proposed that the manufacturers send out committees to call upon all the greeers in the city and try to induce them to sign an agreement that they will use only Nebraska sugar from this time on, until the supply at Grand Island and Norfolk is exhausted. A meeting of the members of the association could be called and if it was thought best committees could be appointed to spend one day each, under the leadership of the secretary, in calling upon the grocers of the city. It is urged that a movement of this kind on the part of the Manufacturers' association would not only benefit the sugar business, but would be a help to all home industries, as it would serve to call the attention of consumers to the importance, of helping to support the manufacturers of the state.

Friday's excursion of jobbers to the Norfolk beet sugar factory may do some good, but a business man remarked that it is work after all and not free rides that wine success. The grocery jobbers who went from Omaha were already handling Nebraska sugar, to some extent, at least, and the only grocery jobber in the city who does not handle it stayed at home. Fremont and Lincoln jobbers are reported to have each ordered a car, after seeing the factory, but a car of sugar is not a drop in the bucket as compared with the output of the factory.

White was shot almost to pieces by the detectives, two bullets having pierced his brain, two went through his chest, and he was shot through the spine from the rear. All the bullets were of large caliber and fired at close range. The men now under arrest comprise the entire force of the Berry agency with the exception of one man named Thompson, and the police are chasing him. Late last night Clarence White, the brother of the murdered man gave himself up to the police. He said that when the shooting occurred his brother was driving him to Forest Home, a station on the Great Western road, where he was to take a train for lows. He said the setectives began firing without a word of warning and that their story of firing by him or his brother was false. Neither of them had a weapon of any kind. His story in all particulars is corroborated by evidence given at the in-quest. Shortly before midnight William Mayo, a well known puglist, was also ar-rested. He has been connected with the Berry agency and admitted that he fired twice into the buggy when White was killed. Eight members of the private detective agency concerned in the killing of Frank White, are now under arrest. The last one, Charles A. Thompson, was brought in this morning. He admitted that he was with the party of operatives when the shooting occurred, but refused to say whether or not he had used his revolver. The inquest will be resumed late this afternoon. The attorney for the Whites asserts that several of the operatives employed on this case are well known criminals, who were given employment by the detective agency because of their acquaintance with the crocks. The lawyers say they will press the case against them.
