

Pulse of Western Progress.

One of those rare occurrences, finding a "lost mine," has recently taken place about one mile north of the west end of Mosca Pass, in the Sangre de Cristo range, says an Alamosa special to the Denver News.

In the spring of 1882 Ole Johnson, a Swedish prospector, located a claim upon a vein about one inch in width from which he received returns from assays ranging from $50 to $400 to the ton.

A TEXAS BOUNDARY DISPUTE. Considerable excitement exists among residents in the southern portion of this state, says an El Paso Texan, over a rumor that the Rio Grande was no longer to be the dividing line between this country and Mexico.

HIDDEN BLACK HILLS TREASURES. There has long been a tradition on the plains west of the river that under the hills, in the mining camps of the Black Hills region, that somewhere in the isolated and practically uninhabited Grand river country north of the river, there is a gold bearing region where the precious metal in the form of nuggets may be picked up on the surface of the water-washed coulees.

It is said that there are a few Indians on the Sioux reservation who know the spot, and who have heretofore kept the secret with them as Masonic closeness, but it is gradually leaking out and will before another season pass be disclosed.

received little encouragement, they simply saying that in the dead hours of the night the spirits of their dead friends and relatives had taken part in their council and bade them return.

WYOMING GAME. "Elks are the hardest animals on the continent," said Colonel William Root of Laramie to a Denver News representative the other day.

WYOMING'S QUARTZ VEIN. A special from Victoria says that Vancouver, the terminus of the Canadian Pacific, has come to the front as a rich gold field.

MEXICAN OUTRAGE. News has been received at Deming, N. M., of the arrest and imprisonment, by the local authorities, of a certain Mexican.

GIGANTIC INDIAN GRAVE. Captain Dave Nunna, the big chief of the Piute, visited Reno the other day, says the Reno, Nev. Journal.

THE DAKOTAS. The postmaster of South Dakota at Fort Totten is to be removed from Yankton to Sioux Falls.

NEBRASKA. The Morse Bluffs Standard has suspended publication.

NEBRASKA. A woman evangelist named Phillips is holding successful revival meetings at Hoopoe, near Kearney.

IOWA. Grinnell has completed a sewer nine and a half miles in length.

OREGON. Five hundred and thirty men are now employed at the Cascade dam project.

WASHINGTON. A good deal of hay is being held in the Yakima country for $5 a ton.

WASHINGTON. An indication of nervous derangement that is observed commonly.

WASHINGTON. A report from the Springs says that a nice streak of ore has been encountered in the Paton, on Virginia canyon.

WASHINGTON. At the Kate Knibb, Clear Creek county, the old level is being driven into the hill on a good gold-bearing quartz streak.

WASHINGTON. The excitement is still increasing along West Creek, and locations are being made in other districts.

WASHINGTON. The excitement is still increasing along West Creek, and locations are being made in other districts.

WASHINGTON. A good deal of hay is being held in the Yakima country for $5 a ton.

WASHINGTON. An indication of nervous derangement that is observed commonly.

WASHINGTON. A report from the Springs says that a nice streak of ore has been encountered in the Paton, on Virginia canyon.

WASHINGTON. At the Kate Knibb, Clear Creek county, the old level is being driven into the hill on a good gold-bearing quartz streak.

WASHINGTON. The excitement is still increasing along West Creek, and locations are being made in other districts.

WASHINGTON. The excitement is still increasing along West Creek, and locations are being made in other districts.

WASHINGTON. A good deal of hay is being held in the Yakima country for $5 a ton.

WASHINGTON. An indication of nervous derangement that is observed commonly.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH.

It has never been found, but it is supposed to be in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

It was once thought that a fountain existed somewhere in the world and that all who drank of it would be endowed with perpetual youth.

LITTLE GIFTS FOR LITTLE ONES. It doesn't take much of an investment, but it's lots of bother if you don't know just what to buy.

THE MURRAY. Omaha's Leading Hotel. First-Class and Modern. Special Rates for the Month for the Winter.

Mandelberg, G. E. Shukert, A. Hospe, Jr., Drexel Shoe Co., JEWELER, N. E. Cor. 16th & Farnam, Furrier, 15th and Harso, Music and Art, 1613 Douglas St., 1419 Farnam Street.