

RELIEVED FOR THE SEASON

Hunts that Felt Their Whirler Abandoned by the Wheelers.

BUT INTEREST HOLDS THE OLD PAGE

Old and New Models, Puts and No-tions, Breaks and Creaks and Other Wheel Gossip-Local Happenings.

The '96 models of high grade wheels nearly demonstrate that inventive skill was largely exhausted in the '95 model was turned out. The only differences between the two models is the larger tubing of the new model and a slight increase in weight.

In tires, saddles and brakes the greatest variety of ideas are shown, and among them rare instances must be excused for chomping. Hundreds of persons who never sat on a cycle saddle have worked out fancies in a belief that they appreciated all requirements, and the result in most instances is some monstrosity.

To ride without any mechanical means of braking face and to control the cycle wholly with the hands is a feat which is down hill, is perhaps the most sportslike way of doing, says the New York Times.

Another wheel "Marvel." Chicago cyclists are greatly interested in the new wheel, a peculiar contrivance, which it is claimed will revolutionize the cycling game.

Whisperings of the Wheel. Are you going to the Chicago show? This is a question frequently asked among the dealers of prominence, along with many enthusiastic wheelmen of Omaha.

has further utilized his wind tube. The current of air strikes the flaps with it to the back of the man, whence the air escapes by means of a tube, which is bent forward and downward, remaining fast to front of the tire of the driving wheel, close to the ground.

Jack Hines and the "hoodoo." "That fellow is certainly a 'hoodoo,' if there ever was such a thing," said Jack Hines, one evening last week, in referring to a certain well known wheelman, who for the time being was in town.

WHAT BECOMES OF OLD WHEELS. Have you ever wondered what has become of the thousands of old tires which were in such universal use before pneumatic revolutionized things?

Implicity. It's not "marvellous," "stupendous" nor "wonderful."

It's a simple cutting off of the biggest end of a price on every thread of clothing and furnishings in the Equity's big store.

There's nothing so simple and easy as price cutting—but it takes nerve—it costs money—and that's why there has never been such price cutting in Omaha as has been done at this Closing Out Sale.

There was to be no feeling of jockeying who would very soon see that Pix was out of his class. New, I am not proud to think of them and have no hard feelings, but would like to see Mockett done justice, and you will please correct the mistake you have made.

fit them up properly, and unless fifty or sixty members can be found who would be in favor of paying at least $2 per month toward the expense it would be useless to take further steps in the matter.

WYOMING AVALANCHES. The Swiss Variety Are Not in Their Chances for Convenience. "I see they have had a terrible avalanche in Switzerland," said the man with the valley.

Perfect Manhood, TO A RIPE OLD AGE. Health, Strength and Vigor. The sins of youthful ignorance, the dissipation, the weakness that proves a barrier to progress—these are the things that are daily plunging thousands of men into the abyss of old age.
