SANGUILLY'S TRIAL ENDED

All Evidence Submitted and the Matter Taken Under Advisement.

PROSECUTION MAKES OUT A POOR CASE

Cuban Lawyers Admit that Conviction Will Only Result from a Desire to Hold the American Agitator a Prisoner.

(Copyrighted, 1865, by Press Publishing Company.) HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 29 .- (New York World Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-The trial of General Julio Sanguilly, an Amercan citizen, for "aiding and abetting a treasonable conspiracy against the government of Spain," ended today. A decision will be rendered in from five to ten days. a moral certainty that General Sanguilly was engaged in a conspiracy, the prosecution did not establish that fact in the evidence, but that the government is in the annoying position of knowing that Sanguilly will go into the field if he is set at liberty. There is a general expectation that he will be convicted, so as to detain him as a prisoner, and that the case will be carried to Madrid. At the ber of the Gould family, It was said that same time the court is composed of good Mr. and Mrs. Zella Nicolaus-Ruhman will lawyers. Meanwhile General Sanguilly is sure of good treatment.

The explosion of a number of dynamite bombs wrecked a train on the Puerto Principe & Nuevitas railway November 26, It was at a point in a dense forest near Santa Lugareno, six miles from Nuevitas. The locomotive and six cars, five containing cattle, were blown from the track. A pilot engine had passed safely half a mile ahead of the train. The World correspondent heard the report of a pistol, followed by a series of terrific explosions. The engineer, two fire-

Month of the Mine Shaft Blocked by Earth and Darkness Stopped All Effort to Dig Out the Remaining Victims.

CARMED, N. Y., Nov. 29,-An accident, reulting in the loss of thirteen or fourteen lives, occurred at the Tilley-Foster mines a little after I o'clock this afternoon. Foreman Patrick was descending into the pit to take the time of two gangs of laborers, numbering about thirty-five men, who were working at the bottom, when a vast weight of earth and rock slid with the force of an avalanche from the mouth of the pit to the bottom, a distance of 300 feet. The earth crashed over the men with tremendous force. Out of one gang of eleven men only five came out alive, and three of the men employed in another gang were taken out dead. Among those known to be dead are:

MICHAEL GANNON, fireman. PATRICK H. MURTHA, foreman.

JOHN EAGAN, boarding house keeper. THOMAS DENNIS JAMES SMITH An Austrian name unknown received a fracture of the skull and will probably die. The names of the other killed are at present unknown. Several of the workmen were severely injured. The cavein caused the greatest excitement, but gangs of men were con set to work to remove the bodies of those under the mass of earth. Superintendent Tompkins and Foreman Lynch took charge of the work, and up to 5 o'clock five dead bodies had been brought to the surface. Murtha was taken out alive, but he died five minutes after he was taken home.

Darkness prevented the continuance of the work of rescue, and it will not be until be made to clear away the ruins. It is thought all the others in the pit are Italians and Austrians. There was some difficulty experienced in identifying several of the bodies owing to the terrible disfigurement they had WHERE IT HAPPPENED.

The accident occurred at the Tilley-Fos

CABINET KEPT ON THE JUMP

Abdul Hamid Said to Be Furious Over the Latest Developments.

PALACE PARTY IS IN THE ASCENDENCY

Sultan Refuses to Allow Additional Ships to Pass the Dardanelles and England Asked to Recall the One Ordered There.

(Converighted 1995, by the Associated Press.) CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 28. -(Via Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 29.)-The political situation is critical and the crisis may be expected within the ensuing twenty-four hours. The sultan, who is once more thoroughly under the influence of the palace party, led by Izzel Bey, still declines to grant the firmans applied for by the representatives of Great Britain, Russia, Italy and Austria, for the passage of extra guardships through the straits of Dardanelles. This is the more extraordinary, as on Tuesday last Tewfik Pasha, the Turkish minister for foreign affairs, personally assured Sir Philip Curric that the porte had determined to grant immediately the permission requested. It would thus seem that while the Turkish ministers are apparently in favor of granting the firmans, the palace party, priests, chamberlains and others who are the real advisers of Abdul Hamid, are opposed to it as calculated to lower the dignity of the sultan. In the meantime the Mussulmans are growing uneasy, looking upon the threatened advent of the extra guardships as nothing less than a warlike demonstration before Constantinople is a dangerous feature of the affair nd is adding to the anxiety felt on all sides. In spite of the threatened storm, however, the sultan persisted in his refusal to issue the firmans, and has again made an evasive reply to the British ambassador's representations on the subject. But Sir Philip Currie, when assured by Tewfik Pasha that the firmans would be forthcoming, promptly telegraphed to the admiral in command of the British Mediterranean squadron instructing him to dispatch a gunboat to the Dardanelles to be used in the Bosphorus as an extra guardship at the disposal of the British embassy. As a result the twin-serew tor-pedo gunboat Dryad, 1,070 tons, carrying two 4.7 inch and four 6-pounder quick-firing guns, was dispatched to the Dardanelles and it is expected to arrive at Chanakkal today and pass right on to the Bosphorus.

SITUATION IS CRITICAL.

The failure of the porte to grant per-mission for the passage of the straits of Dardanelles, thus puts Sir Philip Currie in a somewhat embarrassing position, the only escape from which is to order away the Dryad, or to insist that she be allowed to pass.

The gultan is known to be in a state of the greatest agitation at the news that the extra British gunboat is headed for the Dardanelies on the strength of the assurances given the British ambaseador by the minister for for eign affairs, and consequently the position of Tewfik Pasha is not a pleasant one. The latter was sent for at midnight, and an exciting interview took place between him and the sultan, during which the latter bitterly and tearfully reproach d Tewfik Pasha for his action in the matter.

SULTAN IN A RAGE. The pashs tried to justify himself by re-calling that the granting of the firmans had been exceed to in substance by the sultan, and that he, as in duty bound, so informed Sir Philip Currie, when the latter sent an urgent message asking for a prompt reply to several communications on the subject several communications on the subject The sultan insisted that it was impossible to ssue the firmans, as it would cause rioting in Constantinople, and that the powers should be content with the measures taken by the government to maintain order and not ham-per the authorities by making a demonstration likely to undo all the good he was en-deavoring to do.

The sultan then instructed Tewfik Pasha to do everything possible to induce the British ambassador to countermand his order for the gunboat. Sir Philip, however, refused to do so, eaying that he was tired of being trifled with, and reminding his visitor that Great British was acting fairly within her treaty rights and mon the assurance her treaty rights and upon the assurance of a responsible note of the Turkish govern-ment that the porte had determined to grant permission for the gunboats to pass the Dardanelles. Tewfik Pasha returned to the palace in a very unenvishle frame of mind and announced the failure of his mission to the sultan. The latter is said to have been frantic with rage and drove Tewfik from his presence with flerce ravilings. SAID PASHA CALLED IN. The president of the state council, Said Pasha, who is supposed to have some influcace of Sir Philip Currie, was thereupon nurriedly sent for, and reached the apart-ments of the sultan after 1:30 a. m. Abdul Hamid eagerly besought him to go imme-diately to the British ambassador and spare no effort to induce him to order the recall of the Dryad. The entreaties of Said Pasha seem to have had weight with the ambas-sador, for Sir Philip finally consented to place the whole matter at that late hour once more before his government and to await further instructions, although he is under-stood to have carte blanche as to what steps he thinks it necessary to take.

The British ambassador is awaiting a reply from London. The Turkish officials believing the marquis of Salisbury acting upon the understanding that nothing is to be done to hirder the efforts of the sultan in the work of maintaining order, may instruct Sir Philip to direct the commander of the Dryad not to driven by a Mr. Washburn of 2011 Clark to direct the commander of the Dryad not to street. The escape of the occupant of the carriage was a carrow one. When the car struck the carriage Washburn was thrown up against the from platform, where he was firmly held by Motorman Holler until the car could be stopped. The horse was separated from the vehicle, but was captured before it had gone far. Washburn came out of the collision with only a few slight bruises about the head. The train was in charge of Conductor J. S. Taylor who says that the bell was rung repeatedly before the accident occurred.

I direct the commander of the Dryad not to enter the Dardanelles at present, Abdul ent induce the sultan to really govern his empire with some degree of common sense.

The little news received here from Asiatic salesman in a dry goods store at Elitorado.
Kan., was shot tonight and probably fatally injured by John S. Burgher, bartender in a saloon at Twelfth and Main streets. Thomas had been making a circuit of the saloons in that vicinity, and was drunk and quarrelsome. After he had threatened to shoot Burgher and had four ished a revolver and had been disarmed, he came back into the saloon a second time, and put his hand back to his hip pocket in a threatening manner, whereupon the barkeeper shot him Burgher is in jail.

Turkey only tends to make the situation look blacker. The hurrying of trops to Syria and Palestine continues and there is no doubt that the rebellious Druzs will have to submit to a heavy reckning with the Turks for their uprising. The flames of a holy war, always smouldering among the Mussulmans, are being dargerously fanned and may at any time burst forth into a conflagration which will compel all Europe to take a hand in saving the lives and property of many thousands of Christians. A stray shot, a sharp blow, may explode the powder. sends of Christians. A stray shot, a sharp blow, may explode the powder magazine with which Abdul Hamid has been toying so long.

DANGER IS NOT OVER. The unyielding attitude of the sultan on the question of the extra guardiships is much commented on by the members of the diplo-matic corps here and especially as the powers are asking only for the rights to which they are entitled under the treaties with Turkey. They hold that an increase in the number of guardships is absolutely indispensable, as the danger to foreigners has not by any means passed, as the Turkish government would try to make the powers believe. It is be-lieved that steps have been taken to give protection to foreigners, but the constant re-ceipt of dispatches telling of fresh massacres among the Mussulmans, who are naturally is being aroused by reports stealthily circulated probably at the instance of the palace advisers of the sultan, that the powers are desirous of making a naval demonstration in these waters and so insult the sultan by ignoring his authority and seeming to look with contempt upon his attempts to maintain order.

It will be thus seen that the Musculmans
