From 2 o'clock until 6 there was almost a constant stream of guests, the beauty of whose costumes added to the attractiveness of the scene. Mrs. Francis Murphy and Mrs. W. O. Wirt assisted Mrs. Pheips in receiving. In the dining room, where the refreshments were served, Mrs. S. F. Robinson presided, assisted by Mrs. John N. Baldwin and Mrs. Joel Stewart. The Misses Helen Baldwin, Ella Wirt, Isabel Patterson and Jessie Wallace also looked after the comfort guests in the refreshment room, and Miss Laura Baldwin and Mrs. Judge McGee pre-sided over the destinies of the bowl of ambrosia.

Fully 200 people gathered at the Royal Arcanum hall last evening for the "old-fashioned social" given under the auspices of the Commercial Pilgrims. Good fellowship is one of the universal characteristics of traveling men, and their social gatherings are always pleasant. An attractive program was rendered during the early part of the evening, vocal solos being sung by the Misses Meda Kirkland, Gertrude Warren and Nettie Haworth, and Mrs. J. A. Roff. Raymond Warren and Carrie T. Rohrer recited, Margaret McBride played a violin solo, Miss Zula Lipe a plano solo, Daisy Blinn a banjo solo, and the High School Mandolin club gave a selection. After the program came dancing, which was continued until a little before midnight. A substantial supper was served in the dining room while the dancing was in progress.

Among the pleasant social events of the past week was the unique dancing party given by the "Happy Hen club" on Tuesday vening in the Royal Arcanum hall, in honor Miss Amelia Buchheit of Watertown, Wis. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, during which a substantial repast was served. Those present were: Mr, and Mrs. H. P. Butler, Mr, and Mrs. H. Sperling, Mr, and Mrs. M. The Copeland and Shepard testimonials differ from those so commonly seen because they come from people right here at home, or near home. These physicians know no better way of showing their relia-

Glad the Bill Was Rejected.

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Nov. 16 .- To the Editor of The Bee: I saw in a late issue of your paper a notice of a bill filed by Drs. D. Macrae for $500 for treating Nick O'Brien. The county has a physician to do its work. Mr. O'Brien employed his physician and is sole to pay a reasonable bill. If he had done his duty as an officer of the law the county would have had the men and he would not have been hurt. Simply because a few open hearted men sign the petition of Drs. Macrae does not make it legal. They were not en ployed by the county. A TAXPAYER.

Refused to Deliver the Work. DES MOINES, Nov. 16 .- (Special.)-It develops that the disagreement between the state executive council and the Code Revision commission had a narrow escape from being very serious for the state's interest in the new code. The commission was organized under an act providing for it, and providing also the method of payment for the services of its members. It was specified that they should receive not less than $10 per day for each day's work of not less than six hours. The commission found that to get the work done in time it must work a great deal more than six hours a day. Accordingly the members have been working from eight to ten and even twelve hours a day, and want the state to pay them for the extra time at the same rate as for the first six This the executive council has reiours. fused to do, and the matter may be settled n the courts, unless the legislature conclude to allow them the claim. It is about five onths since the trouble arose, and it is now said that for a time there was a good chance that the commission would refuse to turn its work over to the state unless assured that the pay would be allowed as asked. It is understood that for some weeks the commissioners and state council were at loggerheads to such an extent that the commission threat-ened not to deliver the proofs of the work it has done. The prospect was that the mat-ter would be tied up in this way for an indefinite time. In fact, it is said there was a considerable delay on account of the com-mission holding back its work. But the council would not be buildozed, and finally the commission came down as gracefully as it could and delivered up its work. Had the commission not completed its work in time to be laid before the legislature at the comng session it would have gone over to the ext session, or else have necessitated the calling of an extra session to consider and adopt the revised laws. This would have involved an expenditure of about $100,000.

Several months ago the Ottumwa Courier made an attack on the United States marshals in this district, sccusing them of standing in with certain so-called professional witnesses. The verdict was returned at 12:10 this morning. The penalty, if a fine, is not to exceed $1,000, and ot to exceed three years in the State Memorial Hall Assured.

DES MOINES, Nov. 16 .-- (Special.)-One of the matters which will come before the next legislature is the question of an appropriation for building a state memorial hall for the accommodation of the historic collection and museum. For years the collection has been growing, till it is now altogether too large for the quarters which are devoted to it in the basement of the capitol. In recent years the importance and value of the collection and of the work of gathering it have been more and more ap-preciated as the pioneers of the state, who made the history of its early days, have been
