

COUNSELS OF PEACE

English Member of Parliament Talks on the Venezuelan Imbroglio.

PRESSURE FROM COMMERCIAL BODIES

Could Make Their Influence Felt in Both Countries—Suggests a Recourse to Arbitration—Some Things Worse Than War.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—Sir A. K. Rollitt, the conservative member of Parliament for the south division of Iainington, and president of the London and Hull Associated Chamber of Commerce, granted an exclusive interview to a representative of the Associated Press on the outlook for a settlement of the Venezuelan difficulty, and especially on its financial side. After remarking that it was a delicate and critical position, Sir Albert said: "It is deeply to be regretted that the incident has impelled both the good will, and trade and even peace and commerce must in any case be most seriously interrupted and injured just at the time when prospects were improving and business men were justly hoping for better times. He did not question the American attachment to the Monroe doctrine and the sentiment of the American people, but he added, it was only an expatrie dictum, and had never been embodied in international law. The feeling which inspired it, however, he thought, was not the same as the feeling which inspired the Monroe doctrine. Great Britain could not justly be said to be seeking an extension of territory in seeking a delimitation of the frontier. In this respect, the sentiment of the American people is not the same as the sentiment of the American people. He believed to be her just rights by a state treaty indebted to her for the development of her public works.

It was for Englandmen to follow the example of many in attributing the action of the president merely to party and personal motives. But he felt confident that the American people would realize that the course of President Cleveland and Secretary Olney was impulsive and impetuous, and had not been embraced even by the most ardent of his supporters. He realized that the course of President Cleveland and Secretary Olney was impulsive and impetuous, and had not been embraced even by the most ardent of his supporters. He realized that the course of President Cleveland and Secretary Olney was impulsive and impetuous, and had not been embraced even by the most ardent of his supporters.

FINANCIAL BODIES INTERESTED.

It had singularly happened that the London Chamber of Commerce had shown that spirit before the question became acute in 1891. Senor de Goda, president of the Venezuelan congress, had been received by the chamber and as a result of a friendly conference, the council of the chamber informed him that if Venezuela made satisfactory overtures for a settlement, the chamber would back a suggestion to the British government to take the question to Senor de Goda's expressed his satisfaction and thank, but when later, in response to the Chamber of Commerce, London chamber, he promptly settlement of the question. It learned no such overtures had been made to Great Britain.

Again in 1892, when Sir A. K. Rollitt and the council of the chamber had been asked to meet the Venezuelan minister, they readily assented to the date named for the meeting, but the minister was unable to attend. The association chamber had been operated with the London chamber in each a crisis and he concurred with them in thinking that the international arbitration ought to depend entirely on the question of the United States anything honorable and not an indignity was preferable to war between kindred nations. But Americans must remember that the Great Britain's war doctrine and feelings, and in the last resort even war might be preferred to peace. Either nation, however, could not force for right, rather than right to force.

CANADA BADLY FRIGHTENED.

The Times this morning prints a whole page of telegraphic dispatches on the subject of Venezuela. A dispatch from Ottawa says that the Canadian government is in the thorough equipment of the Canadian forces. The country will not be satisfied till all are armed with Lee-Scott rifles. It is gratifying to note the facts that Canada have drawn closer than ever to England. Everywhere where the firm determination is proposed to hold by the old flag, come what may.

VIENNA DISPATCH SAID.

"President Cleveland is in no small measure responsible for the ruin of hundreds of capitalists in Austria. The Turkish and Abyssinian troubles had shaken the Vienna market, but the Paris foundation, but the New York gave it its coup de grace, from which it will take months to recover. In Saturday's panic the Austrian Credit Mobilier fell 19 florins, the Hungarian Credit Mobilier 26, and the Vienna market fell 20 from Friday's price. It is impossible to estimate, even roughly, the consequence of the panic."

The Berlin dispatch says: "The tidal wave of financial panic has rolled across the Atlantic for the past two days, has not spared the Berlin bourse, which was in a state of feverish excitement on Saturday, and is now settling down to a more normal condition. The Bourse Currier merely reflects the temper of financial circles here when it describes President Cleveland as speculating by his own action in the market, and that he is a national feeling. It is argued that a country, which, on the first appearance of a war cloud, suffers losses, according to an estimate from Paris, equal to the whole of the war indemnity which France paid Germany, is not in a position to wage war, especially on such a trumpety note. There is little inclination here to take sides in an American war, but Paris can scarcely meet the requirements of its old clients in Turkey and Spain. The want of money, it is true, never yet prevented a country from fighting a war, but it does the decision rest so largely as in America, with the class whose pecuniary interest are so largely at stake. On the other hand, fears of depression and there are many business men who still retain the enormous fortunes made in America during the civil war."

RUSSIA IS SATISFIED.

The dispatch from St. Petersburg says: "It is easy to see that the Russians cannot be changing satisfaction at a serious time, the dispute has taken. The Novosibirsk is in no pains to hide its real sentiments, and animus towards England. It declares that Lord Salisbury has already changed his policy by means of proposing a treaty, and further support to the Armenian situation, on the ground that Europe does not sympathize with Armenia."

Spain Urges an English Alliance.

MADRID, Dec. 22.—Public opinion here is so strongly in favor of England in the Venezuelan controversy that suggestions are advanced for an alliance between England and Spain in the event of President Cleveland's action involving hostilities. The Imperial viceroy upon the government the necessity of friendship with England in order to counteract the Monroe doctrine.

shot His Wife's Paramour.

CHESTER, Pa., Dec. 22.—James Cook shot and killed Marshall Jones today in Chester. Cook was returning home and was shot by Jones, who was with him.

REPORTS OF SPANISH VICTORIES.

Artillery Fire Proves Effective Against the Insurgents.

HAVANA, Dec. 22.—Official advices from Colon of the engagements with the insurgents which were reported as taking place near there, as far as received here, convey the impression that they were not of importance, and that the insurgents got the worst of them. General Navarro, who was reported as leaving Colon for the relief of the Spanish forces, encountered the insurgents at the plantation of Espana, where his coming served to rescue the detachment of militia. He followed the insurgents upon their retreat and overtook them at the plantation Alava, the camp field of which was burning. Here a fierce fight occurred and the insurgents were dispersed with heavy loss. The number of officers killed was seven, and General Navarro again went in pursuit, and at Banaguas the insurgents attacked him with great impetuosity. The troops were killed and General Prati made a forced march to cut off the retreat of the insurgents.

The Diermen battalion under General Alcala, with the artillery, and a force of 4,000 insurgents, the action occurred near the river Colon and lasted for two hours. The positions controlled by the five killed and wounded. The insurgents fighting with machetes. The attack of the troops was made with the bayonet, shouting "Viva Espana," as they charged upon the insurgents, who were driven back and swept the insurgents' position, proved effective and the insurgents fled before the advance of the troops. The insurgents left behind a number of prisoners on the field and seventy wounded.

The official reports from the front say the forces now invading Matanzas numbers 9,000 men, with the artillery, and a force of 4,000 troops is stated to be insignificant. The camp fields at Aguaita are burning.

COLOMBIANS ALSO CELEBRATING.

PARAGUAY, Dec. 22.—The streets all night (Copyright, 1895, by Press Publishing Company.) COLON, Colombia, Dec. 22.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The American consulate was visited last night by a procession of enthusiastic citizens carrying the stars and stripes with the flag of Colombia on either side, and firing crackers. The procession started at 8 o'clock and entered the American flag. Then the march through the street was resumed and kept up until morning. Throughout the parade there were frequent shouts of "Viva Cleveland," "Viva the United States."

FLOODS WERE UNPRECEDENTED.

MISSOURI STRONG NOT YET DOWN BELOW THE DANGER LINE. ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.—The Mississippi is still on a rampage, having risen twenty-three and two-tenths feet since Thursday evening when the gauge indicated two and one-tenths. This is a rise of five feet for twelve hours ending at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The sudden rise almost depopulated Little Oklahoma, the squatter settlement at the foot of Dreestrian street. No business was transacted on the levee today.

Reports from the front show the state coming nearer in showing the damaging effects of the general rainfall of the past few days. Bagnell and Tusculuma, Mo., have been flooded by the river, and the country wagon bridge and the splendid iron bridge of the Memphis route have been swept away and both railway and telegraph communication cut. The water level at a point five miles south of here, while at Osceola the depth of the road is standing in twenty feet of water.

SIXTEEN OF THE VICTIMS BURNED.

Work of Rescuing the Remains. CHATTANOOGA, Dec. 22.—Sixteen mangled corpses, victims of Friday's mine disaster, of husbands, fathers, brothers and kinsmen, were today carried to their final resting places in the little cemetery adjoining the town. Brief religious ceremonies were held at each of the stricken homes last night, and the bodies were buried. The work of rescuing the six men whose bodies are still buried beneath the debris of the track from Liberty to St. Louis, was not completed until 2 o'clock the last night by the accumulation of gas in the earth where they lie. The large new fan recently purchased by the company was put to work, and the gas was blown out. To-day, so the rescuers are still unable to get into the mine. At 4:30 this afternoon the fans began their work and the air at the rate of about 100 feet per minute has been in since that time. It is expected the rescuers will be able to resume work tonight. The company has decided that hereafter open lamps will not be allowed, and all blasts will be made by a fire hose, who will be assigned to the men, who will work under the supervision of the company.

License Law Declared Invalid.

BUTTE, Mont., Dec. 21.—Judge Spald in the district court today, decided the entire license law, the means of producing revenue for the legislature, and fixed the amount of license for the counties to collect. Chinese landowners contested the validity of the law, and the court decided in their favor. An appeal will be taken to the supreme court, and if that body holds to the law, the license law will be in force.

Tea and Coffee House Burned.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 22.—A fire broke out in the building, 214 and 216 Walnut street, occupied by W. W. Thomas & Co., wholesale dealers in teas, coffees, spices and bakeware, burning tonight. The Standard Oil company owned the building. The loss is only $10,000, fully insured. Thomas & Co. lost $10,000, and the Standard Oil company about the one burned and narrowly escaped. The fire was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe, and the fire was extinguished by the fire department. The building was a three-story building, and the fire was caused by a gas leak from a gas pipe, and the fire was extinguished by the fire department.

MINISTERS DEPRECATE WAR

Poor Christmas Spectacle for Christian Nations to Present.

PARKHURST LAYS IT TO NEWSPAPERS

Thinks the Anglo-Saxon Had Better Turn His Attention to Relieving the Condition of the Suffering Armenians.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Ministers in nearly all of the churches in this city made reference in their sermons today to the Venezuelan boundary dispute and the possibility of war between the United States and England. Dr. Parkhurst, in the course of his sermon, said: "It almost seems as though there were a providence in the way in which these Christians are celebrating the year with events that are just now filling our hearts with disturbance, and throwing an uncomfortable shadow across the track on the near future. Now, we do not care to beat about the bush in this matter, but prefer to go straight to the mark by saying that if Christendom wants to make the religion of Jesus, with its Bethlehem, its angelic choir and its anthem of 'Peace on Earth,' a laughing stock to the ungodly and a contempt to the heathen the best thing it can do will be to set the two foremost Christian nations of the earth to work to relieve suffering humanity, and blow over another's banner."

"Unless we utterly misceivance the sentiments of the Christianized masses, both here and on the other side of the water, such issue will be morally impossible. There will be no conflict that will not be a conflict of masses and pronouncements on either side, if the church of the Bethlehem Christ comes out and records its veto. Christianity, both here and in England, is thoroughly an anti-war people, and the life of our armies and navies to clash in warfare, at the same moment that the churches of the two countries are thundering peace. The plan to place the blame on the Monroe doctrine, only it is safe to say this nation is not going to be drawn into an international conflict, and the Monroe doctrine, signed by a majority of the members of Parliament and addressed to our government asking them to join in a perpetual treaty of peace, will not be accepted. The Monroe doctrine is a doctrine of peace, and the destruction of life and treasure and the demoralization of our entire organic life in behalf of a doctrine, such as that which is being advanced, is not only not to be tolerated, but it is a disgrace to the American flag. Indicated the Chairmanship of the Venezuelan Commission. CHICAGO, Dec. 22.—A special to the Chronicle from Indianapolis says: Friends of President Harrison asserted today, without qualification, that he had received an offer of the presidency of the Venezuelan committee from the administration, and that he had declined the position. According to the story, the offer was made by the administration, and Harrison declined it because he was not a native-born citizen, and because he was not a member of the administration.

WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 22.—John Lipsey, a prominent farmer living in this county, went to the front of his house, and drove his family from home, was captured yesterday after having stood the officers of five days. READY TO PROVIDE RELIEF

Republican Leaders in the House Practically Agree Upon a Measure.

NO ADJOURNMENT FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Bill to Be Pushed Through and Sent to Senate at Once—Bonds Will Be Authorized, Coupled With a Revenue Provision.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 22.—This promise to be an eventful week in the house. Before adjournment is reached next Saturday, the republican leaders intend that the bill to be sent to the senate in response to the demand of the president's message on Friday for some means of relieving the treasury situation and protecting the gold reserve. The republican leaders determined to act promptly as soon as the message was sent in, and all idea of taking a recess for the holidays was abandoned in the face of the situation presented. The ways and means committee was organized yesterday, and last night the republican members held a secret session at the capitol, when Speaker Reed was present, to discuss the details of a bill which, in their opinion, would furnish the desired relief.

As a preliminary it was decided that while the situation in the senate, as to the fate therein of any measure passed by the house, should be kept in mind, the house must act independently of the result in the upper branch of congress. The general outline of a measure was practically agreed upon, but the details have not been completed. The committee will report to the house tomorrow, and it is expected that a bill will be introduced by the end of the week.

RESCUER LOST HIS OWN LIFE.

British Ship Willowbank Sent to the Bottom by the Berlin.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The American line steamship Berlin, Captain Lewis, from Southampton for New York, collided with and sank the British ship Willowbank, Captain Young, of Glasgow, thirty miles southeast of the Isle of Portland at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. H. M. S. Blake arrived upon the scene at 7 o'clock this morning and picked up a waterlogged lifeboat. She sighted the Berlin, hove to, and rescued the crew of one of the Berlin lifeboats, which had lost control of her rudder in the heavy sea. This American line telegraph from Southampton as follows: "The Red Star steamship Berlin, from Antwerp for New York, has returned here with her bow damaged by a collision with the Willowbank, whose crew was saved, and are aboard the Berlin, including the captain and the first mate. The pilot of the Willowbank, who went below to save his clothes, was drowned."

SPREE TOWED OFF THE LEDGE.

LONDON, Dec. 22.—The steamship Spree was towed off Warden ledge near Tottland, Isle of Wight, upon which she was run Tuesday last by four tugs. This afternoon, and has proceeded to Southampton, apparently unharmed.

BOUGHT GREEN GOODS CIRCULARS.

Interesting Find at a Warehouse Lots of Unclaimed Property. NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—Among the articles found at a recent action sale of unclaimed goods in the Adelphi storehouse were two large packing cases, the contents of which were not known. They had been brought there with several articles of furniture by a young man who gave his name as George Halen. Ludwick Horabek made a bid, which was immediately raised by a smooth-faced young man, who, the warehouse people say, had a large number of green goods circulars and envelopes containing circulars and telegraph blanks. There were also a list of names and addresses, each one designated by a number, and several thousand copies of circulars and envelopes containing circulars and telegraph blanks. Among the envelopes was one addressed to D. Lamont, Washington, D. C. It was probably intended for the secretary of war. It contained a full set of green goods literature. One letter was from Robert Henry of Sault Ste. Marie. It was addressed to Charles Martin at Fourteenth Street, New York. The writer lamented that so many mistakes had been made in their business. He said he had borrowed $900 with which to buy counterfeiting money, and had bought a farm, intending to pay for it with the green goods.

REMEDY MUST COME FROM WITHIN.

Views of French Bankers on American Finances. PARIS, Dec. 21.—A representative of the Associated press had interviews with the principal importers of gold from America, including the houses of Alard, Hirsch, Lazard & Levy, and the Comptoir d'Escompte Credit Lyonnais, with a view of obtaining their opinion upon the financial situation in the United States. The substance of their remarks is that it depends entirely upon the action of congress. If congress does nothing, the situation will become serious, and in any case, they add, the remedy must come from within. In conclusion, they join in saying that under the present conditions, the situation is not on the subject, but it was affirmed that there is no cause for serious alarm. Mr. Hirsch thinks that with the fall in prices of all securities, the situation in the United States is very serious, and the first opportunity should be seized to withdraw the greenbacks, which, in his opinion, are the main cause of the instability. All the persons interviewed agreed that the situation is not ultimately settled by arbitration and express satisfaction at the fact that this timely diversion will prevent Great Britain from further embroiling the situation in the case.

RESCUER LOST HIS OWN LIFE.

Bluefields, W. Va., Dec. 22.—Fire at 5 o'clock this morning resulted in a monetary loss of $50,000, one man killed and several others injured.
